THEATRE

The Winter Garden Musical Comedy Company comes to the Victoria today to fill the coming week, under a positive guarantee to uphold the high standard that was set last week by the American Girls Company, and for this reason, in order to introduce this great show to as many Wilmington amusement-lovers as possible, will admit a lady free tonight with each holder of a thirty cent paid admission ticket. It is hoped that every lady in Wilmington who likes good, clean entertainment of the musical comedy kind will avail themselves of this opportunity to be the guest of the management tonight.

The Winter Garden Girls Company features that great vaudeville team, Lola Vann and Jack Grant, in a "black and tan" specialty that is away above the average. The Telegram said of Grant: "His style of entertaining is entirely different from the usual black face comedian's work and it has a refreshing newness that makes good everywhere."

For Monday and Tuesday this all-star aggregation will present "On the Veranda," a production which alternates flashes of comedy, song and dance. Special scenery for every show with new and nifty costumes, add much to the company.

famous director of "The Iron Claw," directed "The Shielding Shadow." That's point No. 2 in its favor. Grace Darmond, one of the most beautiful women on the screen, still in her teens, but running Pearl White the race of her life in the matter of injecting dare-devil thrills in motion pictures, with her beautiful costumes seen at times like a delicate bit of Dresden china come to life—but she folds you. That's one of the biggest points in her favor.

Leon Barry, one of the most famous dramatic actors of all France, former leading with Sarah Bernhardt, plays the villain role in "The Shielding Shadow." Distinctly a dark type, Barry makes one of the most "charming" villains ever seen on the screen, outshining even the brilliant work of Sheldon Lewis. That's another big point. Ralph Kellard, as the hero, opposite Miss Darmond, adds another triumph to his magnificent screen record, and will be even more popular than the inimitable Creighton Hale. Another strong one!

Madeline Travers, famous as the heroine of Elinor Glyn's "Three Weeks," in a vampire role, is one of the most fascinating roles ever seen on a screen. One of the strongest factors in "The Shielding Shadow."

Add to all this its production by Louis Gashier and Donald McKenzie, the producers of "The Perils of Pauline," and the further fact that Pathe is charging double prices for it—and getting it—and you have the reason why the Bijou guarantees this serial, which begins next Friday, as "twice as great, twice as daring, twice as sensational—as 'The Iron Claw.'"

PEOPLE RELIEVED OF SUFFERING JOIN IN NATION-WIDE MOVEMENT TO EXPRESS THANKS FOR TANLAC

Multitudes Tell How They Were Helped by Great Tonic, Appetizer, Invigorant and Revitalizer While Tanlac Holds Attention Supreme

Tanlac, the great new master medicine and tonic for sick, weak, nervous run-down. men and women, is in two million homes today because of its true worth.

Multitudes of men and women who claim that Tanlac has given them back health and strength are going to observe the celebration of Tanlac Week, October 9 to 14, because they are grateful for the results Tanlac has given them.

Eight thousand leading druggists of the United States who endorse the remedy for relief from ills of the stomach and digestive system, liver and kidneys, will make a special display of the medicine. They know that Tanlac is the sensation of their business—the remedy that they are glad to sell because, as they say, "It gives universal satisfaction."

Tanlac's Success Immediate

Two years ago Tanlac was offered to the public in Lexington, Kentucky. Its success in alleviating pains and ills of the stomach and digestive system was instantly proclaimed by those who took the medicine. In nine months a million bottles had been sold in a limited territory. Today, only two years after Tanlac's presentation to the public, more than seven million bottles have been sold.

The endorsement of Tanlac by druggist and user means merit. Back of Tanlac's triumph in the drug store is Tanlac's triumph in the home. It has become a household remedy.

Tanlac has become known as The National Tonic. So great is its merit that a million dollar corporation has been formed to distribute it in Canada. New laboratories are being considered to increase the production, which is already at the amazing rate of over five million bottles a year. It is to be introduced in Hawaii, Porto Rico and Cuba.

Why People Talk About It

At one time one distributor of Tanlac ordered five carloads—72,000 bottles. In the same week four carloads were ordered for New York, two for Pennsylvania, one for Minnesota.

Only true worth of Tanlac as a relief for suffering could explain Tanlac's popularity. When people suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia, belching and bloating from gas, sourness and soreness of the stomach, inactive liver, biliousness, kidney troubles, pains in the side and back, headaches, weakness, sleeplessness, nervousness, loss of weight, catarrhal conditions, foul breath and rheumatism are helped by Tanlac they are sure to talk about Tanlac.

Tanlac is well advertised, but only its merit could create its popularity. It is what people who have taken Tanlac say about the medicine that has made it recognized as The Master Medicine.

Proper Relief Is Simple

Advertising may sell one bottle of Tanlac, but all the advertising in the world could not sell a second bottle to the purchaser if the first bottle did not give satisfaction. "It's what the neighbors say about Tanlac that counts." People who have taken Tanlac are so enthusiastic about it that they may tell a dozen or a hundred others about the great new medicine.

The suffering of thousands of people may be simply explained and, if the proper remedy is used, may be simply relieved. Many ills are due to what is known as intestinal toxemia—a self-poisoning due to the fermentation of food in the stomach and intestines because the digestive system fails to do its work properly.

Tanlac, a purely vegetable remedy made from a secret formula, is specially designed to relieve these ills—the common, every day ills which make millions of men and women miserable; rob them of their strength and vitality, and keep them in distress, discomfort and pain while they should be enjoying the blessings of complete health and vigor which make life worth while.

Evidence Is Strong

Tens and tens of thousands of endorsements of Tanlac prove what Tanlac has done and can do for sufferers.

They are evidence that can not be disputed. The Tanlac has been endorsed and recommended by leading business men, by lawyers, ministers, farmers, artisans and mechanics, by women in the factory, the farm, the home—by people in every walk of life.

Such evidence proves Tanlac The Master Medicine, and has made Tanlac the National Tonic.
