Opening the second season of its transcontinental tour, "Gypsy Love," the pretentious Franz Lehar operetta...

"Gypsy Love" has been so voluminously commented upon by the big periodicals and newspapers of the greater cities there is little left to describe in the piece itself.

Although the musical riches of the operetta always have been its greatest strength, this season's production, according to Mr. Dippel, is a greater success musically than ever before.

the music wonderful increase of values and quality, both vocal and instrumental.

Arthur Albro, who has played the principal role in every performance since the day of "Gypsy Love's" birth, continues to hear the splendid cast which includes the charming little Spanish prima donna...

Prices will range from 50 cents to $2. Tickets will go on sale Monday morning at 9 o'clock at Elvington's.

ANOTHER GOOD ONE ON THE WAY.

"Maid to Order" which will be one of the early attractions here, is a breezy, unctious musical comedy whose action is interspersed with song numbers and ensembles of unusual popular appeal.

Why did Casey strike out? You've read of the mighty battle between Mudville and Frogtown for baseball supremacy; of the terrible struggle to win the cherished pennant, and you know that the mighty Casey struck out at the crucial moment; but did you ever know why he struck out?

DeWolf Hopper has played the title role of the mighty Casey in a magnificent Triangle Film Arts production "Casey at That Bat," and tells the story. This picture, which follows closely the immortal poem, is one of the best comedy dramas ever presented on the screen, and will be tomorrow's big Triangle attraction at

W. G. CROOM HAS INCREASED WEIGHT 10 LBS. ON TANLAC

Wilmington Man Says It Sure Helped Him, After 10 Years of Suffering, and He Praises Tanlac to Friends.

Among other gains that W. G. Croom, of 215 South Eighth street, this city, is enjoying through Tanlac is a weight increase of ten (10) pounds.

Mr. Croom is identified with the Pullman Company and has many friends in Wilmington. He says: "I have advised several of my friends to try Tanlac for it surely has helped me, and I can't say too much in praise of it."

"I suffered from kidney trouble," Mr. Croom said, in speaking of his former condition to the Tanlac Man, "and on one occasion I was told that I had a touch of Bright's disease. This trouble had been on me for the past 10 years, and had been growing worse, all the time. I tried different preparations, and was prescribed for, but benefited only a little. I couldn't rest at nights for having to be up so often—five or six times every night—and I felt sluggish and bad all over. My back hurt me all the time, just where the kidneys are located.

"A friend recommended Tanlac to me and now I am in fine shape, compared with my condition three months ago. My kidneys are back to normal, now; I can sleep all night without waking; my back doesn't hurt me any more, and I feel much better. I have gained ten pounds," he ended, happily. Commenting on the above story, E. H. Drum, North Carolina Distributor of Tanlac, said: "Mr. Croom's experience with Tanlac is typical of thousands of others. At this changeable season of the year Tanlac is especially adapted to the needs of the system in offsetting attacks of rheumatism and catarrh. What Tanlac has done for victims of these maladies and stomach, liver and kidney derangements and other ills has been told in detail by scores of men and women right here in Wilmington."

Tanlac is sold in Wilmington only at the Bellamy Drug Store; Acme, Acme Store Co.; Burgaw, C. L. Halstead; Southport, Watson's Pharmacy; Rocky Point, A. N. Rhodes; Supply, G. W. Kirby; New Bern, Bradham Drug Co.; Magnolia, W. L. Southall; Faison, Faison Drug Co.; Pembroke, G. W. Locklear; Snow Hill, J. T. H. Harper; Vineyard, R. B. McRoy & Co.; Whiteville, J. A. McNeill & Son; Verona, G. W. Humphrey; Fair Bluff, J. P. Waddell, Sr. Each town has its Tanlac dealer. (adv't.)

the Grand. "Casey at the Bat," the De Wolf Hopper comedy is based on the famous baseball poem, "Casey at the Bat," written more than a quarter of a century ago, printed originally in a comparatively obscure newspaper, reprinted thousands of times in other newspapers and in magazines, and recited times without number by Hopper, as a curtain speech, an after-dinner stunt, or for the entertainment of importunate friends.

"I knew it would happen," said Hopper, in discussing the picture while it was being made. "Casey has pursued me down the years. I adopted him so many years ago that I don't like to think about it, and I have never been able to escape. He is my Old Man of the Sea. I have to carry him along, whether I want to or not. I long ago ceased to have any desire to recite 'Casey at the Bat.' I don't want to. But I have to. There's no escape. I am the man who recites 'Casey at the Bat,' and I have to do it, that's all."

BIG THANKSGIVING AT VICTORIA.

For the multitudes that undoubtedly will take advantage of the Thanksgiving holiday to avail themselves of the opportunity of witnessing "The Wizard's" performance at the Victoria tonight, it may be said that every effort will be made to make today's show as wonderful and out of the ordinary as possible.

The Palace of Mystery, the Chinese Pagoda, the Hindu Wonder Screen, the Dying Enigma, and the hundred other amazing stunts and whirlwind sensations were again in evidence, but entirely different from the ones presented the first of the week. It seems incredible that one man could be capable of performing so many hundreds of startling sensations as Richards, "The Wizard," puts over in one show, much less changing programs entirely every two days.

For the big Thanksgiving crowds today and tonight, when everybody is at leisure to take in the amusements, big arrangements have been made to handle the biggest crowd in the history of the Victoria. The Phantom Cannon, the feature act of the show, is absolutely the most amazing sensational and startling act ever attempted by any magician. Right in the middle of a brilliantly lighted stage, you will see Richards, "The Wizard," place the young lady in the huge cannon, close it, and immediately fire. Then the huge brass bound trunk, suspended in midair right in the center of the stage, in plain view of everyone, is lowered, and the two successive smaller trunks which it contains are taken out, the smaller and inner one opened, and the young lady appears. This will prove the greatest wonder of all to the big Thanksgiving Day crowds today and tonight.

And remember—the baby will be given away Friday evening immediately after the first performance.

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of lime-stone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.—Adv't.
