Mrs. C. A. Bennet, of Fort Caswell, spent Friday in the city.

Capt. J. J. Adkins, of Southport, spent yesterday in the city on business.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Carpenter and little son, of Bolton, have returned to their home, after spending a few days in the city.

Miss Ethel Alston Cabell, of Richmond, Va., is in the city as the guest of Miss Mary A. Bellamy, at her home No. 602 Market street.

Miss Stella LeBeau has returned to her home in Bolton, after spending the week with Misses Catherine and Hattie King, on South Front street.

There will be an important meeting of St. Ann's Guild on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Guild Room at the St. John's Parish home. Every member is urged to be present.

Rev. Dr. G. J. Gongaware returned to his home in Charleston, S. C., yesterday afternoon, after having attended the convention of the Lutheran synod here.

Major Alexander Greig, Jr., U. S. Army, inspector-instructor of the Coast Artillery Corps, of the North Carolina National Guard, returned to his home in Raleigh yesterday morning, after holding an examination at the W. L. I. Friday night.

Rev. C. L. Brown, D. D., general secretary of the Foreign Mission Board of the United Synod of the Lutheran Church of the South, will deliver an address at this morning's service at St. Matthew's Lutheran church. Secretary Brown is here attending the convention of the synod.

The Wilmington chapter of the National Special Aid Society will meet on Wednesday afternoon, November 15, at 3 o'clock in the rooms of the Colonial Dames, No. 503 Market street. A full attendance is desired and those who are not yet members, but are interested in the work, will be welcome.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Fifth Avenue Methodist church will hold in the lecture room at 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon. All members are urged to be present. Next week will be observed as a week of prayer.

RESUME REHEARSALS.
It will be of interest to learn that the Wilmington Symphony Glee Singers have again resumed their fall rehearsals with Mr. Bert Jones as director for the ensuing year. The Wilmington Symphony Glee Singers includes some of the best talent in the city. Their object is to promote interest in male voice singing in Wilmington and the surrounding territory. This is the only male chorus in Wilmington and as much progress is being made at their rehearsals their initial concert will be awaited with great interest.

ENJOYED OYSTER ROAST.
A very jolly bunch of young folks journeyed to Greenfield Lake Friday evening and enjoyed a most delicious and bounteous oyster roast given by Mr. Clarence Roten. The party took the Greenfield car at Front and Castle streets and awaiting them upon their arrival were many pans of the steaming bivalves, which were served right from the shells with soda crackers.

Different amusements were engaged in to suit the choice of the merry-makers, after which the party walked back to the residence of Mrs. B. F. King on South Front street, where the young folks departed for their respective homes.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.
Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Ernest Hashagen, Sr., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Esther Danvers Hashagen, to Mr. Browning Jefferson Dewey. The wedding will take place in January. Miss Hashagen is an attractive and accomplished young lady of this city, claiming a host of friends. Mr. Dewey is favorably known in the city.

Invitations reading as follows have been received by friends in the city and elsewhere:

"Mr. and Mrs. Edwin James Pigford request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Cleone,

to
Mr. Neil Victor Oldenbuttel
Thursday afternoon, November the twenty-third at half after five o'clock
Grace Methodist Church
Wilmington, North Carolina."

BIRTHDAY PARTY.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lane, No. 614 Orange street, Friday night, was the scene of a delightful birthday party given in honor of their daughter, Miss Lillie Belle Lane. For the occasion the home was attractively decorated, a color scheme of pink and green being carried out with pretty effect. During the evening a number of interesting games were played.

The following were in attendance: Miss Lottie Davis, Tom Thigpen, George Sullivan, Lewis Harper, Anna Fichk, Major Dukes, Cassie Sellers, Mabel Meiers, George Fichk, Grace Rasperry, Stephen Beal, Mr. D. H. Maultsby, Jr., Mrs. J. H. Davis, Mrs. F. P. Davis, and Miss Alma Bryan.

INVITATIONS ISSUED.
Friends and relatives in this city and elsewhere have received the following handsomely engraved invitations:

"Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deems Jacobs request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Mary Bowden
to
Mr. William Lawrence Hellen
on Wednesday evening, November twenty-ninth at quarter after six o'clock at St. John's Episcopal Church
Wilmington, North Carolina."

HENRY FORD WIRES THE PRESIDENT

Tells Him Approval Gives Him Liberty to Continue His Good Work.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 11—The following telegram has been sent to President Wilson by Henry Ford:
"It requires the highest type of mind to appreciate a real service, and it ought to be very gratifying to you to know that there are so many of our citizens in America possessed with that type of mind. You now have been given the opportunity to reap the only real reward there is for service to mankind, the privilege of doing still more in this unqualified expression of approval. This should convey to you the liberty to go on with the constructive work for humanity.
"Sincerely yours,
"HENRY FORD."

FRITZ HANSON IS BACK IN THE CITY

Popular Wrestler is in the Pink of Condition and Anxious to Arrange Matches.

Fritz Hanson arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from Columbia, S. C., and was a visitor at The Dispatch office last night. Mr. Hanson is in the pink of condition and talked interestingly of a number of bouts he thinks he will be able to stage here. Mrs. Hanson did not come with him, but will arrive within the next month. The popular wrestler has just defeated Jack Ross in Columbia and according to the Columbia press exhibited skill that places him in a class to himself. Mr. Hanson talked interestingly of his stay in New England, but expressed himself as pleased to be back in Wilmington again.

He visited New York on the trip down and talked with a number of wrestlers of note. He is of the opinion that a number of these fellows will visit Wilmington within the next few weeks and dates are to be arranged as early as possible. Among the wrestlers Mr. Hanson talked with relative to matches here were: Waldec Zbysco, the Russian Pole; William Demitroel, Greek heavyweight; Hjalmar Lundin, Swedish heavyweight. Lundin is the wrestler Hanson crossed to Europe with in 1907 and worked as partners; Demetris Toffolos, Greek heavyweight; Young Hackensmith, German; Young Mundy, Italian; Dr. Roller. Hanson is very anxious to have Young Mundy come here for a match and says indications are that he will be able to arrange to meet him here in the early future. George Bothner was also interviewed. Bothner was regarded as the lightweight champion of the world by the Police Gazette, but he has outgrown this class and is now classed as a heavy. Mr. Hanson has an engagement to meet Bull Montana in Columbia, on November 21st and in all probability will go to Orangeburg, S. C., at an early date for a match. He will begin work in the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow and will keep in perfect physical condition.

SOLDIER GIVES DATE.

Correction of Article as to When the Militiamen Voted.
C. W. Leighton, a member of Co. D, Third Regiment, New Jersey Volunteers, stationed at Tomtom Lakes, N. J., is authority for the statement that soldiers were allowed to vote in the Presidential election in 1898 and gives his authority for the statement by saying that he voted by sealed ballot in that election. Private Leighton's statement had to do with recent newspaper dispatches which stated that no soldier had voted in a Presidential election within the past 60 years.

thus assuring a most enjoyable evening for all who attend.
While the nominal sum of ten cents will be charged for admittance in order to partly defray the expense of the elaborate program, the real object of the entertainment is to make more pronounced the social features of this fraternal order which is recognized as a powerful medium not alone in promoting good fellowship, but as a material benefactor to the families of deceased members.

BOSTON'S MAYOR ASKS FOR A FOOD EMBARGO.

Boston, Nov. 11.—Mayor James M. Curley sent a letter to President Wilson today asking him to convene Congress and submit a recommendation that a law be enacted putting an embargo on food products as a step toward reducing the cost of living.
The Mayor included in his letter a table giving the increase in food prices within the past year, which he said showed wages would have to advance 100 per cent, in order to keep pace with the rise in cost of necessities of life.
