

WILMINGTON CAFE OWNER HEARTY IN INDORSING TANLAC

Had Spent Two Hundred Dollars For Other Treatments Without Gaining a Particle. Feels Fine Now.

"I am surely satisfied with what two bottles of Tanlac has done for me and I am back for two more bottles," said Philip Karas, proprietor of the Olympia Cafe, 307 North Front street, this city, to the Tanlac Man, at the Bellamy Drug Store.

"Before taking it, I suffered from indigestion and a rundown of the general system. My sleep was poor and my appetite was very bad. I felt sluggish upon awakening in the morning and could feel myself going back right along. I had spent two hundred dollars on other medicines and treatments without gaining a particle.

"Tanlac helped other people in Wilmington, and I saw no reason why I shouldn't give it a trial. And, it certainly has helped me, too. I am full of energy, now; my appetite is splendid; I can digest any food, and I feel so much relieved that I gratefully recommend Tanlac to all people suffering from indigestion."

Tanlac is sold in Wilmington exclusively at the Bellamy Drug Store; Acme, Acme Store Co.; Burgaw, C. L. Halstead; Southport, Watson's Pharmacy; Rocky Point, A. N. Rhodes & Co.; Supply, G. W. Kirby; New Bern, Bradham Drug Co.; Magnolia, W. L. Southall; Faison, Faison Drug Co.; Pembroke, G. W. Locklear. Each town has its Tanlac dealer.—Advt.

MOTHER SAVES THE BABE THAT WILD CAT HAD SEIZED.

Marysville, Cal., Oct. 3.—Mrs. Eben Fanning, who camped with her husband and six months old baby along the Feather River, near here, returned after a short stroll one afternoon to see a big wild cat in the act of carrying her baby from the basket in which it was asleep.

The animal did not run when Mrs. Fanning shrieked out, but stood its ground and held on the screaming baby. Mrs. Fanning picked up a club and fought the animal which dropped the child and ran to the woods.

The baby was badly bitten but will recover.

THEATRICAL

The biggest show yet at the Victoria. You who went into paroxysms of laughter and enthusiasm over the show presented Monday night, may find it hard to imagine, but it's true nevertheless. For three sets of splendid scenery go to help put over this show, which is in three great scenes, with all new specialties by that all-star aggregation, The American Girls Company.

"In Happyland" is the title and it features as comedians Raymond Lewis, Earl Root and Scottie Freidell, with Elsie and Lillian Ziegler, Pauline Glennmar and all the rest of the bunch who put Monday's show over so big.

Opening medley special by the entire company is followed by "Quaker Town," by Elsie Ziegler, who sang "There's Someone More Lonesome Than You" in the first show. Ray Lewis puts over that great 1916 hit, "He May Be Old But He's Got Young Ideas," in a manner which has never been seen here before. Pauline Glennmar presents another great dance novelty even better than her Whirlwind Dance, and Lillian Ziegler follows with "Some Girls Do and Some Girls Don't" another great hit of the year on Broadway. Then comes the treat in Scottie Freidell's presentation of that great hit, "Where Did Robinson Crusoe Go," assisted by the chorus.

During the second scene Lillian Root presents her great clog dance specialty and Lewis and Root put on another singing and dancing sketch. The third scene, an "Old Time After Piece," starts with "Cider Time," following with "They Called It Dixieland" and several other big hits. The costume for this bill are the prettiest yet seen and the show runs for something like an hour and fifteen minutes.

A Seven Reeler Tomorrow.

Another mammoth seven reel bill for five and ten cents, will be offering at the Royal Thursday, presenting the current chapter of that great serial "Gloria's Romance," together with a mammoth George Kleine super-drama in five acts, "The Money Master," containing more real stars than you ever saw before in a single feature.

The current chapter of "Gloria's Romance" full of thrills and big situations, with the enchanting personality of Billie Burke pervading every scene, is indeed a treat for everyone. This chapter gives Mis Burke the opportunity of injecting some of those winsome little bits of personal color which lends charm to the production throughout its entire length. There has been serials with more thrill and more melodrama, but never before a serial on the high plane of "Gloria's Romance" a pretty romance staged amid the most beautiful surroundings.

"The Money Master" a super-drama from the George Kleine studios, stars that great stage personality Frank Sheridan in the role of the money kind, Calvin Thomas, who was juvenile lead with Irene Fenwick in "The Song of Songs," Anne Meredith, one of the best known leading women on Broadway; Fania Marinoff, the stage and screen star with an international reputation, also Paul McAllister, Sam Reed and Malcolm Duncan!

"The Money Master" is a story of New York's East Side—of its misery and squalor and filth—or Wall Street and its guiding genius—a tale of sharp contrasts with an underlying heart appeal as powerful as it is dramatic. Don't miss it.

Noted Jap. Actor at Grand.

Sessue Hayakawa, the noted Japanese actor, who will be seen at the Grand tomorrow in the Jesse L. Lasky production of "The Honorable Friend," written especially for him by Elizabeth McGaffey and prepared for the screen by Eva Unsell, has long been considered by his fellow dramatic artists as one of the greatest actors on the screen. It was only recently, however, that he attracted the attention of the theatre-going public. This was accomplished when he was seen in support of Fannie Ward in the Lasky production of "The Cheat." Shortly after that, in answer to popular demand, he was starred in a Japanese story, "Alien Souls" and again repeated his success of the former production. In "The Honorable Friend," he has the role of a young Japanese in America, and it is said to be one of the most unusual in which he has appeared.

Hayakawa is surrounded by a cast of unusual excellence including such distinguished artists as Tsuru Ooki, Raymond Hatton and Billy Elmer.

MINNESOTA'S WAR SHAFTS.

Erected in the South for Sons Who Fell in Civil Strife.

St. Paul, Oct. 3.—Minnesota has recently erected monuments in the National Cemetery at Little Rock, Ark., Memphis, Tenn., and Andersonville, Ga., to the memory of Minnesota volunteers who lost their lives in the Civil War and were buried in these cemeteries. There are 162 buried in Little Rock, 189 in Memphis and 95 in Andersonville.

Each monument consists of a bronze statue of a private soldier of heroic size fixed upon a massive granite pedestal. The three monuments have been dedicated within the past two weeks. The ceremonies at Andersonville were held last Tuesday. The monuments were contracted for after the Minnesota Legislature had appointed a commission for that purpose.

HOW THE THIRSTY CAN MAKE CORN

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 3.—If there is any citizen who finds it absolutely impossible to obtain a drink of corn liquor, which does not seem likely notwithstanding Georgia's drastic prohibition laws, there is still a way for him to obtain substantially the same effect that follows the use of corn, according to a veteran revenue officer of Atlanta, who gives the following recipe for a first-class substitute:

Take a pint of straight alcohol, a quart of low grade kerosene, two ounces of cayenne pepper, two sticks of dynamite, mix well, and let stand overnight.

The exciting days of the blockade runners of the Civil War, who smuggled supplies to the Confederacy and smuggled cotton away from Confederate seaports, had nothing on the blockade runners who smuggle whiskey from Chattanooga into Atlanta.

They must travel roads that are not the best, must run the risk of automobile accidents and spilling their booze, and must be constantly on the alert for officers of the law at every turn of the road.
