THEATRE

What makes the engagement of Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival at the Academy of Music, matinee and night, on next Friday, of far more importance than that of possibly any other attraction, is the tremendous message it conveys from "somewhere in the Atlantic." It comes from Uncle Sam's new navy to the nation whose bulwark that navy is in these momentous days of the great world war. It depicts the swiftest things that the human race has ever put in motion—the big projectiles hurled from our superdreadnaughts at a pressure of 40,000 pounds per square inch—at heat at which diamonds melt and carbon boils. Howe's reproduction shows broadside after broadside of these projectiles fired from our floating fortresses stripped for action.

Still another subject—and one of the most impressive Mr. Howe has shown—imparts a graphic conception of what London sees during a Zeppelin raid. This is a "trick" film made by a gifted artist who was an observer of a real aerial encounter.

Our own Great West also contributes two remarkable subjects to Howe's new production. And as for humor, the new comedy cartoons in the opinion of a reviewer, are "enough to outfit a whole season of plays." The matinee prices will be 25 cents and 35 cents and children 15 cents. The night prices will be from 25 cents to 50 cents. (Patriotic War Tax extra). Tickets will go on sale Thursday at Elvington's.

"YOU'RE IN LOVE"

Rarely lightning strikes twice in the same place, and more seldom still does it happen that a combination of producer, author and composer of musical comedy hit the bull's eye of popular approval more than once with the same degree of accurate judgment. It is, therefore, a matter of singular and agreeable surprise to find that in "You're in Love," Manager Hammerstein measured the genius of Otto Hauerbach and Rudolf Friml to such a nicey that "Kalinka," "High Jinks" and "The Firefly" admirers, who are legion, found another entertainment upon which to lavish unstinted praise.

Mr. Hammerstein will offer "You're in Love" with all its fine elements of subtle comedy, entrancing melodies and delightful novelty, at the Academy of Music next Saturday, matinee and night, and it goes without saying that a wholly dependable cast and chorus of special distinction are features to count upon without reservation. The matinee prices will be from 25 cents to $1.50. The night prices will range from 75 cents to $2. (Patriotic War Tax extra). Tickets will go on sale Friday morning at Elvington's.

William Fox has pictured this great novel in a six reel motion picture production, one of the really big features of the year, to be presented at the Grand tomorrow, and it will find its way into the heart of every one in the audience the same as did the novel. In the title role that renowned and talented Dustin Farnum has been played, and he is surrounded by a notable cast of players including beautiful Winnifred Kingston, William Conklin and Frank Lanning in the three principal roles.

A woman's reputation is the prize for which the hero fights in this magnificent photoplay, a vibrant story of love amid the snows, filled with simple paths and tense situations. A beautiful girl, pursued by the evil rumors which a designing suitor has circulated, gives up home and happiness to the peace among the snows of the Northwest. There she meets the hero of this story which deals with the marriage of a man to a woman whose reputation has been sullied by the evil designs of another.

Beautiful and magnificent snow scenes among the Canadian Rockies add to the charm of this magnificent photoplay.

NEW ATTENDANCE RECORD.

All attendance records at the Royal for a single day were smashed yesterday on the initial appearance of Holcroft's Hawaiian Serenaders, the crowds overflowing into the street before the night show had started. The Royal has never offered a superior attraction, and it is one that is singularly marked degree.

The ukulele really comes into its own, and there are selections by all numbers imaginable. The real Hula dance, too, is interpreted by a young lady of the Isle of Sunshine. The company will remain here during the whole week, presenting a change of program Wednesday and Friday, and there is promise of the Royal establishing new attendance records during this stay.

Solos, duets, trios, quartets and sextettes in a wide variety, both vocal and instrumental, presented that soulful, dreamy music that only native Hawaiians know how to make. The whole is a musical extravaganza of rare merit and appeal. Loud and insistent applause answered every individual effort, and especially noticeable was the encore accorded the Royal Hawaiian Sextette on their several appearances. The two little Hawaiian girls are especially charming and their execution of the weird, singular native dance that has before been imitated, but never equaled, was one of the most pleasing effects of the performance. It is a musical show—with emphasis on the music, and those who like such will undoubtedly appreciate it.

Few Drops on a Corn or Callus

Instantly stops pain and they lift right off with fingers.

Yes! You truly can lift off every hard corn, soft corn or corn between the toes, as well as hardened calluses on bottom of feet, without one bit of pain.

A genius in Cincinnati discovered freezone. It is an ether compound and tiny bottles of this magic fluid can now be had at any drug store for a few cents.

Apply several drops of this freezone upon a tender, aching corn or a callus. Instantly all soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so shriveled and loose that you lift it off with the fingers. You feel no pain while applying freezone or afterwards.

Just think! No more corns or calluses to torture you and they go without causing one twinge of pain or soreness. Keep a tiny bottle on the dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice.—Adv.

Screenland

By Ogden Lawrence

ELIZABETH JANES, the adorable six-year-old, who is the companion of Harry Carey, the daring hero of Butterfly Western pictures, in many of his most hazardous exploits is a remarkable child in more than one respect. She is an accomplished screen player, as anybody will admit who has seen her register all the emotions in a manner to excite the envy of many an actress with years of experience. She can ride a pony like a veteran cowboy and seems absolutely fearless in the most dangerous situations. In addition, this tiny tot is a wonderful swimmer, her prowess having won her many medals. In fact, she is well known along the California coast resorts as "The Bimini Seal," having gained the nickname by diving into the ocean from a considerable height, her feet tied together and her hands bound securely to her sides, and swimming ashore like a seal. Carey is Elizabeth's hero, and the two are great friends. Indeed, her greatest ambition is to become his leading lady when she grows up.

ONE OF THE PERILS

Emily Stevens has found out that one of the perils which a movie star may be called upon to undergo is the danger of being struck by lightning. She was riding along a New Jersey road when a long-awaited rainstorm the other night, the camera being trained on her touring car, when there was a blinding flash and a bolt of lightning struck a large tree close to the automobile. A large branch of the tree fell across the front part of the car, the top being just strong enough to withstand the impact. Nobody was injured, but Miss Stevens' escape was miraculous. Thanks for the miracle.

JACK'S ANNIVERSARY

Jack Cohn, known the country over among exhibitors who show news films, celebrated an anniversary last Thursday. The date marked the close of his fifth year as editor-in-chief of the Universal weekly news service. During that time he has succeeded in making the Animated Weekly, Current Events and the Screen Magazine three of the most profitable film specialties handled by the big parent organization. His success lies in the fact that he has a remarkably keen

BIG COTTON CROP.

Robeson Farmers are Prosperous—(Special to The Dispatch.)

Maxton, N. C., Nov. 13.—Mrs. John Morrison, while about her yard at her home on Academy street, fell and broke her arm near the shoulder Saturday.

The increased price of cotton this season has been an inestimable boon to this section, where poor crops have been the rule for several years past. Merchants state that they are receiving settlements for bills that are in some cases eight and 19 years old. In addition to price the number of bales of cotton also show an increase, being 20 per cent more than 25,000 bales, gained in Robeson as against 14,000 last year to date.

Miss Maude McRae visited Columbia on Friday to attend a dance given to the officers of the machine gun bat-alien. At St. Paul's Methodist church on Sunday Rev. A. L. Ormond preached a special missionary sermon with a collection for the Women's Missionary Society.

Among those who visited Maxton to attend the funeral of Mr. A. L. Jones were Miss Emma Williams, Whitehead; Capt. W. H. Payne, Ellenton; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Thompson, McCall, S. C.; W. M. Jones, Hasty; Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Kimmon, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McRae.

Mr. J. C. Kees, of Greensboro, is pharmacist at the McCall Drug Store. Lonnie McKay, a brother of the proprietor, has arrived to take a position as clerk in the McCall Drug Store.
