Vicious Dogs.

A dog was outlawed and killed for having bitten David Glavin, on the stre-t. Another attacked a gentle man's borse on Water street and caught him by the nose for which he will probably receive the same doom. Not content with showing their vicions dispositions towards men and horses the cauines have tried their efforts against each other. Quite an excitement was raised on the wharf by a contest between some dogs on a vessel, which was so fieree as to make all the men on board flee to the wharf for safety.

Outrageous Conduct. Isaac Stocks and others, colored, members of one of those nuisances known as "Labor Unions," attempted to intimidate Joshua Telfair, another negro, for laboring for a certain employer whom the Union did not like. He was threatened with death, and the attempt made to compel him to ioin the organization to which the others belong. Demonstrations of The atmosphere has been quite cool | violence were used towards him which resulted in his seeking the protection no frost of much consequence here of the law. Justice Wagner held Stocks in a pance bond of $100 for appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court. Stocks attempted to retaliate, by having Teltair arrested; but his warrant was dismissed at

Nelson Jones, colored, who lived on Middle Sound, was drowned last others had been out fishing, and as they were coming in their boat was capsized and though the others were rescued, Jones failed to keep himself above water till the help which was hastening to his rescue could arrive.

Thaddens Moore, of Point Caswell, Pender county, was drowned on last Tuesday morning at Mr. O. G Parsley's wharf The deceased went on board the steamer North East at about 3 e'clock, and when about to leave he stepped into the river, forget'ing probably the position of the boat and supposing that he was stepping on the wharf. Before he could be rescued the current carried him under a flat and he was lost. The deceased was about 25 years of age
