

THEATRE

One of the greatest successes in musical productions which this city has ever known will be presented when "The Lilac Domino" comes to the Academy of Music tonight with a cast which would be an attraction even in Grand Opera circles and a wealth of scenic paraphernalia, a large chorus of lovely young girls who sing and dance with all the vivacity and charm of happy youth, in costumes regal in magnificence and up-to-the-minute in style and a quintet of famous comedians who draw forth laughs at the rate of two to a minute, this production is one of the events of the season. For an entire season last year it charmed New York, Boston and Chicago, and drew crowded houses nightly. Its twenty brilliant song hits are being whistled and sung in all ranks of society wherever it has been produced. Art critics and people in general are talking of the wonderful scenery and especially of the sunset scene over the Mediterranean sea, where an electrical clocklike device is used behind the curtain to produce not only the rippling waves, but sunlight glittering on the water and the afternoon brightness fading into twilight tones and then to dusk, with twinkling stars peeping out and the lights of the village appearing. Theatre parties were nightly features during "The Lilac Domino" engagement in all of the large cities and prominent fashion leaders of the metropolis engaged boxes for the entire engagement, revelling in the seductive charm of the music, the brilliant comedy and the lyrical score. Among the most popular numbers are: "Song of the Chimées," sung by Miss Yvonne Darle, of the title role, and Mr. Bradford Kirkbride, with an accompaniment of silver chimes; "Lilac Domino," "True Love Will Find a Way," "Let the Music Play," "What Is Done You Can Never Undo," "Where Love Is Waiting" and many others. There is dancing, too, of almost every description, from the classic interpretations to the very latest society steps. Prices tonight will be 75 cents, $1, $1.50 and $2.

"THE SMART SET."
It is predicted that there will be no mistaking the genuineness of warmth in the reception that will be accorded the Smart Set when they appear at the Academy of Music on next Tuesday, giving a matinee and night performance. This splendid exponent of the best traditions in America's colored show is doing more than yeoman service in bringing back to the right channels the taste of the public which has been perverted too long. It is said that nothing better in the musical comedy line has ever been produced than "How Newtown Prepared and Bullion Fared," which is the Smart Set's vehicle this season. The management has surrounded their stars with one of the best companies of vocalists and comedians which has been brought out of New York, where they have just concluded a long engagement. The company is headed by Whitney & Tutt, while in the company will be found Blanche Thompson, Hellen Clinton, Hattie Ackers, Will Dixon, Frank Jackson, and a chorus that sings.

The matinee prices will be 25 cents and 50 cents. Children 15 cents to any seat. The night prices will be from 50 cents to $1. Tickets are now selling at Elvington's Pharmacy.

"THE GIRL HE COULDN'T BUY."
Burglars are bad fellows, generally speaking. This is true of stage burglars as burglars in real life. But now and then you run across a burglar who isn't such a bad fellow, after all. Such a one is the burglar who is the hero of Sumner Nichols' four-act comedy-melodrama, "The Girl He Couldn't Buy," which is booked for presentation at the Academy of Music on next Monday night, October 30. It isn't a show of the old Biddle Brothers type—not at all. It's a story of love and life as it is lived. Prices range from 50 cents to $1. Tickets are now selling at Elvington's.

ONE ACHIEVEMENT OF SYSTEM
There are not very many of us who would provide an evening of genuine pleasure for our friends if we were without help and had a baby but a few months old. Nevertheless that is exactly what my chum, Ethel, did not very long ago.

Resting for a few days after I had finished some work in "The Girl Philippa," I visited Ethel, and that is how I gained another insight into her admirable character.
Two days before the gathering Ethel was drawing a diagram of the festival board and figuring out the different places for the guests. Her place cards had been painted by her own nimble fingers the day before. Simple, chaste things they were, with a pine sprig or some similar decoration on each.
The entertainment of the evening was to comprise whist and dancing and lunch, and she had all the tables and tallies numbered before the day, and the dance records of her victrola chosen and placed aside. The button-hole bouquets and flowers for the girls were picked fresh in the morning and taken from their water to be separated after she had donned the white chiffon dress she wears so attractively. Her boy husband's evening clothes were brushed and placed upon the bed—ready for him even to the necktie and collar button. Ethel absolutely detests confusion, and will do anything within her power to avoid it.
The refreshments were prepared while the baby slept in the morning, and as she completed a preparation she would cross that task off a pad on which she had written "Things to Do." Baby was whisked off to Slumberland at the usual time, since Ethel knew that she would be too excited to sleep quietly if she remained awake to see the different guests. After all this, naturally, the evening was one of genuine pleasure for everybody present. Ethel's evenings always are!

Preparations amount to a great deal in our lives, friends, no matter how small and unimportant the thing may seem. Ethel's plan of writing down everything she has to do is an excellent one, and I have begun to practice it in my own work. Things are never as difficult done systematically and in the end everything is much smoother than it would otherwise be.

MARRIED IN LAUNCH AT SEA.
Girl Bride Was Too Young to Get a License and Wed Ashore.
Florence, Ore., Oct. 28.—Cupid may find a way when the course of true love leads to a launch.
He did so in the case of Andrew Jackson, of Mapleton, 32, and 14-year-old Lottie Sherman.
When they were unable to marry because the bride-to-be was under the legal age to procure a marriage license, they boarded the launch Restless, of which Mr. Jackson is one of the owners, taking with them a company of relatives and close friends. Then they moved down the river and out safely beyond the three-mile limit on the high seas.
The words which united the couple were spoken by Captain Ira Harrington. The party then returned to Florence.

"SIMPLE LIFE" AND AGE.
Couple That Have Been Married 72 Years Spend Time in Open Alliance, Ohio, Oct. 28.—"Live a simple life outdoors if you want to enjoy old age." This is the advice of Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Helsenman, who have just celebrated their seventy-second wedding anniversary. Mr. Helsenman is ninety-four years old and his wife is ninety-five. The couple declare they enjoy life more than when they were children.
Both are fond of the open and often take long walks together. Mr. Helsenman says the country is more conducive to long life than the city.
"The rush and turmoil of big towns plays havoc with one's nervous system," he declares.

WOODROW WILSON

President of the United States

"HE HAS KEPT US OUT OF WAR"

This is the face of a man strong, courageous, patient and kindly, a man—
Always alert to the aspirations of his fellow-man and sympathetic toward their fulfillment;
Never complacent toward the encroachments of privilege nor tolerant of social wrong;
Always seeking to enhance the dignity of labor and better the state of the toiler;
Never lending an ear to the sophistry of exploitation or the blandishments of expediency;
Always patient to hear and weigh, to appraise and analyze, and passionate to find the way of right;
Never premature in purpose nor prejudiced in judgment, and never headlong in decision—
Such is WOODROW WILSON.

THE NEW TRUST

It is all over but the voting—and then, Wilson for Four Years More!
Four years more of peace and prosperity while the wheels of the nation drive on toward our destined goal—World Leadership!
That is to be our destiny.
Nothing can stop it but a return to the reactionary party which for forty years saved its bosses' bacon while the people, the great American people, struggled onward toward individual and collective freedom.
Yes, the nation came into its own not because but in spite of the Republican Party. It was the American people who cleared the forests, drained the swamps, blazed the trails, opened the mines, dug the coal and the gold, made the prairies into wheat and corn fields, and fenced in the great plains for cattle.
The American people, sprung from the loins of men who dared and women who toiled, have laid the foundation of the greatest Republic known to history, and raised thereon the fairest flower of civilization in all the world.
All this has been done despite the handicap of Political Bosses and the usurious toll of Predatory Interests.
While the Pioneer grew into the Settler and the Settler became the Farmer and yellowed the vast plains with the bearded grain and browned them with the russet corn—
While barefooted children trudged down the shady lane or over the long hill to the little red school house to read of the wisdom of their Benjamin Franklin, the patriotism of their Patrick Henry, the ingenuity of their Robert Fulton, Eli Whitney, and Robert Hoe, the democracy of their Jefferson, of the only Washington who fathered his country, of the immortal Lincoln who saved, and whose spirit will forever unite the nation—
While these little children around the old stove sang "My Country, 'tis of Thee, Sweet Land of Liberty"—
While these same little children at night at their mother's knee learned to bow their heads to their God who had given them birth in the Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave—
While simple men sweated and toiled on and loved their work and their home and their country—
While sweet faced mothers delved in toil and span strong men to do the nation's work—
Greed crept forth clad in frock coats and a well distended skin and an oily tongue, and slowly, surely, insidiously gathered up the fruits of the sweat and the harvest of the fields, orchards and mines, and by special privilege, by fraud, by bribe, by graft, by trickery, by knavery, by treachery, yes, and by treason caused themselves to become the richest clique known in the world's history.
The core of this clique is the permanent inner ring, the Invisible Government of the Republican Party.
This clique, disagreeing on a candidate four years ago, fell out, and the American People came back into their own under the leadership of Woodrow Wilson, who has held inviolably sacred that trust thus put into his hands by Fate. And by the grace of God the American People propose to go on with that tried, true, great man who trusts them because he knows they trust him.
Woodrow Wilson is a new Trust in American life—greater than all others—greater because he stands for no Trust, is backed by no Trust, and is the candidate of no Trust but is the trust of the whole American people, who love him because he has kept them out of war, honor him for his courageous Christian humanity, and thank him for his broad statesmanship and his fearless, intelligent leadership.
By his deeds and by his acts as well as by the enemies he has made, his place in the roll of American honor is secure—Washington, Lincoln, Wilson.
Woodrow Wilson deserves the vote of every man and every woman in every state in the Union.

Air As a "Hair Tonic"
There is no better hair tonic, or germicide, than fresh air full of life giving sunshine. The absence of it together with wilful neglect, tight fitting hats, etc. is responsible for a large share of hair ugliness and hair loss.
But fresh air and sunshine alone are not enough to correct all the evils. Nature frequently requires the aid of a preparation like NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE.
HERPICIDE is an absolute necessity to the majority of people; it prevents dandruff contagion, keeps the hair light and fluffy—the scalp sweet and clean.
Ugly and unsightly hair is quite unnecessary. Begin with Herpicide today. It is guaranteed by the Herpicide Company, Detroit, Michigan, and sold everywhere. Applications at the better barber shops.
