

DONT BELIEVE IN HITTING SOFTLY

But He is Not a Fighting Man, Contends Terrible Teddy.

Clinton, Iowa, Oct. 26.—Colonel Roosevelt, speaking from a train here today, complimented Iowa as a State of "intense Americanism," where men and women "are still willing to encounter risks and make efforts for their convictions."

A Rough Rider Reception. Chicago, Oct. 25.—A squad of cowboy cavalry, recruited from the stockyards, will escort Colonel Roosevelt from the hotel to the pavilion in the stockyards district, where he delivers an address tonight.

Plans have been made for giving him a warm welcome on his return from the West.

MORE HALF BILLION MORTGAGES HELD

More than $4,000,000 worth of silk, the largest shipment from any country in the year, left Seattle, Wash., recently in sixteen special cars over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway for New York city.

Editorial Comments

WHAT IS BACK OF HUGHES? Who nominated Hughes? The Republican national convention under the control of the Republican bosses, captained by Penrose, Barnes, Smoot, Crane, Cannon, et al., watchdogs of privilege, repudiated as political crooks by Roosevelt and the Progressives four years ago.

Who managed Hughes's campaign in the convention? Taft's former campaign manager, ex-Postmaster General Hitchcock, whose function in previous conventions has been the delivery of the corrupt Republican delegations from Southern States.

Who is supporting Hughes's candidacy? Wall Street, the predatory trusts, the tariff beneficiaries, the seekers and holders of special privilege, the exploiters of Mexico, the munition manufacturers, the railroads, the bankers, united plutocracy, even its women folks, all enemies of fundamental democracy, who hope to prostitute government for selfish gain.

What prominent statesmen are supporting Hughes? William Howard Taft, foremost apostle of reaction; Theodore Roosevelt, disciple of Bernhard and advocate of war for war's sake; Ellihu Root, attorney for malefactors of great wealth, and all the tory mouthpieces of privilege.

Why are the "interests" supporting Hughes? Because they expect to receive in return for financial aid, special legislation that will add enormously to the wealth of the few at the expense of the many; because they see in Woodrow Wilson the greatest exponent of democracy since Jackson, and seek to destroy him lest this nation become a real democracy.

What will Hughes do, if elected? The nearest he has come to saying what he would do was at Milwaukee, when he declared that La Follette's Seaman's bill must be repealed, the Underwood tariff replaced by a higher tariff, and the "whole administrative legislative accomplishments wiped off the books for the good of the country."

What is included in these legislative accomplishments? The Income Tax, the Inheritance Tax, the Child Labor Law, the Federal Reserve banking system, the Farm Loan system, the Good Roads program, the Federal development of Alaska, the Tariff Commission, the Federal Trade Commission, the Shipping bill, autonomy for the Philippines, the Clayton Act curbing government by injunction, the preservation of neutrality, the maintenance of peace, and the enlarged army and navy.

What would Hughes's election signify? The triumph of reaction and all that it signifies in thwarting human progress.

Exercises at Drew Seminary. Madison, N. J., Oct. 25.—"Founder" Day at Drew Theological Seminary was observed today with exercises in honor of the memory of Daniel Drew, to whose generosity the institution owes its existence. More than ordinary interest attached to the celebration, as it marked the beginning of the seminary's semi-centennial year. The oration of the day was delivered by Dr. S. Parkes Cadman of Brooklyn.

ON SLOW GOING TO DEMOCRATS

Wilson-Bickett Club to Hold Grand Rally The Day Before Election.

(By M. M. Capps.) Dispatch News Bureau, Jacksonville, N. C., Oct. 25, 1916. If Onslow county Democrats ever demonstrated the fact that they are fighters they are doing that one thing during the present campaign. The Butlers, it has been said, have claimed that it would be a close rub in Onslow, and have even gone so far as to claim it, but local Democrats now claim that the Democratic majority will be increased. The statement of the New York Herald in its forecast last Sunday that "Wilson was stronger than his party," and Hughes weaker than his party," applies to this county for all its worth. Because the farmers here, who are the main voters, are getting nineteen cents for their cotton, got high prices for their tobacco, top notch for their meat, in fact everything they have to sell is high. Good times now and better times ahead is the slang used to express the near unanimous choice for Wilson. The Wilson-Bickett club formed here last Friday night, an account of which appeared in these columns, has put the necessary pep in the campaign and are going to end the thing Monday, November 6, with a grand Democratic rally. A Wilmington brass band has been secured to make music for the occasion, and Hon. Aubrey L. Brooks, of Greensboro, one of the State's best speakers, will make the address of the day. Merchants and other business men have been asked to decorate their premises for the occasion, automobiles will join in a grand parade. It will be a great day and hundreds from all over Onslow county are expected to be here.

The foundation for the building to be erected by the B-ick of Onslow is now being laid, and the construction of the building will be pushed to rapid completion. The building will be two stories in height, and will be located on the corner of Court and Old Bridge streets, opposite the Court House. Officials of the Jacksonville Electric Light Company announced today that Saturday they would turn on their alternating current. The machinery has already been installed and only the placing of a small amount of wire needs to be done before the new current can be turned on.

North Dakota Librarians. Williston, N. D., Oct. 26.—A large attendance marked the opening here today of the annual meeting of the North Dakota Library Association. Alfred Steele, of Jamestown, heads the list of speakers, and others on the program include President Crane, of the Minot Normal School, and Miss Jeannette Drake, city librarian of Des Moines.

DEAD MOUSE CAUSES SUIT

Durham Newspaper Man Suing Bottling Co. For Personal Humiliation.

Durham, Oct. 26.—The local newspaper man who some days ago discovered a dead mouse in a bottle of Coca-Cola that he was drinking has instituted suit against the Durham Coca-Cola Bottling Co. for $5,000 for alleged illness and personal humiliation suffered incident to the imbibing of the unpalatable beverage. Although there are a number of cases in the annals of the State where bottling companies have been sued for not properly corking bottles of beverages this is the first case of quite so unique a character. The courts of other States have tried several cases similar to this and in almost every instance the plaintiff has been awarded damages.

Mr. G. C. Dickinson, the plaintiff, is being represented in his suit by R. O. Everett, Esq.
