POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY.

Dear Mr. Editor: I am still on hand, as the feller sed about his sore thumb, and the way I am injoyin' myself now there ain't no tellin' when will pack my gripsack and go back to the cows and chickens. Industrial, equipment and shipping shares were variably higher at to-

If I kin git my wife in the notion am liable to stay the hull winter. As fer me, I'd jest as lief stay all the time, but Betsy sez we can't do that yet erwhile. She sez that even if we did make a bit this year we haint rich, and that we had better stick to the farm as long as Mr. Wilson is President, because we kin make money then, but if the Republikans ever axidently git back in power we will stop then, and wait ontil the Demmycrats git back. You see, there is more money in farmin' durin' the Demmycrat administrashun than there is in the Republikans. My wife has got it all figgered out, jest about right. She haint no fool, by a whole heap, and she sez she ain't no suffrygete either. She allows she has got purty good control over one vote, and she reckons that is enuf fer one family. I never argy the votes fer wimmin question, that is skasely ever. I have got one or two ideas on the subjeck, which I do express occashionally. One of 'em is that jedgin' by the way sum folks vote that is the men folks, the wimmin could do a whole heap better. Fer instance now, you take sum of our Republikan friens, I never cud understand why some of our Southern people kin vote the Republikan ticket; that is, if they win ably expressed this same idea when he wuz foolin', I mean debatin' Republikans durin' this hull campaign, has knocked Mr. Wilson for sectionalism. That has bin one of their main campayne issues, saying he was givin' everything to the South at the expense of the North. Well, now, he hain't dun that exactly, but he has honored the South more and Lorillard Co.222 5-8 has give us more, durin' his administrashun, than the Republikans has ever give us all combined. Why can't he say sumthin' like that now?
