

THEATRICAL GOSSIP FROM NEW YORK CITY

New York, Nov. 25.—Few changes are to be noted in the list of accessible entertainment, either dramatic or musical, at the New York theaters this week. A summary of the most successful of the current attractions includes "Treasure Island," at the Punch and Judy; "Under Sentence," at the Harris; "Cheating Cheaters," with Marjorie Rambeau, at the Eltings; "The Man Who Came Back," at the Playhouse; "Old Lady 13," with Emma Dunn, at the Thirty-ninth Street Theater; "His Majesty Bunker Bean," at the Astor; "Turn to the Right," at the Gaiety; "Nothing But the Truth," with William Collier, at the Longacre; "Backfire," at the Lyceum; "Major Pendennis," with John Drew, at the Criterion; "Object—Matrimony," at the Forty-eighth Street Theater; "The Baker," with Cyril Maude, at the Empire; "Good Gracious Annabelle," at the Republic; "Come Out of the Kitchen," with Ruth Chatterton, at George N. Cohan's Theater; "Seven Chances," at the Belasco; "Fixing Sister," with William Hodge, at Maxine Elliott's; "Arms and the Girl," at the Fulton; William Faversham's production of George Bernard Shaw's "Getting Married," at the Booth.

Among the current attractions affording entertainment to those who prefer the musical show are "The resplendent 'Show of Wonders,'" at the Winter Garden; "The Century Girl," at the Century Theater; "So Long Letty," at the Shubert; "Go To It," at the Princess; "Betty," with Raymond Hitchcock, at the Globe; "Miss Springtime," at the New Amsterdam; "Flora Bella," at the Casino, and "The Big Show," at the Hippodrome.

Three million persons have paid between $2,500,000 and $3,000,000 to see David Warfield's mellow performance in "The Music Master." This remarkable play, recently revived at the Kickerbocker Theater, is still "standing them up" twelve years after its original presentation. It has broken practically every record of the American stage in point of attendance and box office receipts.

One of the notable film releases of the coming week will be "The Children Pay," with charming Lillian Gish in the stellar role. The play is an indictment of the latter-day American system of divorce. While the mother and father of two daughters are fighting out their differences in court, it is, quite literally, the children who pay. Neighbors point at them. They are not permitted to mix with other children in the village school, and they are compelled to live alone in what the people about call a house of mystery.

A cast of star players, thousands of supernumeraries, several hundred Arabs, a caravan of camels, and entire streets built of stone in exact imitation of desert towns of the Sahara are items in "The Garden of Allah," the massive motion picture spectacle that is being prepared by the Selig company. Helen Ware is to have the leading role in the production. Among the notable members of the supporting cast will be Thomas Santschi, Eugene Bessner, Harry Lonsdale, Cecil Holland and James Bradbury.

Robert Warwick, one of the most popular of leading men, has been added to the list of stars under the direction of Lewis J. Selznick. Other notables in the list include Clara Kimball Young and Normal Talmadge. Mr. Selznick, in association with Herbert Brenon and Carl Laemmle, has recently taken over the control of the Broadway Theater in this city. Now it is announced that the partners are negotiating for control of a chain of

OF INTEREST TO AMERICAN EXPORTERS.

Buenos Aires, Argentine, Nov. 25.—A case of considerable interest to American exporting houses has cropped up here. A consignment of motor cars from an American factory arrived in Buenos Aires. The invoice price of the cars, sent to the agency in Buenos Aires, were, by the customs authorities, deemed exceedingly low. The minister of finance was induced to believe that some fraudulent intentions underlay the invoice prices, which ranged $200 to $300 gold. He fixed the value of the cars for the purpose of revenue, at from $340 to $645 gold. On behalf of his principals the local agent invited the authorities to take over the cars at the invoice prices. After much delay the minister has gone out of office without giving a decision on the point. The cars remain in store pending the decision of the new minister of finance.
