Mrs. J. D. GeBott, of Bolton, was a visitor in the city yesterday, a guest at the Wilmington Hotel.

Miss Stella Lebeau, of Bolton, is the attractive guest of Miss Hattie King, on South Front street.

Miss Jessie Harper has returned from Goldsboro, where she has been the guest of friends for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Hargett, of Jacksonville, N. C., spent Friday in Wilmington, guests at the Wilmington Hotel.

Mrs. W. B. Murphy, of Snow Hill, left this morning for Atkinson, to attend the funeral of Mr. H. A. Colvin, there today.

A large attendance of the members of the Blue Ridge Club of the Y. W. C. A. enjoyed a delightful social meeting at the association building last night.

C. C. Cashwell, Esq., will address the Baraca Class of the Southside Baptist church, at the Sunday School hour, Sunday morning. All members of the class are urged to be in attendance.

It is quite a treat to hear a lawyer public student address a class studying the "Acts of the Apostles." The public is invited to the First Baptist Church Business Men's Bible Class to hear these addresses every Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock.

In honor of Mr. Richard Leo and his bride, Mrs. W. A. Linaker delightfully entertained a number of her friends at her home on the Castle Haynes road Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. Leo have recently moved here from New York to make their home with Mrs. Linaker.

A sale of candy, fancy articles, etc., will be held by the association of the Girls' Friendly Society at No. 516 Market street, on November 16, from 5 to 6 o'clock. The sale will be for the benefit of the Girls' Friendly Society Holiday house.

SPENT PLEASANT AFTERNOON. Mrs. C. B. Davis, of No. 617 South Sixth street, entertained the Woodcraft Girls, of the Southside Baptist church yesterday afternoon and an unusually pleasant time was spent by the members of the band who gathered with Mrs. Davis. The following young ladies were present.

Misses Lottie Kohlar, Els'e Burk, Marie Stephens, Edna Moore, Margaret Bryan, Edna Dudley, May Davis, Audrey Bryan, Fannie Russ, Madeline Weaver, Athalia King and Edna King.

BIG CROWD EXPECTED.

The Halloween social that is to be given at the Y. M. C. A. this evening under the auspices of the Boys' Division of the Y. M. C. A. bids fair to exceed anything of a like nature ever attempted here. The decorations will be beautiful and appropriate and an immense crowd is expected to attend and interview the numerous witches and spooks that will be in evidence on every hand.

The sensational feature of the program, "Custer's Last Rally," will be of a high order and those who attend will not regret it. Tonight's affair will come as a fitting climax to the many Halloween soirees that have been held during the week just ending. The musically inclined members of the Boys' Brigade will furnish music for the occasion and the other numbers of the program denote that the evening will be pleasantly spent by all who attend the entertainment.

SPORT CHATTER.

"Cyclone" Burns, the heavyweight wrestler, is teaching the Andover football squad how to be gentle in tackling an opponent, even though the victim lives after the attack.

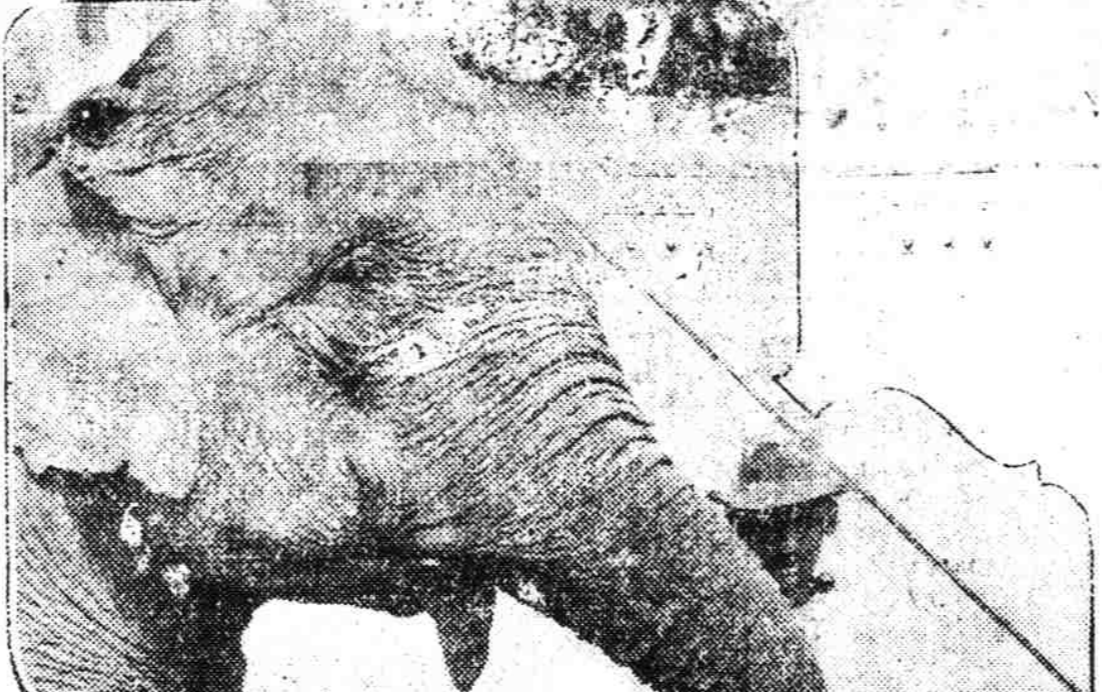

In meeting Yale, Harvard and Colgate, one right after another, the Brown football team is bound to finish the season with plenty of football in their systems.

The Zulu Kid is matched to fight Jimmy Wilde in London for the fly-weight title. A Wilde-Zulu battle ought to furnish some genuine excitement.

Manager Fred Tenney, of the Newark International League team, has been given the gate. Newark fans complained that Fred used some sort of an antiquated system of piloting that caused the team to run backward.

'Tis said that Clark Griffith is to pass up Charlottesville as a training camp and take his Washington team to Cuba next Spring. Charlottesville was all right, except that it's name was too long to get into the papers, and the players had to train in fur caps and ulsters.

The way Harry Legore, the Yale star, is tearing up the gridiron makes it apparent that he is out to show Princeton and Harvard that he should have been barred from athletics for life.

ROBINSON'S SHOW COMES MONDAY

Big Show Will Arrive In Wilmington Early Tomorrow Morning.

The circus that has been entertaining the American public for the last eighty-five consecutive years—the John Robinson Ten Big Shows, is coming to Wilmington Monday.

With all their multitudinous arena, menagerie and sideshow features and novelties the John Robinson Shows are said to be a bewildering triumph of under-canvas entertainment. This of course, does not include the monster free street parade, with its long procession of carved and gilded wagons, gaily caparisoned horses and ponies, the glitteringly spangled riders, uniformed bands of crashing music and the shrieking steam calliope, all of which collectively should be a substantial alibi for any hooky-playing boy or girl in Wilmington and its environs.

CELEBRATE PROSPERITY WEEK. Parade of Electrical Devices To Be Held in Connection with Corn Show. Electrical prosperity week, December 2 to 9, will be celebrated in Wilmington on an elaborate scale and already preparations are underway to make this a week long to be remembered. Mr. Raymond Hunt, chairman of the local committee on arrangements, is very active just now laying plans for the gala event. Electrical parades will be held in many of the larger cities but it has been decided to hold the parade here in connection with the Corn Show next Wednesday, as this will be more convenient and will give more people from the surrounding country an opportunity to attend and witness the spectacle.
