DUNCAN—ADAMS. Raleigh, Nov. 16.—The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Duncan, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Duncan, of Raleigh, and Thomas Stokes Adams, of Richmond, was the most largely attended of all recent weddings in Raleigh, and the ceremony performed at the First Presbyterian church last night at 9 o'clock was attended by all that the great church would seat.

Rev. R. F. Bumpass, former presiding elder of the Raleigh district, officiated. During the day, which was traditionally against the wedding, the church was prepared for the event with awnings designed to protect the public from weather that promised the worst. It did not come, however, and break as it was without, the church overflowed.

No Raleigh girl has been married recently to whom more attention has been paid in the unnumbered luncheons, parties and showers given. No church spectacle has been more beautiful than that of the bridal party in its charming costume. The couple, after the ceremony, left for the North, and upon their return will live in Virginia.

BRILLIANT WEDDING CELEBRATED.

One of the most brilliant and beautiful weddings of the fall season was celebrated at the First Presbyterian church last evening at 8:30 o'clock when Miss Juliette Albright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Reese Albright, was wedded to Dr. James F. Robertson, Jr., a young physician of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., pastor of the church, in the presence of hundreds of friends. The wedding took together two of the State's most prominent families.

Immediately after the wedding a delightful reception was tendered at the Albright home on South Third street. Following this a dance was given in honor of the bride and groom at the Cape Fear Country Club. Elaborate arrangements had been made for the dance and it proved a delightful affair. On leaving for their bridal tour, Dr. and Mrs. Robertson would not disclose to their friends their destination, but announced that they would be at home in the city to friends after ten days.

To the strains of the "Bridal Chorus," played by Mr. E. H. Munson, the bridal party entered the church a few minutes past 8:30. Preceded by the attendants, the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, met the groom at the altar, which in a lovely setting of white chrysanthemums, palms and Southern smilax, presented a beautiful effect. Miss Bessie Albright, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and was gowned in pink satin with an overdress of orchid tulle with silver trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink snapdragons. Misses Mary Bellamy, Margaret Albright, of Greensboro, cousins of the bride; Mary Wright Taylor and Margaret Vaughn, of Winston-Salem, were the bridesmaids.

Misses Bellamy and Albright were dressed in pink satin with tulle draperies and carried pink chrysanthemums. Miss Taylor was dressed in yellow satin with tulle draperies and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Miss Vaughn was attired in green satin with tulle draperies and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

The bride was attired in a delicate creation of white satin draped in white lace of rare beauty. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. She wore a platinum brooch set with diamonds and aqua marine, the groom's gift.

Mr. Carol Taliaferro, of Charlotte, was best man and the groomsmen were: Messrs R. L. Henley and A. L. Perry, of this city; G. W. Thomas, of Charlotte; Dr. Richard Lang, of Savannah, Ga.; Dr. S. O. Oast, of Portsmouth, Va.; and Mr. A. G. Robertson, of Charlotte.

After the wedding more than 300 guests attended the reception at the Albright home, which was most artistically decorated in pink roses, snapdragons, carnations, ferns, palms, Southern smilax and yellow chrysanthemums. The color scheme was pink and green. As the guests arrived they were met at the door by Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Huggins and Mrs. N. B. Rankin. They were then escorted to the receiving line in which was the bridal party, the bride and groom's parents, Mrs. S. B. Alexander, of Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Albright, of Raleigh; Mrs. Mara Albright, of Greensboro; Mrs. J. Victor Grainger, Jr., and Miss Atha Hicks presided at the punch bowl.

The out-of-town guests were: Dr. and Mrs. James F. Robertson, of Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Albright, of Raleigh; Mrs. Mary Albright, of Greensboro; Miss Margaret Albright, of Greensboro; Miss Margaret Vaughn, of Winston-Salem; Mrs. W. C. Jones, of Madison, N. C.; and Mrs. S. B. Alexander of Charlotte.

MARRIED AT WATHA YESTERDAY. At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Peace, at Watha, N. C., Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, Miss Bessie Peace and Mr. Fitzhugh Lee were married. Father Knensels officiating. It was a quiet home wedding, there being no one present but the family and Mr. LeRoy Lee, of Fayetteville, brother of the groom. Following the ceremony a delicious lunch was served, after which the bride and groom left in an automobile for Scott's Hill, their future home. They carry with them the best wishes of many Watha friends.

The Senatorial vote for this, the Sixth district, was canvassed this morning by Mr. O. W. Woodward, chairman of the Board of Elections, of New Hanover county, together with Mr. R. E. Ranson, of Southport, chairman of the Board of Elections of Brunswick. Their canvass shows that 3,311 ballots were cast for E. H. Crammer, Esq., of Brunswick, Democratic Senatorial nominee, as against 195 for C. Ed Taylor, Esq., of Southport, Republican, whose name, according to his statement, got on the ticket through mistake. In other words Mr. Taylor polled 195 votes without being a candidate and without winning a campaign. The work of the canvassers was completed by noon, their statement signed and Mr. Ranson returned home in the afternoon.

SAVES CHILD FROM BEAR.

Leavenworth, Wash., Nov. 16.—A little three-year-old boy running toward a big brown bear caused quick action on the part of William Peppmiller, a Chumstick rancher, the other day.

Mr. Peppmiller was loading a car of wood at the siding and his little nephew was playing about the car when Mr. Peppmiller was attracted by his two dogs barking in the underbrush about 100 feet distant.

He observed the bear coming out of the canyon and also saw the child going to meet it. The child had not seen the animal, but was going over to where the dogs were. Mr. Peppmiller reached the child and, with it under his arm, ran a short distance to the house and got his rifle. He got a few shots at the animal before it again entered the brush, but failed to hit it.

Money in Wolf Hides.

Ozona, Tex., Nov. 16.—How the great war across the seas could make the price of wolf and coyote skins go soaring, no one here seems to know. It is a fact, nevertheless, that pelts of these animals are now selling for more than an average sheep will bring, and every quotation shows a rise in their market value.

The price of a coyote pelt has increased during the last few months from $1 to $8.

Wolf skins of the lobo species sell for even higher prices. It is such a profitable business professional trappers are flocking into this part of Texas in great numbers.
