"WITHIN THE LAW."
 "Within the Law," the screen version of Bayard Veiller's sensational stage success, which was viewed by more than four million theater-goers in the United States and Canada, will open at the Grand Monday.
 As a legitimate stage production, "Within the Law" was a popular attraction and financial success that has made it a high-water mark all producers have been seeking to reach since Selwyn and company demonstrated that more than two million dollars could be forced into theatre box offices through just one play.
 The Mary Turner of "Within the Law" is the department store girl accused of a petty counter theft of which she was not guilty. She was tried, convicted and sent to prison for three years, which she served.

"American Buds"
 Jane and Katherine Lee are to be featured tomorrow at the Grand theatre. They will be seen in a new production, a romantic drama, entitled "American Buds," which depicts Jane in the role of upsetting the plans of a German spy.
 In "American Buds" the William Fox "baby grands" appear as orphans whose parentage is shrouded in mystery. The story deals with this mystery and the effect which it has on the happiness of a young woman. The scenes are laid in an orphanage and in an army camp and the principal occupation of Jane and Katherine, as in their previous productions, "Two Little Imps" and "Trouble-makers," consists of playing pranks that keep every one and everything upset.
