THEATRE

Otto Hauerbach, Edward Clark and Rudolph Friml, under the executive guidance of Arthur Hammerstein, were fortunate indeed in following so close upon the heels of "Katinka," "High Jinks" and "The Firefly," for which Messrs. Hauerbach and Friml had contributed the books and music, with another equally successful offering in the realm of musical comedy. "You're in Love" is the assertive title of the more than favorable latest attempt on the part of this wonderful combination of genius, and the visit here of their joyous mixture of fun, music and novelty next Saturday matinee and night at the Academy of Music cannot fail to be an impressive occasion.

Again does "You're in Love" demonstrate an exalted standard of a class of entertainment which comes nearest to satisfying the masses, who during this particular crisis are in a most respective mood to welcome a flow of comedy and a feast of song by a brilliant assembly. The matinee prices will range from 50 cents to $1.50. Night prices will be from 75 cents to $2. (War tax extra.) Tickets will go on sale at Elvington's tomorrow morning.

LYMAN H. HOWE'S NEW PRODUCTION.

After the many exhibitions given here by Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival all lovers of clean, clever and wholesome entertainment know that there is a distinction about it that is not approached by any other exhibition. Therefore it is a pleasure to welcome its return engagement at the Academy of Music, matinee and night, on tomorrow, with an entirely new production, foremost of which is an elaborate feature of national importance. It comes direct from "Somewhere in the Atlantic" with Uncle Sam's new navy and shows our T-10s of the deep, alert and aligned for instant action. Closely related to this subject is another film which shows in detail the rigorous training and rigid discipline of midshipmen at the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, which develops them into such splendid naval officers. Another film shows in "trick" photography an imaginary conflict in the clouds above London between a British airman and a raiding Zeppelin which ends in disaster for the latter. Other subjects show the tense moments of broncho-breaking contests; the perilous ascent of Mt. Blanc in the Alps; a delightful trip through the Cascade Mountains in Washington. Besides, there is a new collection of Howe's delightful comedy cartoons. The matinee prices will be 25 cents and 35 cents; children 15 cents to any seat. Night prices will be from 25 cents to 50 cents. (War Tax Extra.) Tickets will go on sale tomorrow morning at Elvington's.

A GOLDWYN COMEDY.

Wyn Pictures. Margaret Mayo's Wyn Pictures. Margaret Mayo's screaming farce, "Baby Mine," which is the attraction at the Grand next Monday and Tuesday introduces a new star in motion pictures. She is Madge Kennedy, the famous comedienne of "Twin Beds," "Fair and Warner" and other stage productions that have been big successes. Miss Kennedy plays the role of Zoie in the picture presentation of the comedy which in stage form had a run of nearly two seasons in New York.

YORK

Zoie is a light-hearted bride whose yearning for suppers and theatres leads her uncompromising young husband to abandon her. Her scheme to get him back furnishes the situations around which the comedy revolves. After he has been away for some months, Zoie causes his return with an announcement that a baby boy has come to the household. There is no such thing, but Zoie proposes to get one from a children's home.

But Alfred, the husband, played by Frank Morgan, gets home sooner than expected. There is no baby on hand, and Jimmie, Alfred's friend (John Cumberland) who is brought into the plot by Zoie, steals a baby from the foundling home.

The mother of the stolen child is soon in pursuit of her baby, so while Alfred is rejoicing over the arrival of an heir, it becomes necessary for Jimmie to get another baby. He "borrows" one of the washerwoman's twins and, the first baby not having been returned, Alfred is told that he is the father of twins. The resulting complications make all the fun.

A SUPERB FEATURE.

Tomorrow the Grand makes a presentation of a superb feature which should be the biggest attraction of the entire week—considering the fact that it is to be presented at regular admission prices.

"Skinner's Dress Suit." How many thousands remember this great story which ran in The Saturday Evening Post. One of the most unique pieces of literature ever printed, from the pen of Henry Irving Dodson. It was a masterpiece of serio-comic novel writing, and made a sensational hit all over the civilized globe.

Bryant Washburn, who could imagine a better role for him than that of Skibby in this story Hazel "Honey" Daly, who could imagine one better suited to play opposite him to the principle female role? Hazel Daly is one of the most winsome, sweetest and most alluring young ladies on the screen today.

"Skinner's Dress Suit" with deftness to every detail, has been made in six reels of entrancing photoplay that is absolutely clean, has humor all the way through, and the management absolutely guarantees everyone to enjoy it as much as any production of the week, regardless of price. It is an Essanay production, which alone is a guarantee of its worth. Essanay produced "On Trial" and you know what that was.

MAY STAGE GREATEST COME-BACK.

If Eddie Plank makes good his threat, he will stage the greatest come-back of baseball history. At 42, it is his intention to re-enter the game. As he retired only last year it should not be a difficult matter to get in condition. Maybe he is jealous of his old side-partner, Chief Bender, who made such a great record with the Phillies last year.

RIGGS DISEASE CAUSED BY BUGS

New York, N. Y.—According to Dr. Woods Hutchinson pronounced by the Hearst newspapers as the world's foremost writer on medical subjects, "three-fourths of us over the age of thirty years have riggs disease, and that its cause is due to germs or cili bugs." We don't know Dr. Hutchinson, but the following distinctive features are observable in the treatment of riggs disease by patients using pyorrig: The progress of the disease is promptly arrested and soon stopped. The color of the gums is restored to a healthy pink condition in the course of a few days. Undue redness of gums disappears. Inflammation, soreness and sensitiveness disappear. Gums build up and fill out, receding stops. Separated teeth come together. Loose teeth tighten up and bleeding of gums ceases. Pyorrig is a new prescription specially for riggs disease which comes in the form of a medicated massage unguentum which stays where it is put, unaffected by saliva and is being dispensed in original packages, price one dollar, at best drug stores, including Jarman & Futrell in Wilmington.—Adv

Screenland
By Ogden Lawrence

EVER notice how many of the leading men of the films who are extremely popular with the ladies have long, luxuriant shooks of dark hair immediately surmounting their lofty brows? Yes, there are a lot of 'em. There is Francis X. Bushman, for instance, and Carlyle Blackwell, and William Stowell. These three are all veritable lady-killers and in spite of—or because of—their long locks they are all good-looking. Moreover, they are all good actors. But Stowell has yet another claim to distinction. He can play a piano—just eat it, as the saying is. In one of his more recent pictures, "Hell Morgan's Girl," he played the part of a down-and-out, who got another chance through his ability to play the piano. Since the picture was first shown, Stowell has received many letters, some of them from prominent musicians, complimenting him on the fact that the "action" in his piano-playing scenes was so realistic. The writers little knew how easily the "realism" was achieved.

WILLIAM STOWELL
beautiful classic dancers appeared. While the young ladies, appropriately attired in filmy costume, were dancing and prancing at the edge of a lake several of them accidentally fell in. They became mermaids—and got away with it.

CHARLEY OUGHT TO KNOW

Charley Gunn says that for real thrills moving pictures have matinee idling "backed clean off the boards." He speaks from a vivid experience, having recently performed the little stunt of having a live rattlesnake coiled around his bare chest while the reptile's head was shot off with a 45-calibre revolver. "Never in my life have I been so frightened and I hope I may never be again," said Gunn after it was all over and the director was congratulating him on his steady nerves. "The William Tell part is easy—all in the day's work—but when you have to make a chum of a fourteen-foot Texas rattler (Charley thought it was that long), why, I still wake up in the night and think of its affectionate embrace."

DANCERS, PRESTO, MERMAIDS!

It's a good director who can have an accident happen in the course of the production and immediately turn it to good purpose without stopping the camera or otherwise interrupting the action of the piece. That's what Director Noel Smith did cut in L-Ko Land recently. He was just shooting a comedy that centered around a dancing school, in which a number of

ELSIE JOINS THE "ARMY"

At her home, at her studio in Fort Lee, N. J., and at the offices of Aircraft, her employers, many letters have been received for Elsie Ferguson from enthusiastic admirers. In her endeavor to answer this mass of correspondence (so her valet's press agent says) Miss Ferguson soon found it necessary to follow the example of Mary Pickford, Theda Bara, Doug Fairbanks and others and hire an extra secretary.

They are planning to move all the buildings back from the shore at the California Beach resort, "Fatty" Arbuckle and Lupine Clark are arranging a swimming race.
