

North Carolina Social News

WARSAW

Warsaw, Nov. 11.—The Woman's Clubs held a meeting at the school building Monday afternoon. The school Betterment Department decided to assist the Domestic Science Department of the school to raise funds for the purchase of extra equipment. Other plans were discussed for raising money necessary for the club work.

The Music Department gave a public concert on Friday night of last week. In addition to the best local talent, Mr. Bert Jones of Wilmington, was secured for several vocal selections. A carefully prepared program, which reflected the splendid work of the directors, Mrs. Clarence Brown, was rendered. The club gave an informal reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jones at the residence of Mrs. Erie Best, after the concert.

Mrs. J. T. Gresham was hostess to the Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church at her home on Church street, Monday afternoon from three till five o'clock. A special feature was the miscellaneous shower for a bazaar to be held the first week in December for the benefit of the society. A discussion of plans relative to holding the bazaar occupied the time of the meeting, at the conclusion of which, coffee and sandwiches were served by the hostess.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church gave a barbecue dinner for the benefit of the organ fund, on election day, and were successful in raising a nice sum to pay on the handsome new organ, recently purchased.

Miss Anna Pierce left Saturday for New York and Boston where she will spend the winter with her brother, Lieut. Dudley Pierce, and sister, Mrs. Edward Gibson.

Mrs. De Berniere Faison of Goldsboro, spent last week with friends in Warsaw and Clinton.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Pierce, Master Jack Pierce, Mrs. Chas. Carroll and children motored to Clinton last Thursday and spent the day.

Misses Louise Anderson, Helen Ponville, and Hulda Best, students of Meredith College, spent several days with their parents, here the past week.

Mrs. J. W. Kornegay of Newport News, Va., visited Miss Mankie Noble, while en route to Hallsville.

Mrs. Mary Simmons of Faison, visited Mrs. T. B. Pierce last week.

Mrs. M. H. Wooten is in Columbia, S. C., visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fred Hines.

The many friends of Mrs. H. Faison Pierce will be glad to know that her niece, Miss Noel, of Mississippi, who has been critically ill for several weeks at Mrs. Pierce's home here, is considerably better.

The annual Faison Fair, given under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias, was held at the school building at Faison, Thursday and Friday of last week. There was a fine agricultural exhibit which consisted of a good showing of full-grown vegetables, such as garden peas, string beans, squash, lettuce, spinach, tomatoes, Irish and sweet potatoes as well as corn, tobacco and cotton. The stock exhibit showed some fine specimens especially as to hogs and chickens. The handwork and cooking exhibits were especially good. Prizes were also given for best ferns and roses of which there was a nice display. There were races and sports, and music furnished by the Goldsboro Band. On the second day a baby contest occurred.

Mrs. Estelle T. Smith, Demonstration agent for Wayne County, delivered a very helpful and instructive lecture to the women, on the subject of canning and home devices. She urged those present to make an effort to secure an agent for Duplin county. Representatives from Warsaw and Calypso offered to co-operate with Faison in the matter.

NEW BERN

Mrs. R. G. Hodges, of Kinston, is visiting friends in the city.

Dr. and Mrs. St. Clair McCotter, of Bayboro, are in the city, visiting relatives.

Miss Madeline Jester, of Beaufort, is spending the day in the city attending the fair.

Miss Margaret Farris, of Wilmington, arrived in the city Tuesday to visit friends.

Mrs. J. R. Avery and daughter, Miss Esther, of Hampshire, are visiting friends in the city.

Dr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Atmore, of Stonewall, spent Tuesday with relatives.

Mrs. J. R. Avery and daughter, Miss Esther, of Hampstead, are visiting friends in the city.

Dr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Atmore, of Stonewall, spent Tuesday in the city with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wade, of Morehead City, are visiting friends in the city and attending the fair.

Mrs. Armond, Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. R. W. Taylor, of Morehead City, are in the city.

Miss Lidia Lee Rhodes, of Kinston, is visiting in the city, the guest of Miss Lena Taylor, on Middle street.

Mrs. W. F. Herbert, of Morehead City, spent Wednesday in New Bern attending the fair and visiting friends.

Capt. and Mrs. Lou Midyette, of Oriental, arrived in the city Wednesday morning to visit friends and attend the East Carolina Fair.

Mrs. S. A. Thomas and Mrs. J. C. Lewis and children of Morehead City, spent Tuesday here.

Misses Lurley Whitly and Iona Morris, of Pollockville, are visiting friends in New Bern, and attending the East Carolina Fair.

Mrs. W. T. Venters and daughter, of Bolton, who have been visiting relatives in this city and Oriental, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. D. W. Stancil, of Morehead City, arrived in the city Tuesday morning to visit her daughter, Mrs. Jacob Chadwick, on East Front street, and to attend the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Smallwood left Wednesday morning for Hillsboro, where they attended the marriage of their son, Mr. Robert Smallwood, of New York City, to Miss Annie C. Graham, which took place at the Episcopal church Wednesday.

FAYETTEVILLE

Fayetteville, Nov. 11.—The first autumn meeting of the Tuesday Bridge Club was held Wednesday with all twelve members present. Miss Isabel Williams was hostess at her home on Gillespie street. After the game, salad, with coffee, was served. The following make up the membership: Misses Isabel Bidgood, Nannie Campbell, Minerva McNeill, Allene Cooper, Eleanor Huske, Elizabeth Robinson, Margaret Jennings, Lydia Holland, Isabel and Annie Williams, Annie and Marie Pemberton.

The Duplicate Auction Club was charmingly entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. John M. de Vane, at her lovely home, "Plainfield," on Haymount. After the luncheon several boards of "duplicate auction" were played by the eight club members.

Mrs. Stapleton Cook entertained at bridge Thursday afternoon, in honor of her sister, Mrs. George Faucette, of Mt. Airy. Miss Esther Tillagast is hostess at bridge this afternoon, with Mrs. William S. Jordan, as honoree. A most interesting write-up of both parties will be given later.

Ensign Andrew Calhoun McFall left Thursday for New York, where on Saturday morning he puts out to sea on his battleship, the Texas. Ensign McFall spent the past week here, the guest of his brother, Col. John M. McFall.

Mrs. R. W. Bidgood, who left Tuesday evening for New York, stopped over in Baltimore for several days, where she is the guest of Mrs. Edmund A. Johnstone.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wemple spent

FORMER AVIATRIX WEDS AGAIN

MRS. FREDERICK BEETSON, JR.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Beetson, Jr., of New York, are here today on their honeymoon. Mrs. Beetson formerly was Mrs. Irving Twombly, and had the reputation of being the most daring aviatrix in America. Mrs. Beetson obtained a divorce from Mr. Twombly in New York last May. The then Mrs. Twombly and Mr. Beetson left New York a few days ago with a party of friends and were married at Cincinnati, where Garry Herrman, chairman of the National Baseball Commission, gave the bride away. Mrs. Beetson's former husband, Mr. Twombly, was at one time famous in aviation circles and for a long time was president of the Aero Club of America.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Beetson, Jr., of New York, are here today on their honeymoon. Mrs. Beetson formerly was Mrs. Irving Twombly, and had the reputation of being the most daring aviatrix in America. Mrs. Beetson obtained a divorce from Mr. Twombly in New York last May. The then Mrs. Twombly and Mr. Beetson left New York a few days ago with a party of friends and were married at Cincinnati, where Garry Herrman, chairman of the National Baseball Commission, gave the bride away. Mrs. Beetson's former husband, Mr. Twombly, was at one time famous in aviation circles and for a long time was president of the Aero Club of America.

MARSHVILLE

Marshville, Nov. 11.—Mr. J. C. Dean was a visitor in Charlotte this week.

Mrs. Lou Hamilton, of Pageland, was a visitor in Marshville the past week.

The Young People's Missionary Society rendered a most enjoyable social program at the Methodist church Wednesday night. A goodly number of the people of the town attended and the occasion was much enjoyed.

Mr. Robert Williams and family, of Charlotte, spent last Sunday here visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. J. E. Thomas visited in Monroe Monday. He was accompanied by Dr. R. Arnfield.

Miss Radie Atkinson and Mr. Clayton Traywick were married last Sunday morning. Rev. Mr. Hutchison performed the ceremony. Both of the young people are well known in this section and each has a large circle of friends. They will make their home here.

Tuesday in the city, the guests of Mrs. Wemple's sister, Miss Leta Cummings, who is spending the winter in Fayetteville, a guest at the Rosemont Hotel.

Captain J. Marshall Williams and daughter, Miss Roxanna Williams, of Seventy-First, were among the out-of-town visitors, who came in to get the latest electoral returns.

Miss Laura Stedman leaves Saturday for Wilson to spend the week-end as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. T. A. Davis.

Miss Zula Rankin and Rev. R. L. Wharton are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rankin at their home in Hallsboro.

CHARLOTTE

Charlotte, Nov. 11.—Mrs. W. H. Dula left Wednesday for New York to spend some time visiting her sister, Mrs. J. C. Leslie.

Miss Martha Martin of Columbus, Ga., is with the children of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lee, the latter her sister, during their absence in New York.

Miss Bess McLeod, of Maxton, is visiting friends at Queens College.

Mrs. Calvin Brice, of Woodward, S. C., is visiting her son, R. G. Brice, at his home on South Boulevard, Dilworth.

J. M. McCoy, of Camden, S. C., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McCoy, the former his son, at their home on Kingston avenue, Dilworth.

Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Barb, of Hickory, are the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Herman at their home on Crescent avenue.

Mrs. Robert A. Mayer charmingly entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club at her handsome new home in Myers Park, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. M. M. Murphy and Mrs. James A. Houston were special guests of the club.

As the conclusion of the games Mrs. Edward C. Marshall was awarded the prize for highest score. Those playing were Mrs. Edward C. Marshall, Mrs. Cameron Morrison, Mrs. Z. V. Taylor, Mrs. Henry B. Fowler, Mrs. M. M. Murphy, Mrs. J. A. Houston and Miss Ella McAden.

At the meeting of the Monday Afternoon Auction Club held with Mrs. Ben J. Smith, at her home on East Boulevard, Dilworth, Monday afternoon the table prizes were won by Mrs. Armand de Rosset Myers and Mrs. Robert C. Moore. Mrs. Henry B. Fowler and Mrs. Harry L. Ziegler substituted for Mrs. John M. Scott and Mrs. S. B. Alexander, Jr.

FAIRMONT

Fairmont, Nov. 11.—Mrs. M. A. Taylor, who has been spending some time at Fort Meade, Fla., has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jones were visitors in Philadelphia last week.

Misses Marie Martin and Emma Seals, who have been visiting here, have returned to their home in St. Paul.

Miss Mary Monroe was a visitor in Rowland last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Floyd and Miss Christing Floyd visited in Latta, S. C., last Sunday.

Mrs. W. B. McKellar, of Bordenman was a visitor in town this week.

Mrs. E. W. Wright spent Monday visiting here.

Mrs. J. P. Brown, who has been visiting in Fayetteville, has returned home.

Mrs. A. S. Thompson returned home Tuesday from Dillon, S. C., where she has been visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. H. H. Pittman, who has been visiting near Lumberton, has returned home.

Mrs. J. L. Watson, who has been visiting in Georgia, has returned home.

PROCTORVILLE

Proctorville, Nov. 11.—Mr. W. R. Sures, of Wilmington, is spending a few days in town.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bridger, Jr., went to Clarkton, Friday.

Mrs. A. A. Hilburn and daughters, Pauline and Queen, and Miss Vera Storms spent Friday in Lumberton.

Mr. F. J. Pait spent Saturday and Sunday here with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith and little Walter, Jr., spent the week-end here.

Miss Naomi Hester from near Elizabethtown, is spending some time here with her sister, Mrs. W. A. Hester.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Buie and Mr. Clifford were in Lumberton Saturday.

Mrs. R. C. Bridger has returned home after spending several weeks at Black Mountain.

Misses Ida Suggs and little May Morris, of Abbottsburg were guests of Miss Elizabeth Pate Tuesday.

Misses Vera Singletary and Jettye Bridger were in Clarkton Tuesday evening for a short while.

Mr. A. E. Call, of Wilmington, was a caller in town Sunday. Several from here spent Sunday in Chadbourne.

Mr. J. C. Thompson, of Wilmington, spent several days last week here.

Misses Edna Prevatt and Mamie Smith spent the week-end in Lumberton.

Mr. A. A. Hilburn spent several days this week in Wilmington.

Mr. H. T. Lenks, of Wilmington, was a visitor in town Tuesday.

Mrs. C. A. Shaw and Mrs. Florence Shaw spent several days in Hamlet this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Williamson spent a few hours in Lumberton Friday.

Mrs. P. L. Callihan, who was operated on at Thompson Hospital, a few days past, is getting on nicely.

Mr. W. S. Hilburn was in town for a few hours Friday.

The views of Barium Springs orphanage shown by Miss Hudson at the Presbyterian church Wednesday night were entertaining and profitable.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Freeman, of Lumberton, are spending the week-end at home.

REIDSVILLE

Reidsville, Nov. 11.—Mrs. J. S. Harlow, of Fayetteville, is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Robert Dalley, of Townsville, who has been visiting relatives here, has returned home.

Miss Rose Freddy entertained at auction bridge in honor of Mrs. Dewey Lee, of Waynesville. At the conclusion of the game Miss Freddy served a delicious salad course. Upon counting the score Mrs. Ernest Staples was found to hold the highest score and was presented with a box of candy as a prize. Miss Freddy presented Mrs. Lee with the guest prize, a box of stationery. Those enjoying Miss Freddy's hospitality were Mesdames Dewey Lee, Ernest Staples, William Williams, Ben Baisley, Misses Martin Wray, Ruth Burton, Irene Taylor, Ruth Rawley, Minnie Lee Whittemore, Martha Ratcliffe Blair Spencer and Mary Paddy.

Thursday afternoon the Irving Literary Society held its regular meeting in the school auditorium. After the business was over the Society adjourned for the literary program which consisted of: Origin of Halloween, Sara Watt; Piano Solo, Helen Penn; Raggedy Man, Mary Stokes; Piano Solo, Annie Cummings; Frost is on the Pumpkin, Clyde Chance.

NEW BERN

New Bern, Nov. 11.—There was "something doing" in New Bern tonight in the way of celebrating. The Democrats of Acme joined New Bern in a torchlight parade, accompanied by the women and children, carrying tin pans, cow bells, horns and everything that goes to make a noise. The proverbial Democratic mule was included.

A series of meetings closed at the Methodist church last night. The pastor, Rev. Watson, was ably assisted by his father.

Master Woodruff Pridgeon had the misfortune to break his left arm in a fall from his bicycle Tuesday evening.

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Mullen, of Lake Wacamaw, will sympathize with them in the loss of their six-months-old son, S. H., Jr., which occurred in Wilmington, Tuesday. The little one was taken there for treatment. The remains were brought here for interment.

Messrs. R. M. Powell and William Wilson, of Waco, were visitors here Tuesday evening.

Master W. R. Allen, Jr., is spending some time in East Arcadia.

Misses Mattie and Mary Lee Powell, of Acme, visited Miss Edna Allen Tuesday.

Glady's Mitchell and Bessie Jackson attended the monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society at Acme, Thursday evening. The society was delightfully entertained by Mrs. T. V. Moore.

Mr. D. R. Connor has moved to Chadbourne, where he will be associated with the Moore-Connor Motor Co.

WILLARD

Willard, Nov. 11.—Mrs. J. G. Page spent several days in Wilmington last week.

Miss Mamie Joyner and Mr. Walter Hines, of Wrightsboro, were the guests of Miss Fannie Johnston Sunday.

Miss Catharine Page, who is teaching the Hall school near Watha, is spending the week end at home.

Miss Fannie Johnston is visiting relatives in Wrightsboro this week.

Among those who attended the Corn Show in Wilmington last week were, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Powers, Mr. J. M. Johnston, Mrs. E. M. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jefferies and children.

Miss Sara Hendrey was in town Friday night en route from her school near Burgaw, to spend the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hendrey.

Hurrah for Wilson.

MOUNT OLIVE

Mount Olive, Nov. 11.—Dr. Henderson Irvin, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. J. A. Irvin, of Charlotte, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Steele on Tuesday.

Misses Esther Tatum and Katie Lee Perry, who are students at the Greensboro Female College this year, are at home for a few days.

Miss Julia and Mildred Wooten, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Bessie Wooten, returned Monday to their home, near Kinston.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Miss Nell DeVane and Mr. Isaac Hines, of Faison, and Mr. L. H. Castex, of Goldsboro, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Steele on Sunday.

Mrs. William Hill, Mrs. Leonidas Faison, Miss Annie Rose Williams, of Warsaw, Miss Emily and Sallie Hill and Mrs. H. J. Faison, of Faison, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Wooten last week.

Mrs. M. T. Beazeale spent Tuesday in Goldsboro, the guest of Mrs. Walter Borden, leaving Wednesday for Raleigh, where she attended the State conference of Daughters of the American Revolution.

Miss Jessie Albrinton, who holds a position in the Census Department, Washington, D. C., was the guest of relatives here the latter part of last week and the first of this, returning to Washington Monday night.

Mrs. John N. Cox, of Tabor, has been a guest for several days past of her two sons, Mr. H. M. Cox, president of the Citizens Bank, here, and Mr. R. L. Cox, secretary-treasurer of the Calypso Supply Company, Calypso.

Mesdames Lewis Hicks, of Faison, and Fuller, of London, England, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hicks and Miss George Hicks of Faison, were guests of Mrs. A. W. Southerland last week.

Mesdames A. W. Southerland and S. A. Wooten spent last week in Raleigh.

Mr. Emmett Pope, of Wilmington, spent Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Pope.

Mrs. Thos. Whitfield, of Goldsboro, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Oliver.

Mrs. Frank Short is spending a short while in Goldsboro, her old home.

Miss Gladys Smith is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Roberts, in Norfolk.

Miss Rachel Kornegay, Mrs. Thomas McGee and little son are visiting in Kinston this week.

Mrs. Bessie Wooten, Miss Julia Parrott and Mr. Henry Knowles attended the Kinston Fair last week.

Mrs. W. W. Levin, of Raleigh, was a week-end guest of her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Uzell.

Mr. Leslie Hummell, of Wilmington, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Manley and other relatives here Sunday.

Mr. S. M. Page, of Lumberton, was the guest of his brother, Chief of Police U. S. Page, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. John B. Moore, of Turkey, after spending a few days here as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Oliver Sumnerlin, returned to her home Monday.

After spending the greater part of the week here with Mrs. Dunca's mother, Mrs. L. H. Reeves, Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Dunca have returned to their home at Benson.

Mr. DuBrutz English returned home Monday morning from Maryland, where he has been for several months, looking after business interests.

Mrs. P. I. Darden spent the latter part of last week in Goldsboro, where she is in attendance upon her aunt, Mrs. T. I. Sutton, who is quite ill.

Oscar P. Peck, WOOD, Telephone 341. Pine, Oak, Mixed Wood, Dry Kiln Blocks, Slabs. All kinds of Mill Woods. PROMPT DELIVERY.

REGULAR DINNER TWENTY-FIVE CENTS NEW YORK CAFE.