Remarkably mild weather continues.

W. L. Smith, Esq., of this city has been appointed a Notary Public.

The little folks, and some of the big ones, begin to watch the wind as on the Toy sheps with unexampled anxiety.

The bridge at Weldon will soon be ready for the passage of trains. Over three hundred workmen are engaged. Trains are expected to pass over by the 18th inst.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend a public debate of the literary societies of Wake Forest College to be held on their 43d Anniversary, on Friday, February the 15th, 1878.

We have just received (Friday) in the city, of an absence of several weeks. The delay last week and this would have been prevented had we been present to issue the paper in each week, on supply which delayed by the washing away of the bridge by the late freshet, and additional workmen this. Some typographical errors in our editorials, generally such as our readers would readily correct for themselves, have occurred on account of our absence from the head pencil. We hope to be on time hereafter, and to avoid errors and ajoin, &c.

THE FLOWERS COLLECTION

WILMINGTON DEMOCRAT.

VOL. I. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1877. NO. 11.

The weather is delightfully pleasant. The Sampson County Agricultural Society, is having a most favorable time for the Fair, which is in progress at Clinton. Gov. Vance and Col. Polk will have immense audiences. The Fair will be a decided success.

We are indebted to Mr. Isham Peterson of Newark, N. J., for a copy of the "Ulster County Gazette" published at Kingston N. Y., by Samuel Freer & Son, dated Saturday, Jan. 4th, 1800. It contains an account of the funeral of General Washington, who died on the 14th day of December 1799. It is full of interest and will appear in our next issue. Among the items of interest we find an advertisement of "For Sale," in the town of Rochester, "A stout, healthy, active negro wench"—this only seventy eight years ago—when they were all sold to the Southern people what a wonderful difference it made in the sentiments of the people of Rochester!

The relatives and friends, in this State, of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jussley, of Darien Georgia, will be pained to learn that Mrs. Jussley died at her home near Darien, on the 9th inst., after a severe illness of three weeks. She was a pious member, of the Episcopal church. Her bereaved and sorrowing husband and children have the earnest sympathy of all her numerous relatives and friends in this State. Mr. Jussley is a native of this city and Mrs. Jussley was born and raised in Duplin county. She spent last summer amidst the scenes of her childhood with her relatives and friends, returning in September to her home at Darien and now has taken her departure to her eternal abode in Heaven.

Burglary.

A white employee of Mr. F. A. Schutte concealed himself in the store one night last week and was locked in. After appropriating a pistol and other valuables he broke out. He has not yet been arrested.

Fire Alarm.

A frame building, near the Cotton Compress, was burned on Saturday night last, about 11 o'clock. The alarm caused considerable excitement, many supposing the fire to be at the compress.

The Navassa Guano Company.

The stockholders of this company are holding their annual meeting in this city to day. The company has been successful in selling all the fertilizers it could manufacture. The old officers have been unanimously reelected for the ensuing year.

Rev. J. E. Mann.

This popular minister, who is now about making arrangements for his new field as Presiding Elder of the Washington District, preached at the Front Street Church last Sunday morning and at the Fifth Street Church in the evening. His congregation here parts with him with great reluctance.

Brigadier General.

We are glad to see that M. P. Taylor of this city has been appointed by Gov. Vance, Brigadier General in the State Guard, and assigned to the 2d Military District. Basil C. Manly of Raleigh, has been appointed to the same rank, and assigned to the 1st Military District. Both excellent appointments.

Arrested.

A young man from Fayetteville by the name of Williamson was arrested here on last Friday, in compliance with a telegram from E. P. Powers J. P., of that place, under a criminal charge. The prisoner, who is quite young, demeaned himself well under the circumstances. He was taken to Fayetteville, in custody of Mr. James E. Flowers on the evening of the same day.

Rev. E. A. Yates.

This prominent minister of the Methodist Church, who is assigned for the ensuing year to the Front Street Church in this city, was the recipient of a fine gold watch, presented by his friends and admirers of the Newbern District, in which he had labored as Presiding Elder as long as the rules of his denomination would permit, as a testimonial of their love and confidence. The presentation took place in Salisbury at the Annual Conference recently held.

First Baptist Church.

The meetings at this church are daily increasing in interest. Rev. Mr. Jordan the very efficient evangelist, whose labors here have been so eminently successful elsewhere, is laboring with earnestness and zeal and has gained the attention of the large congregations which fill the large church edifice every night. The members of the church have been awakened and are giving their earnest assistance to their faithful, devoted and most excellent pastor Rev. J. B. Taylor, who is aiding Mr. Jordan with all his might. A great awakening among the unconverted has already taken place. We learn that sixteen have connected themselves with the church and that a large number of penitents are asking for prayer and instruction.

Mr. Neil S. McLaurin.

Rev. Dr. Wilson conducted the funeral services of this excellent young man, whose death has caused so much sorrow, on last Sunday, at the First Presbyterian Church. His remains were escorted to Oakdale Cemetery by the Wilmington Light Infantry, and the Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company, he having been an honored member of both organizations. A large number of mourners were present upon the sad occasion.

Cotton Burned.

A large lot of cotton from Georgia and South Carolina, stored in the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta railroad yard, and awaiting compression to be shipped, was set on fire on Wednesday afternoon by a small white boy, accidentally doubtless. The fire spread very rapidly and did considerable damage to the cotton and to the buildings of the railroad company before it was extinguished, though the fire engines, A. Adrian, Lint Grant and Cape Fear, were soon on the spot and did their work splendidly and efficiently. The fire department was aided by all present with the utmost alacrity. The damage amounts to from $8,000 to $10,000, and is fully covered by insurance.

DUPLIN COUNTY ITEMS.

The County Commissioners have hired out all the convicts who were sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail, to the very great delight of those who were before unaccustomed to prison life.

B. Witherington, Esq., has gathered from a plat of ground containing twenty acres, which was planted on the 14th of May, sixteen bales of cotton weighing five hundred pounds each. Good farming.

We learn that Prof. Lewis, who has a fine music school at Kenansville, is preparing to give a musical entertainment sometime during the Christmas holidays, which he designs making very attractive. The time will be announced hereafter.

Warren Lodge, No 101 F. & A. Masons, at Kenansville, held their annual election for officers on Thursday last, with the following results:

J. D. Southerland,	W. M
O. H. Allen,	S. W
Jesse Westbrook,	J. W.
I. B. Kelly, Jr.,	Treasurer.
T. S. Watson,	Secretary.

The town of Kenansville was enlivened on Thursday last by a marriage at the house of A. T. Stanford, Esq. The happy and fortunate bridegroom was Mr. Ed. Love, telegraph operator at Mt. Olive, and the bride was Miss Mary Stanford, one of the fair, pleasant and agreeable young ladies of Kenansville. May good fortune and happiness be their unchanging lot.

The ladies and gentlemen of Magnolia, will give an entertainment, at the Seminary building in that place, on the evening of the 21st inst., for a benevolent purpose. The programme, we understand, is a very inviting one, and all who attend may promise themselves a pleasant time. The exercises will commence at 6½ o'clock. The admission is placed at the low figure of 25 cents, children 15 cents. We hope there will be a full attendance.

A Card.

WALLACE, N. C.,
Dec. 10th 1877.

Mr. Editor:—The rumor has prevailed for some time that I had determined to change my location and that I had abandoned the practice of medicine, &c. I desire to say, through your paper, to my friends, that such rumors have no foundation whatever, and are circulated by designating persons. I expect to remain where I am, and shall continue to make a specialty of the diseases of women and children.

Respectfully,
V. N. Seawell.

Duplin County Medical Association.

This organization met pursuant to adjournment at Kenansville, on Monday, the 3d inst. The following physicians of Duplin county compose the body, viz: H. W. Faison, J. W. Stewart, L. Hussey, I. M. C. Lofin, J. W. McGee, John Hill, Calhoun Hill, S. W. Johnson, V. N. Seawell, A. H. Hicks and A. J. Jones.

Proceedings of last meeting were read and approved. The Committee, appointed for that purpose, reported a set of by-laws for the future government of the body. On motion of Dr. Loftin, some changes were ordered, and the report adopted.

On motion of Dr. McGee, the association then resolved itself into a Board of Health for Duplin county, to go into operation Jan. 1. 1878, and the Secretary directed to notify the Secretary of the State Board of Health.

Adjourned to meet on the 1st Monday in April, 1878. J. W. Blount, President.
V. N. Seawell, Secretary.

SAMPSON COUNTY ITEMS.

We regret to learn that diptheria has been raging in the upper portion of the county. The youngest child of Isham Royal, Esq, aged eleven months, was one of the victims of the terrible disease. It has been very fatal, but is now abating.

W. A. Faison, Esq., a gentleman of high standing in this county, gives us a recipe for rheumatism, which he says he knows to be excellent. We publish it for the benefit of those who are suffering from this terrible affliction. It is as follows: One pint of kerosene, one pint spirits of turpentine, one oz. gum camphor and one oz. spirits of ammonia, mix well and use as a liniment.

N. F. Highsmith, Esq., of Franklin township, with one assistant and one horse, reports that he has harvested from uplands, three hundred bushels of corn, three thousand pounds of fodder, twenty-five bushels of rice, twenty five bushels of field peas and one hundred bushels of sweet potatoes. The rice was produced from one gallon of seed. No commercial fertilizer was used. He also reports fruit of the large purple egg plant, over twenty inches in circumference. Such results in farming demonstrate the folly of leaving North Carolina for better lands.

A new Baptist Association, held on the first of this month, in the extreme western portion of this county, was named "South River Association." Ten churches, represented by thirty active, zealous delegates, compose the body. Rev. A. B. Alderman was chosen Moderator, G. W. Highsmith Secretary and Capt. J. L. Autrey Treasurer. Isham Royal, J. L. Autrey, O. H. Guy, L. W. Strickland and H. G. Britt were appointed an Executive Committee. The greatest harmony prevailed. It was a decidedly pleasant session.

Mrs. M. M. Killett gives us the following very sad intelligence: Rev. J. W. Dickson, (her brother) of Flemington, Columbus county, lost in two days, about the last of October, three of his five children and one of the remaining two died in about a week afterwards. That fell destroyer, diptheria, was the disease. Mr. Dickson had a lovely and promising family of children and in a few days was rendered almost childless. The oldest was under ten years of age. Such a bereavement is heart-rending and would be unendurable but for the knowledge that they are all happy in the better land. Little Emma, 6 years old, just before her death, said "Lulie and Henry are waiting for me over yonder and I am coming directly." All await the coming of the dear ones left behind.

M. M. Killett, Esq., one of the cleverest and best of Sampson farmers, has bacon hams two and three years old, which are perfectly free from bugs, skippers or worms and which are deliciously nice. We give his plan for keeping them and hope many of our readers will profit by his experience. He buys cheap home spun, the cheapest he can find, and makes two bags for each ham. The but of the ham is put down in the first and the opening at the top closed, then the ham is placed in the second bag with the hock end down, then a string is looped around the open end of the bag and it is hung up until desired for use. One yard of cloth costing five or six cents will make two bags and, if taken care of, they will last five or six years. It takes two to preserve the meat perfectly. The flies can't get a bug, or worm will reach the meat and the older it gets the better it will be. It is a cheap, nice and convenient plan.

Court adjourned on Friday evening. The State docket was finished that morning. A large number of defendants were convicted. One white man, convicted for an assault upon a negro, was sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail for three months; another for an assault upon a young lady, received a similar sentence for twelve months. As many as eight or ten negroes were convicted of larceny yet but two were sent to the penitentiary; one for five years the other for one. The Judge's administration of the Criminal law met the decided disapprobation of all the good people of the county. All civil matters which did not require a jury, were disposed of at the clerk's office by the Judge and bar and a considerable number of cases adjudicated. Only one civil cause requiring a jury was tried, though a large number were ready for trial. The case that involved a question of fraud and the defendant who testified strongly in his own behalf and against whom the jury rendered a verdict notwithstanding his testimony was put under bonds for his appearance at next court to answer an indictment for perjury. While we take pleasure in bearing testimony again to the uniform courtesy and kindness with which Judge Moore treated all the members of the bar, candor and truth forbid us to award him that praise for his public conduct here which he deserved and received for his acts in Duplin.

JONES COUNTY LOCALS.

J. B. STANLEY, Editor.

Mr. Enoch Noble, a very estimable citizen of Beaver Creek township, of this county, died on the 21st ult., aged about 80 years.

On the 23d ult., Mr. Berry Scott and Miss L. Jane Andrews were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Thomas Wilcox, Esq., at Trenton.

Mr. Register is making fine progress with the bridge at Trenton, and from every indication, we may soon expect a good substantial bridge, which will be a great convenience to our whole community.

We have every kind of weather—fair, cloudy and rainy—a little cold and a little warm.

We have driven the monster, whiskey, from Trenton township; but there is a barroom on nearly every road, just over the line, and they are said to be well patronized.

We are having a nice time of it in Trenton. The citizens are having their hogs butchered. Pig's feet and sausage are plentiful.

The cotton will soon be all picked out and the most of it sold. We hope the farmers will remember what difficulties they had to encounter during the crop season, and will not waste their hard earnings in luxuries, but save them and procure supplies, and not have to mortgage their crops and pay a ruinous interest.

"Russell & Co.," of New York, have found luck for our representative, J. F. Scott. They have forwarded to him a circular stating that he had drawn, in several lotteries, eighty different patterns of Gold Jewelry, valued at $2×6, and if he would forward them $14 as per contage, and give his nearest express office, they would ship the goods. Mr. Scott will not probably be caught by any such transparent swindle.

EDITORIAL NEWS NOTES.

Egypt will send 13,000 additional troops to aid the Turks.

Affairs in France are still unchanged and uncertain.

Conkling has triumphed over Hayes in the matter of New York appointments.

Rev. Dr. A. T. Bledsoe a distinguished Methodist minister and author is dead.

Edward Coningland, Esq., of Halifax a very prominent lawyer and a most excellent man was killed by the cars last week.

Servia is about to engage in the war against Turkey. Austria remonstrates. The British talk of mediation.

Eustis has been seated by the Senate. If Kellogg had been rejected, and Spofford admitted, Louisiana would be truly represented and justice and right would have prevailed.

The Post Route bill which failed at the extra session has passed the House. This will enable the Postmaster-General to give the South increased mail facilities.

The people of Georgia by a very large majority have approved the new Constitution. A man must pay his taxes in that State now before he can vote. A wise provision. Atlanta will be the future capitol.

Senator Patterson, who was in custody under a warrant of arrest upon a requisition of Gov. Hampton, has been discharged under a writ of habeas corpus. Judge Humphreys delivered the opinion of the court.

Buckback, the negro claimant for senatorial honors from Louisiana, rejected by the same senators who seated Kellogg with weaker claims than his, has written a letter resigning. He gives strong home thrusts.

The Eastern war is approaching the end. The Turks recently gained some victories at Elena and Armeli. Subsequently the Russians gained a great victory at Plevna, capturing Osman Pasha and his entire army. The Turks fought with desperate valor, and only surrendered when resistance was no longer possible, and their brave commander was severely wounded. If the Ottoman Empire shall be destroyed, the stay of Mohammedism will be gone, and the world vastly benefitted.
