

WINSTON'S NEW HEALTH OFFICER

Winston-Salem Journal Writes Appreciatively of Dr. Thames

The Winston-Salem Journal of yesterday had the following editorial on that city's new health officer, Dr. John Thames, of this city, under the heading, "Our New Health Officer:" "Dr. John Thames should have smooth sailing in Winston-Salem. The way has been well paved for him. Most any man who is reasonably well fitted for the work should find it easy to follow Dr. Kinyoun. For Dr. Kinyoun has laid the foundation of an efficient Health Department deep and solid in this community. Winston-Salem will never be without a whole-time Health Officer, and as the months and years come and go his work will grow easier. For most of us have now learned something of what it takes to make and maintain a Health Department worthy of the name. It has taken Dr. Kinyoun only a few months to teach us that much.

"We have learned that adequate equipment and force are necessary to enable the Health Officer to accomplish anything worth while. To some of us the lesson was not a pleasant one, but we have learned it just the same. Never again in this community will responsible men throw up their hands in holy horror when the city authorities talk about spending a few hundred or a few thousand dollars more or less on the promotion of the public health. For the hard-headed business men of Winston-Salem have found out that the one best investment the city can make is an investment in the lives and health of its people. In other words, most of us have learned that "it pays"—pays in immediate financial returns—to keep the city clean and make and maintain for it a reputation of being a healthful place to live in.

"Yes, any man should find it easy to carry on the work which Dr. Kinyoun must turn over to other hands the first of October. For it is now assured that he will take up his duties with the almost solid co-operation of the people of Winston-Salem. We are certain that Dr. Thames will find his task here a pleasant one. For he is in every way well equipped for the position. He has had many years experience. His efforts as Health Officer in other communities have been crowned with success. This is especially true of his work in Wilmington and New Hanover county, where he is now located.

"It would, indeed, have been very difficult for Winston-Salem to have found a man who, in our judgment, is better fitted than is Dr. Thames for the job that awaits him here. He will come to this city with no new or pet theories of his own, but, like Dr. Kinyoun, he will put those theories into effect here which have long since been approved both by science and practical experience in other cities."

TWO AUTO ACCIDENTS

Two Machines Were Badly Damaged Today, But Occupants Unhurt.

The desire to demonstrate how dexterously he could handle a car caused Henry Clemmons, colored, to run into a telephone post at Sixth and Red Cross streets and do considerable damage to the car he was driving. The telephone post that was struck was torn down and the live wires were left dangling in the street.

The negro works at Pennell's garage. He stated that as he intended to turn into Sixth street from Red Cross that he noticed a Ford car standing in the center of the street and to protect the occupants of the smaller machine he ran into the pole. The negro was driving an Overland car. He was taken into custody by the police and was charged with exceeding the speed limit as a number of the onlookers stated that he was going fully 40 miles an hour.

Just preceding this accident a Princess street car ran into the automobile of Mr. B. R. Felton when he endeavored to cross Princess street at Sixth. No damage was done to either Mr. Felton or to the other passengers in the car, but the automobile was badly torn up. It was stated that the Princess street car was in charge of an inexperienced motorman.
