Not Believed That Germany is Willing to Risk Naval Battle

THE BRITISH FLEET WAS NEVER STRONGER

London Newspaper Discusses Significance of Recent Victories in the Cattegat

London, April 19.—The British naval success against German mine sweepers in the Cattegat recently, says the Daily Telegraph, is sufficient answer to the Germans who say that the British grand fleet is in hiding.

LINE OF MARCH.

The parade will form at the City Hall, Third and Princess streets, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and will move promptly at 4:30, whether everything is in readiness or not.

All details for this afternoon's Liberty Loan parade were worked out at yesterday's meeting of the committees in charge, and Capt. Edwin A. Metts, chief marshal and generalissimo, stated that the parade would move promptly at 4:30 o'clock from the City Hall if there was but one man ready at that time.

NEW YORK SPOT COTTON. New York, April 18.—Spot cotton market: middling 30:30.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON. New Orleans, April 17.—Irregularly prevailed in cotton in the early trading here today. War news was considered unfavorable, but sellers feared unfavorable weekly crop reports from the government.

CHICAGO GRAIN. Chicago, April 19.—Unseasonable cold and other conditions adverse to crop progress had a bullish effect today on corn. Initial quotations, which varied from unchanged figures to half a cent higher, with May 1.27 to 1.27 1/8 and July 1.44 to 1.44 1/4, were followed by a moderate general advance, and then something of a reaction.

"Such a sweep," it adds, "can be made only by a power in real control of the sea confronted by an enemy who will not risk protecting his small craft, suspecting that such intervention might be the prelude to a general action which he desires to avoid."

The newspaper then discusses the theory that the Germans might be inviting naval action near their mine fields and coast defenses and says that all such suggestions have no foundation among those who have knowledge of naval conditions.

"If a naval battle," it continues "could by any possibility have been decided in Germany's favor, she would have saved the necessity of pressing forward her army and would have spared hundreds and thousands of casualties which, on her own confession, she could not afford."
