4 Can Duke Phil its voids?

Duke has been disappointed in the Final Four three of the past four years. Without Phil Henderson and Alaa Abdelnaby, can Hurley and Co. gain the elusive crown?

By DOUG HOOGERVORST

6 'Hoos counting out Virginia?

At 29, Virginia helmsman Jeff Jones is the youngest coach in ACC history. His team is highly experienced, nationally ranked and ready for respect. Will the chemistry work?

By JAY EXUM

12 Chilcutt hopes to feast on ACC

With Scott Williams and Kevin Madden gone, enormous gaps are left in UNC's frontcourt. If someone feeds senior Pete Chilcutt, though, he'd be more than happy to fill in.

By NEIL AMATO

14 Fox chases star potential

Rick Fox figures to lead a young Tar Heel team. If the pressure doesn't get to him, and he masters his tremendous ability, the senior could be the key to UNC's success.

By SCOTT GOLD

15 The man who would be King

King Rice has battled criticism on and off the court for three years, but the senior hopes a change of attitude will make him a part of UNC's storied point guard tradition.

By MARK ANDERSON

16 Three to get ready ...

Derrick Phelps, Pat Sullivan and Brian Reese are only part of an all-star cast of freshmen that has been called one of the greatest recruiting classes ever.

By STEWART CHISAM

17 ... and two for the show

With Scott Williams gone, big men Cliff Rozier and Eric Montross, the marquee recruits in a star-studded cast of Tar Heel newcomers, could contribute to UNC's plans immediately

18 It's all a cinch for Lynch

As a mere frosh in '89-90, George Lynch impressed, among others, Dick Vitale with his ferocious lane play. Now he must step up to play a more versatile inside-outside game.

22 Rebels without a cause

Despite a probation which may prevent UNLV from defending its national title, the Rebels are loaded and sit atop a field sure to make the Sweet Sixteen in the 1991 tourney.
