

Market Review and Marine and Weather News

LOCAL MARKETS.

Table listing local market prices for various goods including Eggs, Butter, Spring Chickens, Hens, Puddle Ducks, etc.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Weather forecast table for September 28, 1916, showing temperature, wind, and precipitation for various locations like Asheville, Atlanta, etc.

COTTON.

Cotton market report for New York, Sept. 28, detailing the cotton market's performance and prices for various grades.

STOCKS.

Stock market report for New York (Wall Street), Sept. 28, listing prices for various stocks like American Beet Sugar, American Can, etc.

NEW TRIALS GIVEN BY THE COURT

Berry Case Goes Back to Lower Tribunal and Also Personal Damage Suit.

Philadelphia, Sept. 28.—The identity of the woman who was shot in a hotel here yesterday as Mrs. Harry Belzer, who also shot and killed her companion, J. C. Graveur, of New York, after killing herself, was established as Mrs. Joseph H. Lebeck, of Chicago.

WOMAN ASSAILANT WAS FROM CHICAGO

Philadelphia, Sept. 28.—The identity of the woman who was shot in a hotel here yesterday as Mrs. Harry Belzer, who also shot and killed her companion, J. C. Graveur, of New York, after killing herself, was established as Mrs. Joseph H. Lebeck, of Chicago.

DISCHARGED LARGE CARGO.

Clyde Steamer Onandago Required Two Days and Three Nights. The Clyde Line steamer Onandago, which is on the Wilmington-Georgetown New York run while the Cherokee is being overhauled, sailed late last night for Georgetown, S. C., after discharging one of the largest cargoes received at this port by the Clyde steamers during the past three months.

AT 90 SHE LEARNS TO READ

Woman Never Had Time Before; Too Busy on Farm. Danville, Ill., Sept. 28.—"Aunt Mary" Norcross, age ninety, whose sixteenth birthday was celebrated last spring, is learning to read.

INDIANS ADOPT WHITE GIRL

Miss Rogers of Spokane Taken into Blackfeet Tribe. Kalispell, Mont., Sept. 28.—At the Kalispell roundup recently, before a large crowd, Miss Florence Rogers of Spokane was adopted into the Blackfeet tribe of Indians, Curley Bear, a noted Blackfoot chief, performing the ceremony.

CHICKENS NOT AFFECTED

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 28.—Experts in universities and colleges of the State have been asked to inform the State Department of Agriculture why strychnine will kill crows and not affect chickens when eaten. The State Live Stock Sanitary Board stirred up the question by sending out a notice urging that crows be exterminated and giving instructions as to use of the poison.

J. R. COLLIE.

Mr. J. R. Collie, of Louisville, is secretary of the State Democratic Executive Committee. He is a well-known Democrat and is zealously serving his party in that responsible position of the executive committee.

SUNRISE and SUNSET.

Table showing sunrise and sunset times for Friday, Sept. 28, 1916.

WILMINGTON NAVAL STORES

Table listing prices for Wilmington Naval Stores including Spirits, Rosin, Tar, Crude, etc.

SAVANNAH NAVAL STORES.

Table listing prices for Savannah Naval Stores including Spirits, Rosin, Tar, Crude, etc.

CHICAGO.

Table listing prices for Chicago commodities including Pork, Wheat, Oats, Ribs, etc.

WOMEN TO THE FARM.

Annie King and Polly Wright Drew Two Months Each for Affray. Sixty-days on the county farm was the length to sentences imposed on Polly Wright and Annie King, colored damsels, who were brought before Recorder B. G. Empe this morning, on a charge of engaging in an affray.

PRISONER FEES FROM JAIL.

Jefferson City, Sept. 28.—Wesley Oliphant, convict of the State Penitentiary from Henry county, had only four months of a two-year sentence to serve, but prison officials discovered here today that he had escaped for the second time this month.

SHOULD REDEEM HUSBAND.

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 28.—The Iowa Supreme Court, in session here, has handed down several Solomonian decisions. In one ruling, the court held that confession of a crime on the part of a husband does not constitute grounds for divorce proceedings.

SEEK SPLINTERS MADE BY BOLT AS TOOTHACHE CURE

Altoona, Pa., Sept. 28.—During a heavy electrical storm lightning struck a pole at Third avenue and Fourteenth street, reducing it to kindling wood. Residents for blocks around hurried to the scene and gathered up the splinters and took them home. It is a superstition that a splinter from a pole or tree struck by lightning used as a toothpick is a sure preventive of toothache.

ENJOY ALL CONVENIENCES.

In order to accommodate the goodly number of visitors and Wilmingtonians who are prolonging their stay at Wrightsville Beach to enjoy the present delightful autumn days at the seaside, arrangements have been made to continue the present schedule with the Beach cars for the present.

A woman who claims to know the most about how to raise children usually has none of her own to practice on.—Los Angeles Times.

Does your wife make her own bread?

Oh, it isn't that that gives me that haggard look. I've just had the grip, you know.—Exchange.

THE ROMANCE RENEWED.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 28.—Reunited in Seattle after a separation of eight months, during which the husband twice mysteriously disappeared, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Scharstein are hurrying back to their old home in Chicago plighting anew their troth and carrying the secret which led to their separation. The separation began when Mrs. Scharstein left her home last February to visit relatives in the South at the suggestion of her husband. Suddenly letters ceased.

FINDS BIG TARANTULA.

It Came North in a Cargo of Logwood. Philadelphia, Sept. 28.—A tarantula 13 inches long was discovered among the cargo of logwood now being discharged at Jefferson Street, Camden, from the schooner Rachel W. Stevens. The specimen was such a fine one that experts were summoned to inspect it. It was chloroformed, and when dead was placed in a jar of alcohol to be sent to one of the educational institutions in Philadelphia.

CHINESE MINISTER QUILTS.

Pekin, Sept. 28.—Mr. Wellington Cao, Chinese ambassador to the United States, has sent in his resignation to the foreign office, giving as the cause ill health.

Stage of water in Cape Fear river at Fayetteville, N. C. at 8 a. m. yesterday, 2.4 feet.

Mistress—Mary, your young man has such an air of braggadocio about him.

Mary—Yis, pore lad, he worruks in a livery stable.—Dartmouth Jack-o-Lantern.

DOG FOOLED 'EM ALL.

He Times Train's Advent to the Second and Grins at Crowd. Kennebec, Me., Sept. 28.—Persons at the railway station the other morning saw a big extra freight was coming along fast when a large dog started across the track.

BLIND SOON LEARNS TRADE

Young Man, Sight Lost, in Two Weeks is Able to Earn Living. Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 28.—That the Kentucky School for the Blind is in a position to teach the adult blind a trade by which they can earn a living was brought home to Frankfort people when John Grimes, a young man of this city, came home after a two weeks' stay at the home, able to make brooms, mops and cane chairs. Nearly four years ago Grimes lost the sight of one eye while employed in a sawmill in this city.

When the worst comes to the worst it is up to us to make the best of it.—New Cannan (Conn.) Advertiser.

COAL BARON'S WIDOW FORFEITS $10,000,000 BY REMARRYING.

MRS. JOHN C. MAYO AND CHILDREN.

Huntington, W. Va., Sept. 28.—Mrs. John C. Mayo, widow of the Kentucky coal operator, has forfeited $10,000,000 to become the bride of Dr. Samuel R. Fetter, of Portsmouth, Ohio. Her two children will get their mother's share in their father's will.

CHILDREN SAVE BOY SLAYER.

New Orleans, Sept. 28.—Willie Zimmer, 12, who shot his mother to death here July 14, will not be tried for murder. Chandler C. Luzenberg, district attorney, said the boy would neither be sent to the gallows nor imprisoned for life.

Boy and Girl Marry.

Waynesburg, Pa., Sept. 28.—The youngest couple ever married in Greene county were made husband and wife today by James McCracken, Clerk of the courts. Miss Cecelia Oletta Evans, fifteen-year-old daughter of A. J. Evans of Clarksville, was the bride, and George C. Brewer, fourteen-year-old son of A. S. Brewer of Whitely township, was the bridegroom. Both fathers witnessed the ceremony.

First Husband—The melancholy days have come, the saddest of the year, as the poet says.

Second Husband: Yes, and mine will be back tomorrow.—Exchange.

Visitor—Don't you sometimes envy the idle rich?

Farmer—No; I know men that have not a dollar who can be just as idle as anybody.—Exchange.

What has he been doing since he graduated from college?

He has been trying to find out what he learned.—Exchange.