Skating In The Air a New York Fad

There is no doubt that the skating craze has seized New York. Ice-skating teas have become popular in social circles and girl hockey teams have been formed in all parts of the city. This picture shows the ice-skating rink on the roof of the fashionable Hotel Biltmore, which has opened for the season. Society folks Marshburn, before marriage, was spending the holidays with relatives may now drop in at the Biltmore for afternoon tea, and, if they desire, leave the comfortable tea-table, pass through the glass doors onto the ice and
