MAD BULL SPREADS PANIC.

Finally Attacks an Automobile and is Shot Dead.

Milton, Pa., Nov. 16.—After an hour's battle with an infuriated bull on the farm of James Best, near here, the animal was killed.

A young Jersey had been tied up in the barn and was being fattened for market. Best's dog attacked it and, becoming infuriated, the young bull broke its chain leash and battered down the barn doors.

Once outside the bull attacked and threw James Fetter, aged four, to the ground, but the child was unhurt, his mother, when the dog again attracted the bull's attention, grabbing the child and running into the house just as the beast charged again.

Attracted by the noise Best and his son, Merrill, hastened from a nearby field. The bull attacked young Best and tossed him over the barnyard fence. James Best got a pitchfork and sunk the tines in its head, but it only shook them off and chased the older Best around and around an apple tree.

Neighbors, summoned by Mrs. Best by telephone, responded in an automobile and the bull charged the machine, battering its head against the radiator. Angus Fairchild fired at the animal from the car and killed it.
