BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Look young! Nobody can tell if you use Grandmother's simple recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound", you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small stand at a time; by morning the gray Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. It is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

HOW TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR WITHOUT DYES

Get from Green's Drug Store a bottle of Q-Ban. That is a ready-to-use harmless liquid preparation, but is not a dye. Apply Q-Ban like a shampoo to your hair and scalp every day for a week, then two or three times a week. This preparation has the wonderful effect of reviving the color glands of the hair so that in a short time you will be delighted to see all your gray hair gradually turn to a beautiful soft natural dark shade. All your hair will be made healthy, so no matter how gray, streaked with gray, faded, harsh or brittle your hair may be Q-Ban will make it soft, fluffy, thick and radiant with hair health, and your entire head of hair will be darkened so evenly and completely that no one can tell you have used Q-Ban, as not even a sign of gray hair will appear. Out of town folks supplied by mail.—Adv't.

WILLIAM C. TEMPLE

"FATHER OF WORLD'S SERIES" MAY HEAD NATIONAL COMMISSION.

(William Chase Temple.)
 New York, Nov. 20.—William Chase Temple, millionaire baseball fan and known as the "Father of the World's Series," is considered a very probable successor to Garry Herrmann, as chairman of the National Commission, according to reports current in baseball circles here today. Mr. Temple, who at present is at his winter estate, Winter Park, Florida, has been a baseball enthusiast since 1876. He was the donor of the famous "Temple Cup" for the baseball championship in 1894, 1895 and 1896. He formerly owned the Pittsburgh Pirates, but got out of active participation in baseball affairs in 1894. It is said that a majority of the baseball magnates favor Temple. Another point in his favor is the fact that he does not believe the chairmanship of the National Commission should carry a salary with it.

RICH GERMANS HAVE FOR MORE THAN BONDS

Berlin, Nov. 20.—Rich Germans still have money for other purposes than buying war bonds as is evident from an auction sale of oil paintings just held here. A collection of 144 pictures, which belonged to the late Privy Councillor Hugo Schmeil of Dresden, brought a total of $285,000. The highest price, $14,570, was paid for an early work of Max Liebermann in the style of Rembrandt, representing a girl making preserves. A small portrait by Leibl brought $10,000 and two other portraits by him each $5,460, but a Lehnbach portrait of Bismarck (in civilian clothing) went at the surprisingly low price of $2,300. A peasant's farmyard at noon by Segantini, a small canvass, was knocked down at $5,800, which shows that the great Italian master has lost nothing of his popularity in Germany through the war. Three pictures by the Frenchman Courbet brought together only $11,800.
