

CHANGE OF TIME IS ALREADY EFFECTIVE

Clock Hands Went Forward an Hour This Morning at Two

Wilmington, like the remainder of the country, will awake an hour earlier than usual this morning but the clock hands will belie this statement, for they registered the shortest American hour on record this morning at 2 o'clock when they jumped forward 60 minutes, clearing the space while the remainder of the world slept in blissful ignorance of what was transpiring. Many of the clocks hit the double quick late last night while those in the various schools moved forward during the day, prior to the departure of the various janitors to their homes following the day's work, but they were overtaken this morning by their sister and brother clocks and all are running on the same gear today.

The much discussed change has taken place and no one is any the worse off. Rather all are benefited, for an extra hour of daylight is gained, and if there is anything in the old adage that time is money the American nation is considerably richer this morning than it was yesterday.

All schools, Superintendent John J. Blair stated yesterday afternoon, will observe the new time, and it will be necessary for faces to be washed earlier or less carefully tomorrow than it was last week. The churches today are holding services on the new time and the employes of the various firms and industries of the city will catch the sun an hour late tomorrow, or rather they will be supposed to see

PERSONAL MENTION

Capt. B. F. Newton, of Southport, spent yesterday in the city with his brother, Capt. S. D. Newton, No. 210 Walnut street.

Mr. W. H. Willis, who has been visiting relatives at Davis, passed through the city Friday, en route to Camp Jackson.

Albert Murphy, of Davis, was in the city Friday, and left in the afternoon for Camp Jackson to see her brother, who is ill in the hospital there.

Mr. H. D. Lewis, who has been in Wilmington several days purchasing supplies for Battery C. French Motor Battalion, Ft. Caswell, returned to the fort yesterday afternoon.

Mr. George W. Hardwick, formerly of Wilmington, but now a member of the Naval Reserves, at Charleston, spent Friday and Saturday in the city.

Mr. W. B. McClellan left yesterday afternoon for Tenn. to spend a few days.

The idea that confusion would result from the moving forward of the clock hands is heard less and less, and all are now agreed that it makes little difference and that rather than be inconvenienced all will be benefited. There is but one logical thing to do in connection with the new time and that is to forget that the hands of the clock have been tampered with.

Society

Yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer: "Miss Nell Durham, of Wilmington, spent Wednesday in Raleigh en route home after a visit to relatives in Pittsboro."

Mr. W. F. Haskett, Mrs. Dozier Ruark and Miss Laura Louise Harker came up from Southport yesterday to see Mrs. Haskett's brother, Capt. S. D. Newton, who is ill at his home, No. 210 Walnut street.

A meeting of the North Carolina Society of the Colonial Dames of America will be held at the assembly rooms, Wednesday morning, April 3, at 10:30. All members are urged to be present to cast their ballots.

Mr. Rufus S. Freeman, president of the Freeman Advertising Agency, Richmond, Va., one of the best known and most prominent advertising agencies in the South, is spending a few days in the city on business. He is the guest of his brother, Mr. A. L. Freeman.

ENTERTAIN FOR VISITORS.

Mrs. Alexander and Mrs. Ed Hall entertained a number of young people at the home of Mrs. Alexander, Thursday evening, in honor of Mrs. Morris, of Lynchburg, Va., who is visiting relatives at Winter Park. The home was beautifully decorated in the National colors and all present enjoyed a very pleasant evening. The following were the guest present: Mrs. Morris, Misses Bertha Shinn, Georgia Koonce, Leila Pugh, Lena Middleton, Eunice Maulsby, Laura Howell, Vera Milton, Mary L. McNaull, Elizabeth Hall, Mary Huey, and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Shinn.

MARRIED AT SOUTHPORT.

There was a quiet wedding solemnized at the Methodist Parsonage, at Southport yesterday afternoon, the contracting parties being Sergeant Douglas K. Fagg, stationed at the fort, and Miss Josephine Northrop, of Blacksburg, Va. The ceremony was performed by the Methodist pastor, Sergeant Fagg is with the Hospital corps stationed at the fort, and as it was impossible for him to leave to go to Blacksburg to marry, his bride came to him. For her wedding, the bride wore a brown tailored suit with accessories to match. The young couple will reside at Southport until the groom goes "over there."

THIRD ENTERTAINMENT

The National Special Aid entertained for the third time, all soldiers and sailors in the city, and those who were visitors at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon from 3 to 6:30. The affair was very informal, and all the men who called were made to feel perfectly at home. The lobby and tables were beautifully decorated in trailing yellow jessamine and spirea.

Mrs. Dan Lockfaw had charge of the music for the afternoon.

Mrs. Marshall French sang several selections, and Miss Sibel Messick played. The enlisted men all joined in singing patriotic and popular music. The usual refreshments consisting of cakes, candy, hot chocolate, hot coffee, fruits, and nuts were served and much enjoyed by the boys.

Mrs. D. N. Chadwick was chairman for the afternoon and she was ably assisted by the following ladies: Mrs. Walter Williamson, Mrs. A. M. Waddell and Mrs. Warren G. Elliott of the Central committee; Mrs. W. P. Fletcher, Mrs. J. B. White, Mrs. H. M. Owen, Mrs. J. H. LeGwin, Mrs. James Howard, Mrs. K. W. Price, Mrs. B. N. Figgatt, Mrs. Dan Lockfaw, Mrs. George Leftwich, Mrs. D. Cameron, Mrs. A. W. Elk, and others.

A WHOLE MEAL IN ONE DISH.

We are learning to accommodate our daily menu to the times. The Food Administration is finding a real response to their request for conservation. And housewives are saving—and thus serving the cause of democracy—every day.

For a "one-dish" meal both serves and conserves meat, there is no better than the old-fashioned pot-pie with dumplings. No bread need be served. You can use mutton or veal, with carrots, onions, parsley and plenty of potatoes.

It's just the dish for your family these cool spring days. And these dumplings made of cornmeal and flour are delicious:

Cornmeal Dumplings.
2 level tablespoons Cottonlene.
1-2 cup white or yellow cornmeal
1 cup flour.
1-2 teaspoon salt.
2-1-2 level teaspoons baking powder.

Sift together the flour, cornmeal, salt and baking powder. Rub or chop in the Cottonlene, add milk enough to make a soft dough and drop by tablespoons into the pot-pie. The dumplings should not sink into the gravy but rest on top the meat and other ingredients. Add dumplings when the pot-pie is nearly done. You may then finish by baking with the dumplings in the oven. Or cover the vessel tightly and cook the dumplings on top of the stove.

ORGANIZE THRIFT CLUBS.

A very interesting meeting was held at the Masonboro school house Friday night at 8 o'clock. A program was rendered by the school children, which was gotten up by "The Smiling Club." They gave two original short plays, "Lillie Cottle recited "The Raggedy Man," Doris Hewlett sang, "Sleep Baby, Sleep;" Dorothy Teachey recited "The Red, White and Blue."

The Community Service League held a short business session, hearing reports on the various departments of their work. The meeting was then turned over to Mr. J. O.

Brown, who introduced the various speakers of the evening. The following made short addresses: Messrs. J. A. McNorton, C. VanLeuven, J. P. Herring, Mr. Freeman and Mrs. J. C. Pretlow. Two War Savings Stamp Societies were organized—one among the men and one among the women. Mr. J. A. Orrell was made president of the men's society, and Mr. Addison Hewlett, secretary. The women elected the following officers: Mrs. Frank Farrow, president, and Miss Alma Padrick, secretary. The Women's War Society will have their first meeting Wednesday afternoon at the Masonboro school house and the Domestic Science club will serve biscuit and cocoa which they have learned to make.

GOLDSBORO.

Goldsboro, N. C., March 30.—The residence of Mrs. Lillian D. Wooten was the scene of an enjoyable social event Thursday evening when several young friends of her son, Sterling Wooten, at home for the holidays from Oak Ridge Institute, gave the latter a surprise party, which was at the same time a re-union of old school friends from different schools. After two of three hours spent in dancing and other amusements refreshments were served. Those present were Miss Julia Maie Southerland with John Norwood, Miss Emma Britt with William Armstrong, Miss Helen Minor with Norwood Bizzell, Miss Margaret Edmundson with John Lashley, Miss Elsie Lee Kornegay with William Creech, Miss Doris Crawford with Solly Epstein, Miss Maude Eason with Oliver Allen, Miss Isabel Faison with George Crone, Miss Elizabeth Gibson with Norwood Holmes, Charles Creech and Julius Eason.

Mrs. J. W. Bowlan has returned to the city from Greenville, S. C., where she was called by the illness of her mother. She was accompanied to Goldsboro on a visit by her sister, Miss Sue Thompson.

William Bordon Cobb, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Cobb, who some months ago enlisted under the colors, has been assigned to service in the gas defensive division and is at present on duty in New York in training. The Bright Jewels of St. Paul Methodist church held their mite box opening and party this week which proved a most enjoyable social event and was largely attended.

Miss Clara Hinson was the guest of honor Thursday evening, at her home on Elm street in honor of her sixteenth anniversary. The living room, parlor and dining room were beautifully decorated in green and yellow, carrying out the color scheme. The hostess, in a most charming manner, met the guests at the door and they were ushered into the parlor, where a part of the evening was spent in interesting games and music. Later in the evening a contest was enjoyed, the prize a box of candy, being awarded to William Chestnut. The hostess then invited the guests into the dining room where ice cream, cake and punch was served.

Lieut. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Royall arrived in Goldsboro Friday to spend Easter with the former's father, Mr. Geo. C. Royall.

At the Goldsboro First Baptist church Sunday morning immediately after the sermon a "service flag" will be presented showing by its stars the numbers of those from this church who have answered the call to the colors, and whose names will be read out at this presentation.

Mrs. Ida Glover Peterson, formerly of Goldsboro's prominent society leaders, arrived in this city Friday from New Britain, Conn., to spend several days here with friends and relatives. She was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Margaret.

Miss Leah Slaughter has returned to the city from a visit to school friends in Red Springs.

Miss Ethel Ivey, of Seven Springs, is visiting in Goldsboro and while here will be the guest of Mrs. A. E. Simkins.

Mrs. I. C. Bobitt, of Henderson, is visiting at the home here of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Bobitt, on Park Avenue. Lieut. and Mrs. W. R. Cozart, who spent several days with relatives in Goldsboro this week, left Thursday for Fort Riley, Kan., where the former goes to take military training in the medical reserve corps.

Mrs. Allen B. King has returned to the city from several weeks' stay in Augusta, Ga., where she was called owing to the illness and death of her mother in that city last week.

Marcus Edward Bizzell, of this city, a student at the North Carolina University, has been awarded the Topping medal for singing at that institution, which was given by Hon. L. H. Topping, of New York.

J. J. Ham, who is in the military services in the quartermaster department in Jacksonville, Fla., arrived in the city this week to visit his mother, Mrs. Mary H. Ham, who is seriously ill.

Miss Maude Eason, who is attending Greensboro Female College, has arrived in the city to spend Easter
