DISPATCH'S ELECTION SERVICE.

Not in years has there been a N ational election of such great import ance, such intense interest and of more general concern. So realizing this and wanting the people of Wilm ington and this entire section to get the first news and the best news of the election, both results and sidelights. The Dispatch has made elabo rate preparations to provide them with a service that will be second to none in the South. Two wires will be used to get the first news of the e lection results from all over the country and to obtain all details for Dispatch readers, or any others who de-

A leased wire has been run into The Dispatch office, as well as a wire for the Postal Telegraph Comp any's bulletins. These wires will be in full operation from early Tuesday evening until Wednesday morning. Fresh from the wires the news will be furnished to all who desire it by bulletin and by telephone-free of all cost-and Wednesday morning The Dispatch will issue a special E lection Edition, which will go free to all its subscribers, both in Wilming ton and out of the city, and will be on sale on the streets and at the of fice.

The story of the election will be given in its most complete and interesting form.
