CAMDEN - The final two suspects in a Sept. 8 home invasion are behind bars.

Bertie County Sheriff John Holley said Jarkeese Rascoe and Brittany Vanhorn were located in Camden Sept. 20 and taken into custody after eluding arrest for more than a week. "They were moving from place to place to avoid apprehension, but we were continuously looking for them," Sheriff Holley said. "I am thankful to the Martin County Sheriff's Office, Williamston Police Department, Camden County Sheriff's Office, Elizabeth City Police Department, N.C. State Bureau of Investigation and task force officers with ATF and FBI. There were countless hours of surveillance which led to several search warrants, and eventually the arrest of these two suspects."

Vanhorn and Rascoe joined suspects Salish Cooper and Marlin Smallwood behind bars charged with a multitude of crimes following the home invasion.

Sheriff Holley said the four were charged following a Sept. 8 break-in on Tony's Lane in Windsor where they reportedly held an elderly homeowner at gunpoint while they removed items from his home.

Deputies arrived at the home and called in investigator Det. Ronald Rascoe began his investigation. The next day Lt. Matt Roebuck joined Det. Rascoe in interviewing the homeowner for a second time.

Later on Sunday, Det. Sgt.

WINDSOR - Take a tour.

As part of the town of Windsor's 250th Anniversary Celebration, a tour of Windsor's historic homes is being offered during the event. The Historic Old Homes Tour is scheduled from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 10.

The self-guided tour will begin at Historic Hope Plantation with a tour of the Hope Mansion and the King-Bazemore House followed by a buffet lunch.

The buffet lunch will be available from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m.

After lunch, participants will be able to 10 more homes and other sites including churches and museums throughout the town.

Owners of each private home will open their doors and welcome guests to take a tour.

Owners will be available to point out architectural details, historical data, information on the original and early owners of the property, as well as how the homes have been updated to meet the demands of modern living. Four of the town's historic churches will be open for participants to tour, learn the history and view the individual churches uniqueness.

The three museums in Windsor- Russell's Back-in-the-Day Museum, Windsor's Farmer's Museum and Wind-
