THEATRE

Wilmington is promised the musical treat of the season when the melodious, romantic operetta "Gypsy Love" regarded as Franz Lehar's most sensational success since he gave the world "The Merry Widow," comes here to play an engagement of one night at the Academy of Music on next Wednesday.

All auspices augur a local presentation of the famous comic opera under the most advantageous circumstances. The attraction is heralded as "Andreas Dippel's own production," a creation in which the famous impressario takes personal pride. An unusually brilliant cast is headed by the great young Russian tenor Arthur Albro, in the role he originated; and to make certain full justice is done to the musical virtues of the rich Lehar score Mr. Dippel has sent along an The Original Film Girl in "A Lass of orchestra of his own choosing, drafted from the forces of the Metropolitan Opera House, New York.

"SWEETHEARTS."

A musical treat awaits the residents of this city, as Victor Herbert's most sincere effort in the light opera field, "Sweethearts," will be presented at the Academy of Music soon.

With a galaxy of pretty girls that surround Julia Gifford, the prima donna of the company, and with lavish scenic investiture, "Sweethearts" should prove the big theatrical event

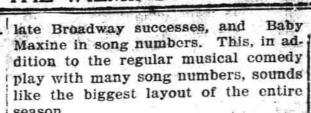

Harry B. Smith, in collaboration with hi stalented brother, Robert B. Smith, and Fred de Gresac are responsible for the book and lyrics of the production, and it is needless to add that this trio of writers have produced a story that Victor Herbert found extreme pleasure in weaving a series of tuneful melodies, that will be sung and whistled in this city for many weeks after the limited engage-

The supporting company is a capable one and includes Leo Stark in the principal comedy role.

GREAT SHOW AT VICTORIA. The week which started today should be the biggest week in the entire history of the Victoria, judging from the array of talent to be presented. In the first place, Charles Soladar's Brinkley Girls Company, an all-star musical comedy company, presenting new musical comedy fun plays with plenty of music and dancing, sparkling wit and bright comedy, pretty girls, nifty dancers, sweet singers and everything that goes to make the most agreeable musical comedy offering, has been booked for the entire week. The Brinkley Girls boast of five separate and distinct headliner acts, headed by Dixie Trio, "the harmony! boys with the big voices," Miss Maxine Henry, the beautiful toe dancer; Ed Page, the South's sweetest ballad singer; Miss Mae Ward, singer of

But not content with this, the management was fortunate in getting the far-famed Venetian Trio, who had an open week, to appear for the entire week, paying for the act alone almost as much as the usual musical comedy company. These talented musicians are among the best known trios in the country, and are known over the entire civilized world. They have made many records for the Victrola people, which can be heard at the Victor dealers in Wilmington, which alone attests their genuine talent and worth. This act will be presented as a part of each performance during the entire week, as an extra added attraction.

METRO PLAY TOMORROW.

"The Pretenders,' a Metro wonderplay in five interesting parts, with charming and gifted Emmy Wehlen in the stellar role, is the big feature attraction at the Grand theatre "When a Woman Loves" and "Her Company, appearing in "Tonight's the Dollar Princess," "The Merry Widow" and other big musical productions with the famous Gaiety com-
