Mr. J. Whit Bell.

The people of Scotland Neck were saddened by the death of Bro. J. Whit Bell in Norfolk last week where he had been some time sick in the hospital. Bro. Bell was one of the oldest citizens of Scotland Neck, born Nov. 14, 1840. When the civil war came along Bro. Bell was one of the first to volunteer, joining Co. B. First N. C. Cal. under Stuart. He was a brave soldier and was wounded at Brandy Station. He was a member of Buck Kitchen Camp Confederate Veterans, Nov. 14th 1866 he was married to Miss Annie Elizabeth Whitmore who was a faithful and loving companion to him to the day of his death. To this union were born six children, three of which died in infancy, and three with his wife survive him. Bro. Bell was converted in 1876 in the meeting which C. Durham held here when many of the most prominent people were converted and united with the Baptist Church. He was a faithful and consistent member of the church until the day of his death. He was a quiet and modest man, belonging to the Old Guard of the Church and he will be greatly missed by his friends and brethren. In his last days he was a great sufferer and our hearts are comforted with the thought that all of this is over. Our hearts go out to the loved ones in their bereavement. He is survived by his widow and three children, G. Lloyd Bell, of Suffolk, Va., J. Leonard Bell and Mrs. Hattie Branch, of Norfolk. He was buried at the Episcopal Cemetery Wednesday evening August 28, Scotland Neck. The pall bearers were G. K. Moore, J. M. Tillery, Julian Pendleton, Chas. Speed, E. T. Whitehead, G. W. Bryan, J. A. Pittman, and W. T. Pendleton.

Opening of Graded School Sept. 9.

School will begin next Monday morning, Sept. 9th., at nine o'clock.

We desire that every pupil who expects to enter during the term shall be present at the opening. If it is impossible to do this on account of sickness or other reasonable cause, word should be sent to the teacher during the day of the opening, stating why pupil is absent and when he will probably enter school.

A great many of the books can be bought at the stores in town that handle books and those that can not be secured in any other way will be ordered by the superintendent provided the cash is deposited with the teacher in advance and that the order with the cash is put into the hands of the teacher before 3:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 10. This arrangement is made entirely for the convenience of the pupils and the superintendent should not be expected to make separate orders for pupils who come in late.

Pupils are warned not to buy books until they are sure that they know what books are to be used. A list of books needed will be furnished the pupils of each grade the day of the opening.

Teachers are requested to meet Saturday afternoon, Sept. 7th., at five o'clock in the superintendent's office.

COULD NOT SLEEP NIGHTS

SUFFERER FROM SKIN TROUBLE TELLS HOW HE FOUND RELIEF IN SAXO SALVE.

"I suffered from a severe skin affection so I could not sleep nights. I was almost crazy with itching. I would scratch and almost tear myself to pieces. I tried a great many remedies without relief. When I saw Saxo Salve advertised I decided to try it and one tube entirely cured me. I recommend it wherever I go." A. L. Morgan, Endicott, N. Y. Many persons around here suffer so much from eczema that they cannot sleep at night. Saxo Salve stops the terrible itching and soothes and heals the eruptions. In all kinds of eczema, salt rheum, tetter, barber's itch, etc., Saxo Salve has wonderful healing power because it penetrates the skin pores and destroys the germs at the very seat of the disease. We give back your money if Saxo Salve does not help you.
