

CANDIDATE FILES EXPENSE ACCOUNTS

North Carolina Congressional Nominees Make Known What Cost Them.

(By George H. Manning.)
Washington, D. C., Dec. 2.—With practically all the certified statements of campaign expenses of the North Carolina congressional candidates on file with the House of Representatives except that of Zebulon Weaver, Democrat, successful candidate in the Tenth district, Congressman James J. Britt, Republican, of the Tenth district, with an expenditure of $3,679.07, is shown to have spent more than any of the others.

Mr. Weaver in his statement of expenses filed on October 29th, said he had spent $363.96 up to that time. It is presumed he spent considerable more in the last ten days of his campaign. He has ten days more in which to file his final expense statement.

The next highest expense was incurred by another Republican, George E. Butler, who expended $2,533.19 in his efforts to defeat Congressman George E. Hood, of the Third district, who spent but $617.

The third highest expense was also incurred by a Republican candidate, Charles E. Greene, who admits spending $2,358 in his attempt to defeat Congressman E. Y. Webb for re-election from the Ninth district.

Congressman Robert L. Doughton, of the Eighth district, spent more than any of the other Democratic candidates. He spent $2,175, he says, while H. S. Williams, his Republican opponent, spent $150 up to October 28th.

The expenses of all the North Carolina candidates were as follows:
First District—Congressman J. H. Small, $273; L. E. Jones, Republican, $24.50 to October 27th.

Second District—Congressman Claude Kitchin, $365.
Third District—Congressman Hood, $617; George E. Butler, Republican, $2,533.19.
Fourth District—Congressman Edward Pou, $1,678; J. J. Jenkins, Republican, none to October 26th.

Fifth District—Congressman Stedman, $1,918.49; Gilliam Grissom, Republican, $900.
Sixth District—Congressman Godwin, $419.67; A. R. McCaskill, $485.
Seventh District—L. D. Robinson, Democrat, $1,315; P. E. Brown, Republican, $5 to October 25th.

Eighth District—Congressman Doughton, $2,175; H. S. Williams, Republican, $150 to October 28th.
Ninth District—Congressman Webb, $1,052; Charles E. Greene, Republican, $2,358.25.
Tenth District—Congressman Britt, $3,679.07; Zeb Weaver, Democrat, $363.96 up to October 29th.

The limit of expense for a congressional candidate is $5,000, and this amount is often exceeded in close districts. Congress has never expelled a member for exceeding the limit of campaign expenses provided by law.

TEACHERS MUST TEACH HEALTH

Public Schools Should Teach Children Individual and Community Health, Says President Wright.

"Public school teachers must teach public health," said Mr. Robert H. Wright, of Greenville, president of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly, now in session at Raleigh, in his address to the teachers Thanksgiving evening. In outlining greater things that will make for greater service for the teachers of North Carolina, Mr. Wright said:

"Teachers must teach not only individual health in the public schools, but community health. We know now that only a certain kind of mosquito transmits yellow fever and by screening our homes and otherwise protecting ourselves from mosquitoes we may protect ourselves not only from yellow fever but from malaria, also."

Again, Mr. Wright said: "We are truly grateful that the time has come when every child in the land is not expected to have whooping cough and measles. We are glad also that the ignorance of the means of preventing diseases which have been filling our blind institutions, our feeble-minded schools and our child reformatories is being dispelled. The light of disease prevention and health conservation that is so rapidly coming to us should as rapidly be given to our children through the public schools."

"Wonderful time that aviator made."

"Yes," replied Mr. Chiggins. "But think of the advantage she had. Not a traffic policeman on the entire route."

"Jane, there is a friend of mine who is very anxious to know if you will marry him."

"Tell him of course I will. Who is he?"—Baltimore American.

GENERALLY FAIR WEATHER NEXT WEEK.

The decease is survived by a daughter, Mrs. John W. Burton, of Arcadia, Fla., and two sons, Mr. H. M. Owen. The deceased is Aubrey L. Owen, of Richmond. Mr. Owen left last night for Richmond to attend the funeral and burial services which will be conducted tomorrow afternoon.

SLIGHT DECREASE SHOWN.

Careless Automobile Drivers Boosted the Figures Big Extent.

There was a slight decrease in the number of arrests made during the month of November, according to the report of Chief of Police N. M. Williams, and but for the failure of automobilists to observe the driving laws that had to do with proper lighting equipment for their automobiles the decrease would have been very marked. Far more colored persons were arrested than white, this being the outstanding feature of the report. One hundred and twenty-four arrests were made during the month, eight less than during the previous month.

SAFEGUARDING YOUR ESTATE

In case of loss of trust funds by an individual through speculation, defalcation or otherwise, the only remedy is by suit on the bond. An endless and ruinous litigation consumes the remnant of the funds, if any, while the beneficiaries of the estate always suffer serious or entire loss. Reason TEN why you should appoint as executor
