New York, Oct. 2.—The cotton maropening. The census report was made which established high record advances in prices of from 5 to 39 points and active months sold 49 to 51 points higher in the first few minutes. Expectations of bullish crop figures from Washington stimulated the demand, which carried December to 16.57, Janwary to 16.61 and May to the 17 cent levels, with all positions making a new high record for the season.
