NEW NATIONAL ANTHEM COMPOSED

Dedicated, to The President Past, Present and Future. Mrs. Toon, Author.

The following anthem, dedicated to Washington the Presidents, past, present and fu- | West Virginia ture, was composed by Mrs. E. May Glenn Toon, of this city, and handed Wyoming in for publication. A copy is appearing in all of the State papers this morning. An accompanying paragraph says that no matter what his politics may be he is President of our country, and as such should be given loyalty on all things.

HAIL TO OUR PRESIDENT.

Heaven high our anthem heed! Let the land and sea rejoice: God and Freedom form our creed.

Hail to our President! The Nation's pride; Greatness thine excellence, In truth abide: Proudly we take thy hand, Thou chosen of our land, Thine at the helm to stand,

To guard, to guide,

Hail to thy natal day! Our loyal State; God's blessing crave for thee, Our songs vibrate; Now, we extol thy name. Now doth our love sustain, While o'er our vast domain,

Hail to the land's elect! With honor blest; New hopes thy coming brings, All care at rest;

Shine mem'ries great,

Where festal flowers sway, Where glory gilds the day, Thy voice doth charm for aye, Fair Freedom's breast.

Hail to our native son. For Peace and Right: Leading beneath the flag. Chieftain of might; Then in this star-lit bow'd, Let wisdom crown thy power, Stand firmly on this tow'r, In Freedom's light.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 4.—Cato Sells, commissioner of Indian Affairs, has just returned from Chicago, where he supervised the sale of thirty-four carloads out of a shipment of fifty-one cars of Indian cattle from the Crew 59. Reservation, Montana, seventeen carloads having been sold at Omaha the day before. The Commissioner spent most of a day on horseback riding among the cattle in the pens of the stockyards discussing the cattle and And Praises Cardui, Which She prices with his commission man and the buyers.

stock business among the Indians has consisted largely of upbreeding and the development of herds. Every where the Indians have taken great interest in their stock, both as to tribal herds and those individually owned; and the increase in number and value has been such as to insure a business man's profit. We have sold wool and mutton and some horses, but we are only now commencing to widely and substantially realize on their cattle.

These sales from the Crow Reservation are the beginning of large sales from this and other reservations. I is a demonstration of the wisdom of the policy of utilizing the grazing lands of the reservations for the benefit of the Indians and positive indication of the responsive disposition of the Indians when given opportunity with sympathetic encouragement to do things themselves.
