A battle between Leonard and Kilbane would also serve to settle, or 0. go a long way toward settling, the moot question of how Kilbane would fare in a bout with Lightweight Champion Welsh. The universal idea appears to be that Kilbane would come close to knocking out Welsh, where he so disposed. Whether he would may be determined before next spring, as a Kilbane-Welsh fight is beyond the incubation stage and negotiations may be closed even before the Kilbane-Leonard match is clinch-

Leonard has met Welsh twice in ten-round bouts, for an average of .500. MULLINS WON IN GRIDIRON BATTLE.

Mullins, S. C., Nov. 4.-In an exciting and interesting game of football Mullins won from Dillon by the score meeting. Leonard had the champion of 14 to 0. Platt's fifty-yard run was one of the outstanding features of the game. He was greatly assisted by Edwards, whose interference work was that of an expert.

Edwards, Mullins' quarterback, kicked both goals.
