Warsaw.
Warsaw, May 11.—Mesdames Edward Gibson and D. E. Best entertained at dinner in honor of Mrs. Flack, rf. of the Washington, D. C., at the home of their mother, Mrs. T. B. Peirce, on Tuesday evening of last week. The patriotic note was present in both the decorations of red, white and blue flowers, and also in the menu of four courses, the last of which consisted of ices in individual shapes of liberty bells. The guests included the honoree, Mrs. Warden; Mrs. L. Hicks Williams of Faison; Mrs. James Hines, of Greenville; and Mrs. O. B. Eaton of Winston-Salem.
