So is blushing. But while rather positive in some of his beliefs. Dr. Fletcher holds that the use of powder and paint by women is justified.

"With women," he said, "beauty is duty, and a woman has the right to use paint and powder if she needs them to make her more beautiful, but she ought to be more frank about it. Ugliness in woman is a sin in an age like this."

While pastor of the First Methodist Church in St. Louis, Dr. Fletcher opened a room for courting couples in the church. He is a strong advocate of woman suffrage.
