

LIFTING SPIRITS BACK TO LEVEL OF WORLD'S HAPPINESS HEALTH

Be Energetic, Not Languid—A Lot of People Apparently Think It Can't Be Done.

Contentment is the very essence of happiness. But, to be contented, or happy, if you will, one must first have good health.

Our supreme toast to the one we admire is "Health, wealth and happiness," and the keystone is health. So many persons complain of being nervous and rundown. This is the age of speed, we haven't time to care for ourselves. These rundown men and women are not exactly sick, but just tired out, languid, or maybe good-for-nothing most of the time; their business, their home and their life suffer. They need something to build them up, something to throw off these symptoms of a weakened, debilitated condition produced by either mental or physical overwork, or by the abuse of a vital organ—more often the stomach than any other.

That something has been found. It is Peplac. A tonic of rare properties an appetizer and invigorant that rids the system of congestion, tones the stomach, overcomes indigestion, head aches, backaches, non-assimilation of food, nervousness, dizziness, ailments of kidneys and liver, and the common ailments that are so common to half sick, debilitated men and women of today.

Its effect is like lifting your spirits gently back to the level of the world's happiness that rests on health.

Peplac is being especially introduced at the Bellamy Drug Store by Col. William Dwyer, the Peplac Expert. There he explains daily to hundreds of men and women the merits of this highly endorsed medicine; how it should be taken and the results that may be expected from its use, or learn at first hand from any of the following drug stores:

THEATRE

A theatrical treat out of the beaten path is promised at the Academy of Music next Tuesday, when the famous "Hans and Fritz," creations of R. Dirks, the noted cartoonist, will be the light of stage form. The latest offering which is the work of that successful manager and purveyor of amusements, Gus Hill, is in three acts and three scenes. It contains, in addition to an absorbing and irresistibly hilarious plot, many unique features, exclusive musical numbers and song hits, and a scenic investiture of more than ordinary proportions. Three acts are required to tell of the adventures of the two incorrigible youngsters. There will be a special matinee at 3:30, the prices will be 25 cents for children and 50 cents for adults. The night prices will range from 50 cents to $1. The tickets will go on sale Monday morning at Elvington's.

A MERRY MIX-UP.

The third and last big bill of the week will be presented for today and tomorrow at the Royal by Bobby Jarvis and his musical comedy company.

"Her Husband's Sweetheart" is the title of this piece, and it is a merry mix-up involving all the principals in the cast in many difficulties. Bobby Jarvis in his inimitable blackface role in this production, is afforded his very greatest opportunity. In endeavoring to straighten out tangles of his "white folks" he not only involves them in deeper troubles but gets in head over heels himself.

Earl and Root, those sterling entertainers, have a big surprise song and dance act that they will present for today and tomorrow that will undoubtedly make the biggest hit yet.

"THE SERPENT'S TOOTH"

Gail Kane, who is starred in a new American-Mutual photoplay production, "The Serpent's Tooth," is known among her professional friends as "Beauty Brown Eyes."

Miss Kane was one of the best known leading women in the country when President John R. Freuler, of the Mutual Film Corporation, signed her on a contract for a series of star productions which are now being filmed.

The young star's most notable speaking stage successes were in "Seven Keys to Baldpate," George Cohan's biggest Broadway hit, "Decorating Clementina," "The Model," "Anatole," and "The Miracle Man."

The story in brief is as follows: In a sleepy New England town, Faith Channing and Jack Stilling, grow up together. He becomes a doctor, but, being poor, does not declare his love for Faith, who weds Jim Windup, a wealthy youth. Windup tires of Faith, neglects and is faithless to her, and after a long session of dissipation, dies. Then Faith turns to Dr. Stilling and is happy.

INSIDE AND OUT

Mere exterior superiority in clothing can no more accomplish satisfaction than can a marble facade make a fine structure.

The merit of HIGH ART CLOTHES MADE BY STROUSE & BROS., INC., BALTIMORE, MD.

is more than skin deep. Added to the well-known high quality of fabric and tailoring in these clothes is that big factor of linings and trimmings.

Be introspective—look beneath the surface for the quality of your Fall suit.

"High Art Clothes" measure up to the most exacting specifications.

(By United Press.)
Casper, Wyo., Oct. 10. — "Resolved, that we, descendants of Swedish parentage, petition to our friends and relatives in the home country to not be fooled by the Swedish Kaiser, but to step down and out as they, like other dogs have all had their day."
This was the answer of the large Swedish-American population of this city to Secretary Lansing's recent revelation of Swedish intrigue.
The petition, bearing several hundred names, has been duly forwarded to the "fatherland."
Big American Factory Closed.
Petrograd, Tuesday, Oct. 12.—The Singer Sewing Machine Company, an American concern, has notified the war ministry that it is closing its big factory at Podolsk, near Moscow. The factory employs 3,700 operatives. The suspension is due, according to the company, to the workmen's demands and the losses caused by the war.
