

TO DISTRIBUTE SMALL FISH

Government Fish Hatcheries at Beaufort to Distribute Fish to Larger Rivers

New Bern, Sept. 20.—Millions of little fish of numerous varieties which have been hatched at the laboratory at Beaufort, will within the next week or two be distributed in several of the larger rivers of the United States.

One of the United States Fisheries Bureau cars, in charge of Captain A. H. Kerth, passed through the city yesterday afternoon en route to Beaufort where these fish will be taken on board and will be transported to their planting place as soon as possible.

Just where these fish will be placed is not known, but supposedly in some river flowing through Kentucky as the car came from that section.

The Norfolk Southern Railway Company today operated another one of its cut rate excursion from points all along its line to Norfolk, Va., and when the train left New Bern it was crowded with several hundred passengers.

Combined with the fact that Virginia is soon to be as "dry" as a bone and that this may be the last chance that the "thirsty" ones will have of going to that State on a cut rate ticket before the bars are closed, was the cause of such a large patronage.

However, when the visitors return to the Tar Heel State they are going to meet with trouble. Old General Alarm has sent out orders to the police all along the line between Norfolk and New Bern and when the train starts on its homeward trip, there is not the slightest doubt but that a number of its passengers will not only lose the gallon or two which they will bring home for personal use but will also land in the arms of the law.

Once again the lumbermen in this section are able to get the timber out of the log-woods and to the mills. Heavy rains which have fallen in this section during the past few weeks have, in several instances, caused operations at many of the logging camps to be held up and a number of the mills were in grave danger of shutting down on account of a shortage of logs.

This has been a hard summer for the mill men and they have suffered losses in many ways.

MRS. L. A. WANET HAD TO BEND OVER BECAUSE OF PAINS

Phoenix Lady Tells How Tanlac, of All Medicines, Helped Her After Suffering For 10 Years—Statement Made Here.

Mrs. L. A. Wanet, of Phoenix, was among the recent out-of-town callers at the Bellamy Drug Store to personally thank the Tanlac Man for benefits received from the reconstructive tonic he is introducing to Wilmingtonians.

"I suffered from kidney troubles for the past ten years," Mrs. Wanet said, "and Tanlac is the best medicine I have ever taken and I prefer it to anything I have ever tried, as it has done me so much good that I gladly give my statement, so others may be reached by it through the papers.

"My appetite was very poor, and I was in a weak, run-down condition. I would stay wide awake all night. My back gave me lots of trouble and, when attacked frequently by a burning sensation, I had to bend over to ease my pain. Headaches also bothered me and quite often spells would come on like fainting attacks, and I had to take to bed. Everything seemed black to me. Before seeing Tanlac advertised, I had tried about everything I heard of without gaining a particle.

"But now," she smiled, "I have a splendid appetite—can eat and enjoy anything I care to—my back no longer hurts me, my head is much better, I am so much stronger than I was, and am able to get around and do some work."

The change that Tanlac brought for Mrs. Wanet is hard to realize unless the reader has suffered from any of the ailments described by the Phoenix lady. And her story is no exception to the many heard daily by the Tanlac Man from men and women who have given Tanlac a fair trial.

Tanlac is sold in Wilmington, at the Bellamy Drug Store, exclusively; Acme, Acme Store Co.; Burgaw, C. L. Halstead; Southport, Watson's Pharmacy; Rocky Point, A. N. Rhodes & Co.; Supply, H. W. Kirby; New Bern, Bradham Drug Store; Magnolia, W. L. Southall; Faison, Faison Drug Co.; Pembroke, G. W. Locklear; Fairbluff, J. P. Waddell, Sr. Each town has its Tanlac dealer.—Advt.

THEATRE

A big new show went on at the Victoria this afternoon, one that will please the great masses even better than the one presented the first of the week. "Blitz and Muldoon On The Midway" is a rattling-face comedy in one act, Irish and Dutch in character, with those two inimitable comedians, Jack Fuquay and Harold Giles in the comedy roles.

Entirely new scenery is carried by the Little Bluebird Company for this show, with some costumes that will amaze you with their elaborateness. No two numbers will be presented by the choruses with the same costumes, and this feature alone adds to the attractiveness of the show.

Dolly Parker will be right out there with a new singing specialty presenting "Knock the L' Out of Kelly" with Jack Fuquay and Chorus supporting her. This should be one of the real big hits of the week. There'll be an up-to-date Trio specially by Fuquay, Giles and Fleming, and Beulah Fuquay with "Nashville" will also be enjoyed. The scene of the play is the Covey Island midway in the Summertime, and attractive, to say the least, will be the costumes worn by the summer girls on the boardwalk.

Marguerite Clark Tomorrow.

For the first time in more than three months Wilmington admirers of dainty, little Marguerite Clark will have an opportunity of viewing her very latest Paramount feature at the Grand tomorrow. "Little Lady Eileen" is the title of this latest contribution to the screen starring the daintiest, demurest little beauty in screenland, and that the crowds will overflow the Grand from early till late is already proven by the many, many inquiries that have been pouring in concerning this her interest starring vehicle.

Marguerite Clark, the dainty incarnation of the elf spirit, herself, is starred by the Famous Players in a delightful romance that answers the question "Do You Believe In Fairies" even better than did Maude Adams in "Peter Pan." Strangely enough, it is only the little Lady Eileen who believes in fairies at the beginning of the story, but after we have seen the people of elf-land lead the trusting little girl to her true lover, and destroy the imposter who attempted to get possession of her fortune, there is no doubt at all that the fairies reward our faith in them.

Tomorrow the Royal presents another one of those great Bargain day affairs, giving that greatest of all series, "Gloria's Romance" starring Miss Billie Burke, together with a magnificent five act feature photoplay "The Children of Eve," starring that dainty little screen personality, Viola

Why is One Man Smarter than Another?

There is no real answer to this except--BECAUSE The same applies to International Made-To-Measure Clothes

THERE is no good reason why One tailor doesn't make as Smart a looking suit as his neighbor—but it is So nevertheless. We know what we're talking about for we've looked into the merits of every house worth while. And we back the International.

They give more for the money—their styles are natter—their fabrics are Smarter—in fact they hit the top notch in every feature of Clothes making

Why, we do not know. We say Because but maybe if you order a suit this Fall you may find a better answer.

Dana in the leading role.

"Gloria's Romance" is getting bigger, better and more entertaining every week, which is hard to imagine from the first chapter's great reception. Nevertheless it is true, as this great story written by Rupert Hughes, the master of modern story writers, is just now getting into the interesting episodes. And Billie Burke is as winsome, as enchanting and as girlish as ever in the delineation of her role.

Dainty little Viola Dana in "Children of Eve" will charm you by a wonderful picture—a picture of life in the Tenderloin painted in the vivid hues of sin—a story of infinite pathos—of smiles and heart-breaks. Children of Eve is just such a story as everyone likes, its human—withe an appeal as deep and strong as human nature itself.

Mutt and Jeff's Wedding. In former years you'll remember our heroes Mutt & Jeff—succeeded in properly opening the new Canal at Panama, also looked into the Mexican situation and attended College, but this season they have challenged fate openly.

Mutt & Jeff's wedding is the vehicle upon which they will ride to another tremendous success this year. Gus Hill has made a lavish production, even more elaborate than any of his former productions. Fun aplenty is promised and Mr. Hill always keeps his promises. Each successive season will find an entirely new offering, which will include book, music, scenery, costumes and last but not least, new faces.

Mutt & Jeff will never grow old as one never grows tired of laughing. Mutt & Jeff's wedding is one round of hilarious laughter, tempered with an unusually pretty bunch of choristers who can both sing and dance.

Mutt & Jeff's wedding will be at the Academy of Music on Thursday.

Buddie McDonald, colored, who left the city Sunday with Dodge car, the property of Mr. B. B. Cameron, manager of the MacMillan garage, has returned none the worse for his experience. The car was not damaged. McDonald left the city Sunday morning and when he failed to show up during the day Mr. Cameron became alarmed and reported the matter to Sheriff Cowan. The latter immediately telegraphed descriptions of both the driver and car to various outlying towns but nothing was heard of the car and driver until they returned to the city.

Announcing Our Readiness To Show New Millinery Models for Fall

"Charming" is the word that characterizes these new modes. They are charming indeed—in their novelty, their smartness, their becomingness. No woman who wears them can be anything but well dressed.

You've probably believed that only expensive millinery could be charming. But that isn't true. The charm of these modes isn't denied a woman of any class.

We should like at least to have you know these modes intimately. We'll be quite happy to have you merely inspect them.
