New York, July 17. Reports tof more rains over the Southwest caused another break in the cotton market today and first prices were from 10 to 48 points lower. On the ground that Texas showers had been insufficient and we're confined chiefly to the northern part of the State, however, quick rallies followed, which carried October back to 25.27 and December to 25.16, representing an advance of 26 to 34 points from the opening level and 6 to 8 points over last night's
