CULLASAJA COUNCIL NO. 158

Cullasaja Council met on Thursday night, March 3, with the lodge room packed to its capacity.

There were several visitors: Fred Bryson, Earl Rickman, chaplain, and A. J. Rickman, counselor, of Cowee Council No. 493; Ferdie Higdon, of Higdonville, and John Jones of Andrews Council.

All visitors were called upon for a speech. A. J. Rickman and Fred Bryson made interesting and timely talks.

John Gribble, of Cullasaja Council, made an appealing talk about what the order had done and meant to him.

Ferdie Higdon refused the invitation to talk, promising to do so before Chief Bob Henry, in the near future.

Earn Waldrop, highway worker, and A. R. Todd, manager of the A&P store, were introduced into the first degree.

Next Thursday, March 10, there will be in waiting four for the second degree: Fred Arnold, J. H. Carelock, A. R. Todd and Barn Waldrop.

Crude Meadows' name was drawn from the pot, but the dollar remained in the pot as Crude was at home sick. When he learned of his loss, it added more of the "wormwood" to his taste.

An-Go-Itch has been made according to a doctor's prescription and has been found to be the best and simplest treatment for itch. The price is only 50 cents per bottle. Results absolutely guaranteed when used as directed. Prepared and distributed by Angel's Drug Store, Franklin, N. C. Adv.

ing a big "seegar," and no "seconds" at that.

Cowee will have plenty of degree work to do on Saturday evening, March 12. At this time there will be two for 1st degree and several for the 3rd. All Brothers are cordially invited.

The Junior Order is having a revival as well as the churches, this year. Before Christmas the Cullasaja Council drew three blanks, by not having enough present to open up the lodge with; and since Christmas the attendance keeps growing. It looks now, if the good work keeps going, that more chairs for the hall will have to be ordered.

Remember Saturday night, March 12, and go to Cartoogechaye Council No. 240. Music and cats are on the program—and they know what cats are up on the waters of Cartoogechaye; and the famous Caba string band knows music.

Lots of the brothers bought lespedeza seeds at the cooperative buying. There sure is a lot in names—one brother told me that lespedeza was only an improved Japan clover. It seems as if the whole world is against anything with the handle Japan attached; thus it is a logical thing to call this new imported seed lespedeza.

Brother Sanford E. Mann of Otto Council No. 260, has set sail out onto the sea of matrimony. We wish Brother Mann and Mrs. Mann many happy years of marriage bliss.

Anyone of the Three Was Sufficient

By IRVIN S. COBB

ANY man who travels abroad has got his hands full watching his baggage. I guess that's one reason why I like this story of the New Yorker who was traveling through Scotland. At Edinburgh he negotiated with a braw Scott to meet him at a certain train and leave the duffie into his reservation. Arriving late he swung aboard, found the compartment without luggage and threw open the window. The train started just as he caught sight of his bags piled on the platform beside the porter.

"Why the devil isn't my baggage in this compartment?" he shouted. "Well," spoke up the Scott, "for the reasons which I'll tell yer. In the first place I just arrived here. In the second place, yer in the wrong train here, and in the third place, yer in the wrong train."
