NAME AND ACTIONS VERY MUCH UNLIKE

Fails Carried Off Honors at Wrestling Match—Teets Stood Little or no Chance

That wrestling is still a sport for kings was demonstrated last night by the clean exhibition that the management of Overlake pavilion furnished to a crowd of several hundred spectators who were on hand to see a promised bout between Harry Falls, the local champion, and a newcomer, named Teets.

Although the main contest was marred by Teets, who constantly seemed to be playing for time, crawling the mat when down, the exhibition was a cleanly played game.

Falls secured the first fall in eight minutes and the number of sympathizers went wild. In the second round, after twelve minutes of hard work by both exponents of the mat game, Teets, who was down, slapped the floor, and the referee, understanding it to mean a surrender, pronounced Falls the victor. This was loudly protested and Falls agreed to have the fall over. The decision of the referee in his favor was not at all popular and if the crowd's sympathies were almost wholly with Falls during the contest, they showed their sporting blood in wanting the new man given a chance if he did not intend throwing up the sponge.

In the second round of the fall Falls succeeded in throwing Teets with a hammerlock in 5 minutes.

The match was refereed by Mr. Hughie Bell, who gave general satisfaction to the patrons, he keeping an eye on the wrestlers at all times and officiating in a way befitting a professional conductor of matches.

Two preliminary bouts were staged before the big contest. In the first of these Albert Jewell was matched against Frank Myers. Jewell won this match, the first fall coming in five minutes, when Myers threw up the sponge and the second in three minutes.

The second bout of the evening was a one-round affair between the winner of the previous preliminary and Goodwin Davis. Jewell was likewise the winner in this match, turning the trick in 10 minutes with a scissors hold.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Color, Lustre and Youthfulness to Hair When Faded, Streaked or Gray.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for 50 cents a large bottle, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advt.

TO OPEN IN FLORENCE

Wilmingtonian to be Connected With Modern Bakery.

Mr. J. Fred Russ, a progressive young Wilmingtonian, leaves the city the first of next week for Florence, S. C., where he will embark into the business world as a member of the firm of Boy-Russ Bakery, Inc., a business recently chartered in that city with an authorized capital stock of $10,000, of which $8,000 is paid in.

Mr. Russ was taken into partnership by Mr. C. M. Boyd, a prominent young real estate dealer of the South Carolina city, when he was recommended as being one of the most practical bakery men in the Carolinas. Mr. Russ was for 18 years with the Warren Steam Bakery here, and just prior to the date of the sale of that business by Mr. R. F. Warren, the proprietor, Mr. Russ was given a half interest for the excellent services rendered.

Since that time Mr. Russ, with others, has built up an excellent business at the old stand, and it was later taken over by the Royal Baking Company, with which Mr. Russ was connected.

The Boyd-Russ Baking Company, when ready for operation about December 1, will be one of the most up-to-date in either of the Carolinas. Four thousand dollars has been invested in modern equipment. In connection with the bakery business a lunch room will be operated, together with an up-to-date soda fountain. Mr. Russ will manage the whole. Mr. Russ will leave for his new home in Florence Monday and his family will follow later. Although regretting to see him leave, his many friends wish for him much success in his new field.

BELK-WILLIAMS CO.

NEW CARREL PROCESS REDUCES AMPUTATIONS 50 PERCENT.

DR. ALEXIS CARREL.

(Dr. Alexis Carrel.) Paris, Oct. 26.—An entirely new method of sterilizing and healing wounds developed by Dr. Alexis, of New York, Nobel prize winner, has resulted in reducing the number of amputations by 50 per cent, according to reports being received today from the hospital at Compiègne, the American Hospital at Neuilly and the American and Belgian hospitals in Belgium.

According to Hugues le Roux, chief of the Matin, the process consists of complete irrigation of the wounds by means of a rubber tube with numerous branches, perforated with many small holes. Every corner of possible pocket is thoroughly cleaned. When examination shows that the wound is aseptic, the wound is closed.

A violinist was bitterly disappointed with the account of his appeal printed in the paper of a small town. "I told your man three or four times," complained the musician, "that the owner of the paper, 'that the instrument I used was a genuine Stradivarius, and in his story there was not a word about it, not a word.' Whereupon the owner said with a laugh: 'That is as it should be. When Mr. Stradivarius gets his fiddles advertised in my paper under ten cents a line, you come around and let me know.'—Exchange.

Wilson's Stand on Votes For Women Contrasted With Hughes' Wabbling

HUGHES. He did not vote for Suffrage when he had the chance.

Suffrage plank in Republican platform: "The Republican party, reaffirming its faith in government of the people, as a measure of justice to one-half the adult people of the country, favors the extension of the suffrage to women, but recognizes the right of each State to settle this question for itself."

A few days before his public endorsement of the Federal Suffrage amendment, a committee of Antis visited him, came out smiling and said he was the man of the hour. The Suffragists had a similar experience at the same time.

Mr. Hughes has said that suffrage is the result of social unrest, that it will cause sex antagonism and that it raises a disturbance which might as well be stopped.

HUGHES FOR SUFFRAGE BECAUSE HE'S AGAINST IT.

In a letter to the New York World, Senator C. S. Thomas, of Colorado, a member of the Committee on Woman Suffrage of the United States Senate, said on Sept. 14:

"I am moved to propound the following inquiry to the Republican candidate for President: Did he not say to a committee of Anti-Suffragists, 'I have always been opposed to woman suffrage, probably because Mrs. Hughes has always been strongly opposed, and my daughters think with their mother. The increasingly active feminist movement, to my mind, makes the ultimate granting of votes to women lamentable, but inevitable. Sex antagonisms and the subversion of national issues into petty personal issues is to me more lamentable still, more ruinous to our womanhood and our country, than the doubling of the electorate, or votes for women, calamitous as that may be.'"

And when Candidate Hughes subsequently declared for the Federal amendment it was on the ground that, inasmuch as the women were bound to have the vote, it should be given to them by the shortest possible route, irrespective of the merits of the question.
