Mrs. Siler Named Gardens Club Head

Mrs. Grady Siler was elected to the presidency of the Franklin Gardens Club to succeed Mrs. D. D. Rice, who resigned, at a meeting last week at the home of Mrs. F. S. Johnston. Sixteen members were present.

It was suggested that the young people of Franklin be urged to plant gardens and that a prize be offered for the best garden. But with cold weather coming on, meetings of the club will be discontinued until March, 1933. In the meantime, all who are interested in flowers are invited to join the club and to prepare now for a fine exhibit at the next flower show.

Miss Elizabeth Deal left the latter part of last week for Western Carolina Teachers' College where she will continue work toward a B. S. degree.

William Valentine and two daughters, Misses Edna and Ethel Valentine, and sister, Miss Mary Valentine, of Spring Hope, spent last week here with their brother, H. L. Valentine and Mrs. Valentine, at their home on Iotla street.

A. B. Omohundro, of Gatlinburg, Tenn., spent the week-end here with Mrs. Omohundro, who is spending some time here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Barnard.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cunningham and children left Sunday for their home in Winston-Salem, after spending a week with Mr. Cunningham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cunningham, on Route 1.

Miss Betty Sloan after spending several weeks here visiting her mother, Mrs. W. W. Sloan, returned to New York last Saturday.

Dan and T. C. Bryson, of Sylva, were her to attend the funeral of J. K. Bryson at Sugarfork Sunday afternoon.
