

HUGHES LIKELY ELECTED PRESIDENT

to the number of scratches on the ballot the returns from this city were very late. The first precinct report gave Hughes 184, Wilson 87. The wets have carried Los Angeles.

Hughes Gets North Dakota. Fargo, N. D., Nov. 7.—Early returns show North Dakota has been carried by Hughes by a small but safe plurality.

Hughes Captures Connecticut. New Haven, Conn., Nov. 7.—With only 23 of Connecticut's 168 towns missing at 10:30 tonight, Hughes had 93,359 and Wilson 88,269. It was expected the missing towns would slightly increase Hughes' lead. With thirteen of the 35 Senatorial districts missing, the State Senate stands 12 Republicans and 10 Democrats.

Republican Governor Elected. Chicago, Nov. 7.—Lowden has carried Illinois for Governor on the face of returns at 7 o'clock by a substantial majority, in spite of the fact that Cook county gave Governor Dunne a plurality of 12,000 at 7 o'clock. Downstate reports, however, indicate that this lead is wiped out and Lowden is leading.

Wilson Lost Summer Capital. Asbury Park, N. J., Nov. 7.—President Wilson has probably lost Monmouth county, in which is located the Summer White House.

Refuse to Concede Election. Asbury Park, N. J., Nov. 7.—Although the outlook was dark the President's supporters refused to concede his defeat and at 10:15 announced that there would be no statement whatever on the election from the President tonight. Just as this statement was made the Republicans in Asbury Park commenced a celebration of the election of Governor Hughes.

Hitchcock Re-elected Senator. Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 7.—President Wilson has carried Nebraska on the early returns, but Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock (Democrat) has been defeated by John L. Kennedy, of Omaha.

Missouri Safe For Wilson. Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 7.—Slow returns from St. Louis, the Republican hope of Missouri, make early figures on Missouri unsatisfactory. There is no doubt here that Wilson has carried Missouri by more than 25,000.

Senator James A. Reed has been re-elected United States Senator and the Congressional strength of the parties will be changed but little. Frederick D. Gardner, Democratic candidate for Governor, appears to be running behind his ticket in the State but his supporters claim he will catch up in his home town of St. Louis. This race is still in doubt.

Oscar McDaniel, Democratic nominee for prosecuting attorney in St. Joseph, indicted for murder, ran an unsuccessful race for election.

Governor Whitman Elected. New York, Nov. 7.—The New York Evening World, in a special edition at 6:30, announced that Hughes had carried New York State and that Governor Whitman had been re-elected.

Knox Re-elected. Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—Philander C. Knox, Republican candidate, was today elected United States Senator by a large plurality over Ellis C. Orris (Democrat). The exact plurality will be in doubt until late on account of the late count.

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 7.—The city of Fulton is complete, Hughes 1,386, Wilson 761.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 7.—With eight towns missing the vote for Congress in the Third district was: Reilly (Democrat), 16,559; Tilson (Republican), 15,906.

Goes According to Custom. Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 7.—Indications are that Florida, South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, North Carolina and Mississippi have cast the usual heavy Democratic majorities for Wilson.

Democrats Get Kentucky. Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—Estimates at 10 o'clock were that the Democrats had carried Kentucky by 20,000. Indications pointed to the election of nine Democratic Congressmen and two Republican.

Carried a Tammany Stronghold. New York, Nov. 7.—Charles E. Hughes carried one of Tammany's strongholds today when he won the Third Assembly district in Manhattan, which formerly was dominated by "Big Tim" Sullivan, by a plurality of 1,700.

Admits Missouri Democratic. New York, Nov. 7.—Republican National headquarters concede Missouri to the Democrats by 25,000.

McCormick Won't Give Up. New York, Nov. 7.—Vance McCormick, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, at 11:30 tonight issued the following statement:

"We do not concede Hughes' election by any means. President Wilson still can win with the vote of the States from which we have heard nothing. We have just heard from Western headquarters that they do not concede Illinois. All of the Western States are yet to be heard from and the indications are they are all for Wilson. We have given up New York. Indications are we have lost New Jersey. Indications are that we still hold Massachusetts and Kansas. Delaware and Maryland appear to be safe. We have received nothing from Shadow Lawn to indicate that they have given up the fight."

Mr. McCormick added that he might not have a definite statement on the result to give out before tomorrow, unless they get more definite information tonight.

Perkins Happy. New York, Nov. 7.—George W. Perkins, former chairman of the executive committee of the Progressive party, issued the following statement at Republican headquarters at 9:30:

"Mr. Hughes has carried every Northern State with the possible exception of Ohio. The crux of it all is that four years ago Mr. Wilson was chosen President in a three-cornered fight. All the world has since realized that if, now after four years of experience with him, the American people had deliberately chosen him in a two-sided fight, the rest of the world undoubtedly would have said that the America of today was not the America of yesterday. Therefore the value of this verdict to the standing and prestige of American people can scarcely be over-estimated."

Roosevelt Heard From. Oyster Bay, N. Y., Nov. 7.—"Fine, bully," were the explosive ejaculations from Theodore Roosevelt tonight when informed that Charles E. Hughes had been elected President. The Colonel issued the following statement:

"I am doubly thankful as an American for the election of Mr. Hughes. It is a vindication of our National honor. Because of some charges that have been made I wish to state now that I will not under any circumstances make any recommendations to Mr. Hughes with reference to appointments or to legislative policy."

Loses Home State. Newark, N. J., Nov. 7.—Scattering returns from every part of the State at midnight indicate that Governor Hughes' plurality from President Wilson's own State will be about 36,000. The President carried Hudson county by about 12,000, but lost Essex by 10,000.

The Republican/Senatorial candidate, Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, has defeated James E. Martin by close to 50,000 plurality, and Walter E. Edge, Republican, is elected Governor over W. Otto Wittmann by a similar vote. The legislature is safely Republican.

Concedes Sutherlands' Defeat. New York, Nov. 7.—Republican National headquarters concede the defeat of Senator Sutherlands in Utah.

McCormick Claims Victory. New York, Nov. 7.—Democratic National Chairman Vance McCormick at 12:15 claims the re-election of President Wilson in the following statement: "Our reports received up to midnight show that President Wilson has received certainly 270 electoral votes not including Massachusetts and Connecticut or California and other far Western States."

Columbus, Ind., Nov. 7.—Eleven precincts out of 22 in Bartholomew county give Hughes 1,565, Wilson 1,840.

Dunn Admits Defeat. Chicago, Nov. 7.—Governor Dunn concedes his defeat in a telegram of congratulations to Republican opponents.

Alabama Democratic. Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 7.—Early returns indicate Alabama has returned the usual majority for President Wilson, the Congressional delegation and State offices.

Dorsey Is Elected. Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 7.—Estimates from returns received indicate about 135,000 votes were cast in this State today, of which over 100,000 were Democratic. Hugh Dorsey, Democratic nominee for Governor, the entire congressional delegation and county offices as usual went to the Democrats.

Republicans Concede Utah. New York, Nov. 7.—At 11:50 tonight Republican National Committee conceded that Wilson had carried Utah.

Wilson Almost Two to One. Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 7.—

President Wilson appears to have a safe lead on the figures obtained from Oklahoma up to 11 o'clock.

At that time the count showed him running almost 2 to 1 ahead of Hughes.

Indiana Still in Doubt. Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 7.—Based on gains the Republicans made in many counties of the State, the Republican State headquarters claimed five Indiana electoral votes were safe for Hughes at 11 o'clock tonight and that the entire State ticket is elected. Returns from 285 out of 3,142 precincts in the State gave Hughes 57,607 and Wilson 52,937. Hughes' plurality thus far is due to the 6,000 majority the Republican ticket rolled up in Indianapolis.

James E. Watson and Harry New, Republican candidates for United States Senator, and James P. Goodrich, Republican candidate for Governor, ran close to Charles E. Hughes. The Democratic leaders still declared the outside State vote will give Wilson Indiana.

Made Clean Sweep. Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 7.—The Democrats have made a clean sweep in Utah and President Wilson has won the State's electoral votes by a large plurality.

Senator Sutherland, Republican, has been defeated by Judge King, Democrat. Simon Bamberger, Democrat, is elected Governor.

Maryland for Wilson. Baltimore, Md., Nov. 7.—Returns available at 11:30 p. m. indicate that President Wilson has carried Maryland by about 3,000.

Joseph I. France, Republican, has been elected United States Senator by 4,000 majority over David J. Lewis, father of the parcels post.

Hughes Illinois Vote Grows. Chicago, Nov. 7.—Estimates of the majority by which Hughes has carried Illinois continued to grow tonight as the returns from downstate began to come in. At Western Republican headquarters it was claimed that the figures might run as high as 150,000 to 175,000.

At 11:30, 800 precincts had been counted in Cook county and the total gave Hughes a plurality of 4,200 votes. In 269 out of 2,973 precincts outside of Cook county Hughes was leading by 19,808 votes.

Claims New Hampshire for Wilson. Concord, N. H., Nov. 7.—United States Senator Hollis has telegraphed President Wilson that he (Wilson) would carry New Hampshire by 1,000 votes. He also predicted the election to Congress of Woodbury and possibly Stevens, the Democratic nominees.

Willcox Answers McCormick. New York, Nov. 7.—Asked to comment on Democratic Chairman McCormick's statement that President Wilson would have 270 votes in the electoral college, Republican Chairman Willcox said:

"All I will say is that Mr. Hughes will have 310 or 312 votes in the electoral college."

Concedes Ohio to Wilson. New York, Nov. 7.—Republican headquarters at midnight conceded Ohio to Wilson.

Prohibition Wins in Iowa. Sioux Falls, Ia., Nov. 7.—Returns at midnight indicate that the State has been carried by Hughes by a small majority. Prohibition appears to have been adopted, while woman suffrage is doubtful.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 7.—Bartlesville county gives Democratic majority 500.
