

Market Review and Marine and Weather News

GOVT. CROP REPORT FOR THE STATE

Interesting Summary Given of the Crops in North Carolina Up to Sept 1

Washington, D. C., September 8.—A summary of the September crop report for the State of North Carolina and for the United States, as compiled by the Bureau of Crop Estimates (and transmitted through the Weather Bureau), United States Department of Agriculture, is as follows:

Corn—State: September 1 forecast, 59,100,000 bushels; production last year (final estimate), 64,050,000 bushels.

United States: September 1 forecast, 2,710,000,000 bushels; production last year (final estimate), 3,054,525,000 bushels.

All Wheat—State: Preliminary estimate 10,342,000 bushels; production last year (final estimate), 10,355,900 bushels.

United States: September 1 forecast, 611,000,000 bushels; production last year (final estimate), 1,011,505,000 bushels.

Oats—State: September 1 forecast, 5,100,000 bushels; production last year (final estimate), 3,050,000 bushels.

United States: September 1 forecast, 1,230,000,000 bushels; production last year (final estimate), 1,540,362,000 bushels.

Rye—State: Preliminary estimate, 495,000 bushels; production last year (final estimate), 575,000 bushels.

United States: Preliminary estimate, 41,994,000 bushels; production last year (final estimate), 49,190,000 bushels.

Potatoes—State: September 1 forecast, 2,900,000 bushels; production last year (final estimate), 3,150,000 bushels.

United States: September 1 forecast, 318,000,000 bushels; production last year (final estimate), 359,103,000 bushels.

Sweet Potatoes—State: September 1 forecast, 8,630,000 bushels; production last year (final estimate), 8,925,000 bushels.

United States: September 1 forecast, 69,300,000 bushels; production last year (final estimate), 74,295,000 bushels.

Hay—State: Preliminary estimate, 428,000 tons; production last year (final estimate), 648,000 tons.

United States: Preliminary estimate, 86,200,000 tons; production last year (final estimate), 85,225,000 tons.

Apples—State: September 1 forecast, 2,320,000 barrels; production last year (final estimate), 1,972,000 barrels.

United States: September 1 forecast, 67,600,000 barrels; production last year (final estimate), 76,670,000 barrels.

Peaches—State: Estimated production 1916, 897,000 bushels; estimated production 1915, 1,955,000 bushels.

United States: Estimated production 1916, 36,990,000 bushels; estimated production 1915, 63,460,000 bushels.

Cotton—State: Aug. 25 forecast, 661,000 bales; production last year (Census), 699,494 bales.

United States: Aug. 25 forecast, 11,800,000 bales; production last year (Census), 11,191,820 bales.

MISS MARY WOHLFORD.

Miss Mary Wohlford, 22, a student at Stanford University, is believed to be the youngest woman head of a corporation in the country.

She is taking a course in electric engineering at Stanford and upon her graduation will assume active management of the corporation.

mate, 86,200,000 tons; production last year (final estimate), 85,225,000 tons.

United States: September 1 forecast, 67,600,000 barrels; production last year (final estimate), 76,670,000 barrels.

Peaches—State: Estimated production 1916, 897,000 bushels; estimated production 1915, 1,955,000 bushels.

United States: Estimated production 1916, 36,990,000 bushels; estimated production 1915, 63,460,000 bushels.

Cotton—State: Aug. 25 forecast, 661,000 bales; production last year (Census), 699,494 bales.

United States: Aug. 25 forecast, 11,800,000 bales; production last year (Census), 11,191,820 bales.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Table with columns for location, temperature, and weather conditions for various cities like Wilmington, Asheville, and Charlotte.

LOCAL MARKETS.

Table listing prices for various commodities such as eggs, butter, and different types of beans.

STOCKS.

Table listing stock prices for various companies including American Beet Sugar, American Car and Foundry, and American Locomotive.

COTTON.

Table listing cotton prices for different grades and locations like Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah.

SUNRISE and SUNSET.

Table showing sunrise and sunset times for Sunday, including stage of water in Cape Fear River.

LAST STAMP DOCUMENT HAS BEEN ISSUED

(Special to The Dispatch.) Raleigh, Sept. 9.—Raleigh Democrats were elated last night when Colonel Bill Osborne telegraphed that the last stamp document had been issued and after this date the holders of mortgages, notes, marriage licenses and kindred papers would not be held responsible for this duty.

ADMINISTRATRIX NOTICE.

Having qualified as administratrix of the estate of Theodore S. Bidde, deceased, I hereby give notice to all persons having claims against said estate to present them to me on or before the 1st day of August, 1917, or this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery; all persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment. This the 1st day of August, 1916.

MILLIONS OF EGGS HELD IN COLD STORAGE

(By Associated Press.) Washington, Sept. 9.—Two hundred and twenty one firms are holding nearly five million cases of eggs, about 143,000,000 dozen, in cold storage, according to latest reports to the department of agriculture. The official shows that these figures are 10 per cent less than a month ago.

HE—“Has your father said anything about me?”

She—“Yes. He said that you ought to have been a big-league manager.” HE—“Did he say why?” SHE—“Yes. Because you are always explaining why you aren't doing anything this year and boasting about what you are going to do next year.”

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Table listing prices for various grains and provisions like wheat, corn, and pork.

“What's What” BY Pearl Franklin Godfrey

THERE'S a piece of news in the paper, Grandma,” said young Mrs. Kane. “The Doane's are going to move to Ohio!”

she demurred. “It's only a house dress.” “What if it is?” demanded Grandma Kane, “it's clean. Here—put this little shawl over your head.”

“She tripped across the street to the Doane's house.”

Arnold says she'll fix up my table the way they have it in the city and she's going to pour—just tea, with lemon and cream, and we'll have thin sandwiches and sweet wafers.”

house, Mrs. Kane took her best plates and cups out of the china cabinet, washed them and stacked them carefully on the kitchen table. Then she got her wedding silver out of the trunk upstairs, and her embroidered lining cloth and monogrammed table napkins.

going to wear my silk dress, because I'll be going in on the five o'clock train to that lecture with Charles—if you're sure you'll not be afraid to be alone.”

home and prepare supper before the six o'clock express came in. But Mrs. Arnold, who had a rich sister in the city and so knew “what was what,” gave them their cue, and it was almost four o'clock when the guests began to arrive.

She acted, instead, like a child scheming to do some forbidden thing. When both figures were lost to view, she tripped across the street to the Doane's house.