FACTS BY SOLDIER AT FORT CASWELL

Private Fowler Took Peplac and Claims He Gained Six Pounds On It

"Don't let your system become a slacker." If you need "pep" take Peplac. That's the popular saying among the real fighting sons of Uncle Sam stationed at Fort Caswell, N. C. "And these boys know whereof they speak," explained Col. Dwyer after paying a visit to Southport where he had the pleasure of talking with quite a few Sammies. To verify his story of the sentiment of the Fort Caswell soldiers as regards Peplac, the Colonel offered the signed statement of Hilliard Fowler, a private in Sixth Company, C. A. C., which read as follows: "From a single bottle of Peplac I have gained exactly six pounds. My sleep could not be better than it is since I started on this Peplac. Also I have a hearty appetite, and I have been relieved of a bad case of kidney trouble."

"Before taking Peplac however, mine was a different story. For five years—I suffered from kidney trouble. I tried lots of medicines but none of them helped me. My appetite and sleep were not good. I oftentimes suffered with terrible pains in my back and no matter what I tried I could not get any relief."

"This Peplac sure has helped me and I am continuing on it. I recommend Peplac for what it has done for me and hope that it will find its way to all suffering people."

As to Private Fowler's story, Col. Dwyer said: "The saying 'Don't let your system become a slacker.' If you need 'Pep' take Peplac!" also applies to the citizenry of this section. I can talk at length on what Peplac will do but my advice to men and women in search of relief from stomach and kidney ills, nervousness and blood impurities and indigestion, also those wanting better appetites, increased strength and energy, more weight and sound and restful sleep is to visit the Bellamy Drug Store and hear the stories about Peplac's work that are told me every day by those who have put Peplac to the test."

Peplac is sold in Wilmington at the Bellamy Drug Store, and at all other leading drug stores and in neighboring towns. Ask your druggist.—Adv.

THEATRE

Manager George W. Bailey edifies all former road attractions in offering Bell's Famous Hawaiians. This company opens their engagement at the Academy of Music for one day only on Monday, December 3.

To a full stage setting of Hawaiian scenery, this company of real Hawaiians will present a musical satire in two parts. Their repertoire will include such national Hawaiian successes as "Alalo Oe," "Mauna Kea Ala," "Maui of Honolulu," "Forget Me Not," "Mai Pun Oau," "Honolulu Hula Girl," "Weli Weli Wai," "Honolulu Tomboy," and numerous other offerings representing Hawaiian musical art. Popular American numbers will also be presented. Native Hawaiian dances will be given by Princess Lehula, Hawaii's premier dancer.

Those who love wonderful music and beautiful scenery will appreciate the offering by these Hawaiians. The prices will be 50 cents, 75 cents and $1. will the first four rows at $1.50. Tickets will go on sale at Elvington's tomorrow morning.

A SCREAM.

You fortunate one who visited the Grand on a Friday, some two weeks ago, and witnessed the presentation of "Skinner's Dress Suit," the celebrated Henry Irving Dodge story starring Bryant Washburn and Hazel ("Honey") Daley in the leading roles have a still bigger treat coming Saturday in the presentation of its successor, "Skinner's Baby," one of the greatest film masterpieces in which Bryant Washburn ever starred.

You can imagine the antics of this inimitable couple, "Skinner" and his fascinating little wife, "Honey," over the first baby. It's a continual scream from beginning to end, and is one of the real film masterpieces of the year, combining both pathos and comedy in a ratio that will prove most pleasing.

MAXINE ELLIOTT.

In the big motion picture production, "Fighting Odds" written by Roi Cooper Megrue and Irvin S. Cobb, which is presented as the attraction at the Grand theatre Monday and Tuesday, Goldwyn pictures has brought back to American audiences the international favorite and famed beauty, Maxine Elliott, who is making her first appearance as a screen star.

Maxine Elliott has not been seen on the stage in several years. In re-suming dramatic work as a star in motion pictures she has been appropriately equipped with a role which makes demands upon her emotional talents. In emotional possibilities it surpasses anything she has hitherto attempted.

"Fighting Odds" tells a story of big business ventures in the automobile industry. Miss Elliott is seen as the wife of a millionaire manufacturer, a beautiful and loyal woman who, by her wit and her loveliness, brings his powerful enemies to account.

John W. Blake (played by Charles Dalton) plans the ruin of James Conley and eventually has him sent to prison. Mrs. Copley (Maxine Elliott) contrives to trap the unscrupulous Blake, who is the head of great financial forces. Through her beauty she wins his confidence under an assumed name, and finally is able to get the evidence necessary to convict him and free her husband.

Allan Dwan, director of "Fighting Odds" has carried out the ideas of the authors with great care, so that the production is an example of excellent photography and artistic scenic display and lays special emphasis on the dramatic element throughout.
