MONDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1916.

Up and at 'em, oh Democrats-

Tomorrow be at the fore to fight the foe.

Of course, Pennsylvania will tomorrow go Penrosey.

Last call to subscribe to the Woodrow Wilson victory fund.

For the latest election results, ask or read The Dispatch.

Any old turkey bone comes under the head of wishbone.

The only thing easy about eggs these days is the scramble.

Suppose you've got your pipes tuned for shouting tomorrow night.

At least tomorrow will bring about the eradication of politics for a brief period.

And "this is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party."

A quiet day for Roosevelt does not necessarily mean a quiet day for those around him.

Some people are so skilled at the game that they can stir up trouble with a silver spoon.

The lean gent, who longs to put on flesh, doesn't agree that where there's a will there's a weigh.

The Democrats are going to win, unless a majority of the people of the land suffer with heart trouble.

At least neither the Socialist nor Prohibition candidate for president will be disappointed over the results.

The beauty about Wilson is that when he talks he says something—as the Republicans have found to their regret.

Hate to see people of such little opinion that they follow the lead of others without question. Yet, better a patriot than a buzzard.

The cold storage people are kicking on an investigation. In other words, they insist on a continuance of their freeze-out game.

Whoever discovered aviation it a cinch that the people who manipulate the price of food stuff are the most adept at the game.

With all due regard to the feelings of our prohibition friends, we are hoping that the returns tomorrow will show "Wilson. That's all."

The Democrats today are placing the finishing touches to their campaign; tomorrow they will place the finishing touches to their enemy.

Think about Cuba after North Carolina for outlaw bonds when the first blood shed that Cuba might get her freedom was a North Carolinian.

Here comes along a man who says it is written in the stars that Hughes will win. Well, just so it is not written on the ballots, the Democrats should worry.

It will be noted that with all his courage Colonel Roosevelt knew better than to try and answer the attack of his former comrade, John M. Parker.

If anything was needed to take the wind entirely out of whatever hopes the Republicans had of making inroads into North Carolina it came today in the news that Cuba has sued North Carolina to recover "carpet-bag" bonds.

THE CALL TO DUTY.

Every voter should do his duty tomorrow. That duty not only consists of casting a ballot, but casting it for the party that the voter thinks, after careful, unbiased consideration, stands for the best interest of the country, for the greatest benefit to humanity. After analyzing the situation thoroughly he should vote according to the dictates of his conscience. If the voter will take a broad survey of the field, will weigh the propositions fairly and respond to a warm feeling in his heart for mankind he will cast his ballot for the Democratic cause. The problem presented tomorrow is not a difficult one to solve, but it takes the united ranks of the masses of the American people to solve it. The way is clear, but it is going to take strength of mind to follow it. The obstacles thrown in the way are many; money will be turned loose today and tomorrow by the thousands and thousands of dollars in effort to hurl the Democratic party out of power. The order has gone forth from the plutocratic ranks, that want to once more get their grip upon the government of this country, that the Democratic party must be unhorsed. In this very enemy, in this very move to oust the Democratic party is the evidence why the people should stick by it tomorrow. Had the Democratic party headed the command or the coaxing of the Wall Street crowd it would today be hailed as a benefactor and Wall Street would be supporting it. The Democratic party, under the peerless leadership of Woodrow Wilson, Christian, patriot, scholar and gentleman, turned a deaf ear to them and has stood by the people. That is why it is the people's fight. It is merely nominal so far as the name of the party is concerned. The question at stake is whether a party that stands by the people is to be hurled from power. If this is the lesson taught tomorrow, we unto the people. So the call is for every man, regardless of party affiliation of the past, if he believes in government by the people, to vote the Democratic ticket. Tomorrow the greatest of all times is offered for the people to show their faith, to display their determination and, once for all, break the shackles. If the people will stop to think they will realize this. If they will tarry a moment to take an account of the crisis before it is too late, they will vote for Woodrow Wilson. The Democracy of New Hanover county must do its duty tomorrow. Every man should go to the polls and cast his ballot. This of all times is when a giant majority should be rolled up for the Democratic cause. Every Democrat should be on guard and should vote. The need is great; the hour is at hand.

THE AMENDMENTS.

The voters, irrespective of party, should bear in mind that tomorrow besides casting their ballot for nominees, they must or should pass upon four proposed amendments to the constitution. In fact, they must pass upon them, either by commission or omission. It is a duty each voter should face, as while changing the constitution is a vital question, yet to allow an antiquated instrument to prevail, merely because it has been unchanged for years, is just as vital a question to consider. The four amendments offered for ratification tomorrow are each important; each needed. They are not partisan. In fact, the amendments are endorsed by the leaders of both parties. The Republican nominees take their stand alongside Democratic nominees, or vice versa, in standing for the amendments. This proves conclusively that they are not of partisan nature. So neither Democrat nor Republican can shy at them on such grounds. Then, are they worthy? The type of men advocating them should attest this, but investigation will confirm it. Each of the four amendments, which are familiar, deserve the support of the people. Adoption of these amendments mean better machinery, which the government and the progress of the State of North Carolina needs. It is silly to sit still merely because this process has been indulged in for so long. These are days when people are alert enough to observe when changes are needed and have enterprise and grit sufficient to make them. Poor tools handicap many a good workman. The state constitution, sufficient for the day, the same as old implements were adequate for farming centuries ago, needs changing in several particulars, so that the workmen of North Carolina may accomplish more. The four amendments to be submitted at the polls tomorrow offer the tools. It is with the people whether they take advantage of the chance to get them. In the light of extended discussion of the amendments, in view of the leaders that stand for them and as these leaders represent both the big parties, the people cannot plead lack of understanding, and the duty of a voter is such that they cannot afford to be lethargic. They must consider the amendments at tomorrow's election—and they should vote for ratification.

SOME COME-BACK.

BE ON THE JOB.

(New Bern Sun-Journal.) Under the above caption, the Wilmington Dispatch yesterday gave to the Democrats of the State, the following injunction which contains many words of wisdom:

"Two things bear out our declaration of days ago that all needed for Democracy to win was for the gospel of the Democratic doctrine to be carried to the people and for the big record of the Wilson administration to be held before their eyes. These two things are the reports that the tide has now turned towards Wilson and that the Democrats, while slow in getting started in the Middle Western States, are now making things hum and the cause is gaining supporters in consequence. To our previous declaration we coupled the necessity for speeches, plenty of them, and for the President to get active in making speeches. Bearing out this comes the report that President Wilson's visit to Chicago greatly strengthened the cause.

"In this light, it is the duty of the President to make just as many speeches as possible. The Democratic cause should win. It has every right and all justice on its side for the victory.

"If it does not triumph it will be because the people do not grasp the importance of the present crisis. That no Democrat may be guilty of negligence in this way, the faith should be preached, and preached incessantly, from now until November 7th. It is better to be two hours ahead of time than one minute too late."

The Dispatch strikes the keynote when it declares that it is necessary for the Democrats to be alive and working for the party and its interests. The Republicans are fighting hard. They are flooding the country with

WILL STILL BE PRESIDENT.

Let no revengeful soul, let no prejudiced mortal, should be anticipated a Republican victory, indulge his thoughts in a wild orgy, in exultation of what the United States will do in the war in Europe, or what it will do in Mexico. Even though the verdict be against Woodrow Wilson Tuesday he will still be President of the United States; he will remain President until the fourth of next March. During four months many things can happen. Not only is Wilson compelled to be President, so far as earthly power is concerned, but he will have backing him a Democratic Congress. He can do many things within four months. Just how he would accept a defeat at the hands of the people at the ballot box we know not. He is not a revengeful man, however. He is too broad-minded and too much of a Christian to let feeling of resentment conquer judgment and chloroform conscience, but he may accept it as a decree from the people, and so it might, to a large extent, govern his course. Let no man indulge in bonfire mental acrobatics should Wilson be defeated. The submarine controversy has not been settled, being reopened by the sinking of the Marina; the Mexican problem is still in abeyance, and the English "black list" is yet in the balance. President Wilson can deal with them in four months. He can so shape policies, so promulgate decrees that a Republican President could not extricate himself. There is no hand that could stay a break in diplomatic relations should the President decree it; there is no Republican who could stop war, should the President, by action, decide it should come. Regardless of the verdict Tuesday at the polls Woodrow Wilson will remain President of the United States until next March. So let the rancorous and the cantankerous beware.

speakers and boodle and are endeavoring to get votes in every conceivable manner and it is up to the Democrats to block their every move and to put forth every effort and if this is done, success awaits them.

A VOTE GETTER.

(Fayetteville Observer.) Wilmington Dispatch: "War is hell. So why vote the Republican ticket?" Friend Cowan, there is more vote-getting in that three paragraph than in many a high-sounding, two-column grind that is never read except by the writer. Dr. George Stuart Coming. Dr. Stewart will deliver a platform lecture next Tuesday night at the Boys' Brigade Armory on "Lopsided Funks" and it is expected that he will draw a good crowd in spite of the fact that it will be election night. The lecture will be over before any amount of returns are in, as it will commence at 8 o'clock. This will be a good way to pass time while waiting. It is hardly necessary to say much about Dr. Stuart as he is well known all over the country. At present he is pastor of the leading Methodist church in Birmingham, Ala. He comes highly recommended by such men as Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, Len G. Broughton and Sam P. Jones. A number of years ago he was here with Sam Jones conducting a meeting. The Fifth Avenue Epworth League is selling tickets to the lecture at fifty cents each.—11-5-21-jadv.

Dalton VERSATILITY. The Dalton is first of all an adding machine. For plain, straight adding and listing it has no equal, and on such work has set many a sensational record under conditions as divergent as the varying activities of commerce afford. But the Dalton is something more than simply an adding machine. It is a calculating machine as well, capable of doing all that can be done on any other calculating machine, with the added advantage of a printed record of the work performed. Easier, in fact, than any single purpose machine performs its solitary function, the Dalton attends to its numerous duties with increased speed and efficiency. The Dalton adds; subtracts; multiplies; divides; figures fractions as well as whole numbers; cross foots; computes interest; figures costs, pay rolls, change sheets; prorates; verifies invoices; figures trial balances; checks postings; figures percentages and discounts; makes out monthly statements. In fact, the Dalton takes care of anything that comes under the head of figure work with ease, accuracy and dispatch, rendering a physical audit slip of the work performed. Dalton versatility is unique. Whether you buy a small capacity Dalton at $125.00 or pay several times that amount for a larger machine fully equipped with special features, you get the same high grade material and careful workmanship. Let us bring a Dalton to your office and show you how it can expedite your accounting work. H. J. MacMILLAN, District Agent P. O. Box 59, Wilmington, N. C. Phone 987.
