Wrightsville Breezes

Miss Annie Weaver, of Goldston, who has been visiting friends here, returned to her home yesterday evening.

Mrs. G. T. Bland and son, Master George, Jr., of Washington, N. C., are visiting here with Mrs. Bland's sister, Mrs. R. H. Orrell.

Mrs. W. M. Shaw, of Southport, was in the city yesterday, coming to attend the funeral services of Mrs. Virginia G. Emple.

Miss Margaret Royster returned to the city yesterday from Goldsboro, where she spent a week with friends and relatives.

Mrs. H. H. Longley, of Asheville, who has been visiting friends here and on the beach, returned to her home today.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hunt, of Warsaw, spent yesterday in the city, shopping, returning to their home in the afternoon.

Miss Annie McCabe returned to her home in Burgaw yesterday evening after a delightful stay here with friends and relatives.

Miss Louise Taylor, of Wallace, spent yesterday in the city, shopping, returning to her home in the afternoon.

Out of town guests here for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Murphy, of Montgomery, Ala., and Mrs. I. O. Wortman, of Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Babson, of Raleigh, who have been visiting friends here and at Southport, returned to their home this morning.

Miss Martha Thomason, of Raleigh, is spending a period on the beach with friends. She will visit in Southport and at the fort before returning home.

Mrs. and Miss Turner, recently of Southport, who are guests of Mrs. Newkirk, North Second street, will spend some time at Wrightsville Beach before journeying northward.

Mrs. E. Hengeveld, a graduate nurse who is known to many here and who has been stationed at Fort Sam Houston for the past year, has volunteered for service in France, her friends will be interested in knowing.

A hay ride will be given by the women of the Church of the Ascension tonight. Cars will leave Third and Marsteller street at 8:30 o'clock for a trip around the belt. Refreshments will be served after the trip and all are assured a delightful time.

GAYLOR-EDWARDS.
Miss Lina Edwards and Sergeant W. K. Gaylor, stationed at Fort Caswell, were married last night at 9:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Edwards, 308 Church street, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure.

The home had been beautifully and appropriately decorated for the occasion with patriotic colors and ferns. Miss Mae Landon played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin as the bridal party entered the room and as the vows were spoken softly rendered "A Perfect Day." The wedding march by Mendelssohn was played as recessional.

Mrs. I. O. Wortman, of Charlotte, sister of the bride, was dame of honor, and Sergeant W. L. Fisher, of the Ninth company, stationed at Fort Caswell, was best man.

The bride is an accomplished young woman with a pleasing personality that has endeared her to a host of friends. Before answering the call to the colors, Sergeant Gaylor was employed with the cotton exporting firm of Alex. Sprunt & Son. He is a young man of strict integrity and is very popular with all who know him.

WILL ENTERTAIN SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

A cordial invitation is extended to the men in the service, soldiers stationed within the city and the visiting men from the fort and sailors to visit the local Y. M. C. A. on Saturday afternoon, where they will be entertained by members of the Y. W. C. A. from 4:30 to 6:30.

There will be music and refreshments and it is hoped that a large number will be in attendance.

Those who will open their homes to the visiting men on Sunday are requested to phone the Y. M. C. A., 177, before Saturday noon.

In all of the states in which camps are located the state council of national defense has appointed a woman who reports on the recreational and social activities for the soldiers and sailors. At the recent meeting in Washington every chairman reported that each community near camp locations was extending the hospitality of homes and furnishing different forms of entertainment for the men in the service.

Bestow Croix de Guerre.
Roanoke, Va., June 20.—Bestowal of the Croix de Guerre by the French government upon the entire ambulance unit of Washington and Lee university is announced in a letter from Wilson Cook, of Roanoke, a member of the unit, to his father, J. W. Cook, division superintendent of the Norfolk and Western railway.

Committee Meeting Postponed.
Washington, June 20.—Because of the rush of other business which members were interested, the meeting of the senate agriculture committee scheduled for today, at which consideration of the Jones prohibition amendment was to have been taken up, was postponed until tomorrow.

With the mid-week crowd on Lumlina last evening the east pavilions were crowded while the pictures were being shown and seats were at a premium. The pictures are of exceptionally high quality and a varied program is presented each night.

Tonight's bill of movies at Lumlina will be headed by another one of the popular O. Henry features, "The Third Ingredient," from one of the author's widest read stories. "The Detective," a Sparkler comedy, furnishes a quarter of an hour's fun for the windup.

Home Canning.

Washington, June 20.—Home canning will preserve at least 1,500,000, 000 quarts of foodstuffs this year as against 850,000,000 quarts last year, according to a statement today by the department of agriculture.

NAPOLEON ONCE SAID

"A Footsore Army is an Army Half Defeated." Men in training camps, in cantonments, in the army and navy suffer from blisters and sore spots on their feet. Every "Comfort Kit" should contain one or more boxes of Allen's Foot-Paste, the antiseptic powder to shake into the shoes. It freshens the dried, itching, smarting feet and heals blisters and sore spots. The Pittsburgh Camp Manual advises men in training to make use of Foot-Paste. Sold everywhere, 25c.—Adv.

ACTION ON DOUBLING THE YARD'S CAPACITY POSTPONED

Final action on doubling the yards at the Carolina Shipbuilding company has been postponed, according to telegram received from Lorenzo C. Dicks, president of the company, because of the transportation problem. A second conference will be held in Philadelphia during the coming week and in all probability action will be taken at that time. General Manager Raymond Hunt, of the traction company, returned to the city yesterday from Philadelphia, where he attended the conference.

"GERMAN WAR PRACTICES"

An official book of 96 Pages has been issued in Washington under the title of "German War Practice"

A copy of this book will be sent free to any reader of The Dispatch

It sets forth the details of the system that has made Prussianism a word of reproach for generations to come.

It describes specific instances, individual cases, as well as broad policies such as that of Belgian deportation.

It is based on official sources: the archives of the State Department, German official proclamations, reports of American officials, as well as the field diaries of German soldiers.

It contains statements especially prepared by Herbert Hoover, Frederick C. Walcott and Vernon Kellogg.

To get a copy of this free book, fill in the attached coupon and mail with a two-cent stamp for return postage, to The Wilmington Dispatch Information Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, Director, Washington, D. C.
