He stated that he tried to explain; out saying anything to her about it told her that she was two miles from a telephone at the time and that it was impossible to reach her. He told the jury that his wife said that not other woman should have him; that she would tar, feather and burn him before such should come about, and that he laughed at her. He stated that she "ripped and reared" about the house, a steady stream of profanity issuing from her lips. He admitted cursing back, although he denied emphatically that he accused her of caring for other men.

He stated that he stood her abuse as long as possible and then left the house, going to the home of his mother and that his wife sent for him to return; sat down on the edge of the bed and began removing his shoes preparatory to going to sleep, he hav- Row, Peterson and Company ing worked the previous night. Civilians Are Being Forcibly Wildest Disorder During Last Night's Anti-German Demonstration

(By Associated Press.) Buenos Aires, Sept. 13 .- The downtown section of the city was the scene tinues, according to advices received of the wildest disorders last night in conection with great anti-German demonstrations, in which thousands of Argentinians took part. Many of those Ostend is being emptied gradually and in the mobs carried fire-brands, and 2,000 persons already have been sent as a result scores of buildings were Many of the inhabitants of Berlaer set on fire. Several blocks of German have been forcibly taken to Turcoing business houses in Calle 25 de Mayo

Among the structures attacked were the German club, one of the finest edifices in the city, and the building of the German daily, La Union. As fast as the fires in these buildings were extinguished, they were started again. Mounted patrols and the entire fire department kept rushing from one part of the city to another in efforts to quiet the riots and put down the flances. In several instances police who were attempting to shoot at those wielding torches were set upon by the crowds and disarmed.

Extraordinary processions have been taken by the aut orities to pro tect Count Luvburg, the German minister, when he arrives here today to receive his passports.

All My Troubles--

Said a business man who had just come to his own in a financial way, "Have been due to the fact that I didn't commence-early enough to save money. Opportunities have slipped through my fingers for lack of money; my progress has been retarded because I was so long learning the value of a dollar. I could have been independent years ago had I been a money saver in my youth."
