NEW YORK COTTON

New York, Aril 22-A better weather map than expected and prospects for a favorable week in the belt, pects liquidation and a renewal of more or less general pressure in the cotton market early today. Cables were better than due and the open. ing was irregular, an advance of 10 popints to a decline of 14 popints, but lar. Liberty Bonds were firm. prices soon weakened with July selling off to 28.48 and October to 27.48 during the first few minutes, or 37 to 40 popints net lower. Weather advices indicated heavy rains in the Eastern and Central belts, but did not show themselves as low as expected, and the weekly forecast was for gen erally fair and warmer weather in the

New Orleans, April 22.-Violen and irregular price changes occurred on the opening in cotton here today The market felt a strong demand, mo mentarily on the opening, resulting from the belief that cold weather has damaged the crop over Sunday. Price bulged 6 to 34 points. Failure of the weather map to indicate frost any where in the cotton region, stimulate heavy selling at the advance and July dropped 70 points in a few trades At the end of the first half-hour price were 18 to 50 points under Saturday Cotton closed steady at a declin

Third District Now Has Three Democrats Trying to Go A. C. L. 89 1-2
Gulf States Steel 96 to Congress

Raleigh, N. C., April 22.-At the eleventh hour Colonel Bill Dortch has United Fruit 122 1-8 Va. Car. Chem. 44 1-4 come into the Congressional race in the third district and inevitably the man to be crippled is his townsman, Congressman George E. Hood.

The thing has been puzzling here. Chicago, April 22.—Hogs,, receipts 5,000; slow; bulk 17.10 to 17.65; It had been accepted as settled that Hood would best Abernethy, but the light 17.10 to 17.75; mixed 16.95 to entrance of Colonel Dortch is taken 17.70; heavy 16.10 to 17.35; rough as the best evidence that Mr. Abernethy is making an impressive race. Colonel Dortch holds down the office tive steers 10.85 to 17.25; stockers of marshal and running for office was the last thing expected of him.
