

St. Agnes Episcopal Church
FRANKLIN, N. C.
Rev. Norvin C. Duncan,
Rector

SUNDAY, JULY 16
11 a. m.—Holy Communion and sermon.

FRIDAY
10 A. M.—Prayer service.

Church
Of the Incarnation
HIGHLANDS, N. C.
11 a. m.—Morning prayer and sermon.

West's Mill

A two-weeks revival has just closed here at the Baptist church, conducted by Revs. Mayberry and Connor.

Master Wayne Parrish, of Bryson, is spending this week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Morgan.

Clyde N. West went to Raleigh on business Tuesday and returned home Thursday.

Miss Mary Elmore is visiting relatives at Hendersonville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Matlock, also Mr. Ora and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Matlock spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Matlock.

Will Marr, of Bryson City, was here on business Tuesday.

Mrs. Charlie Grant, of East Lenoir, Misses Ruth Smith and Marjorie Porte, spent two weeks here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Loren Crisp.

Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Tabor, of Bryson, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thom Welch.

Miss Volley Mae West is at home on a vacation from Cincinnati, Ohio.

West have just returned home from a week's visit to relatives and friends at Cullowhee.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Hinner, of Goldsboro, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. N. West and other friends here last Thursday, Friday and Saturday, returning to Goldsboro Sunday.

Vernon Sheffield has gone to Canton to visit relatives.

The following ladies from here attended the Western North Carolina Woman's Missionary Society at the Franklin Methodist church last Wednesday: Mrs. John Dalton, Mrs. J. L. Smith, Miss Vennie West, Mrs. Fred McGaha, Miss Grace McGaha and Mrs. J. B. Matlock.

SUBSCRIBE TODAY TO YOUR HOME PAPER

BY REV. NORVIN C. DUNCAN

Last spring, when I was in Lincoln, I was driving toward town one afternoon, when I noticed just ahead of me an old model Ford, which seemed to be having some difficulty in climbing a hill. Finally it stopped, just before reaching the summit. I pulled up beside it, and got out to inquire if I could be of any service. There were two ladies and a number of children in the car. On the right fender was a pretty young girl who might have stepped out of a fairy story—a living embodiment of girlhood's sweet and winsome graces. In the rear seat was a mother with several children. In the driver's seat was a young lady—named Ruby—and appropriate, for she is a jewel. When I approached to offer assistance, she introduced me to all the occupants of the car, and informed me that their gas supply had given out. Her manner was gracious, and with a quiet dignity she sat there as well-poised and as much at ease as if she were in a limousine. She was as much at home here, with charming graciousness, as a hostess in a drawing room. One forgot whether this car, borrowed for the jaunt, was an old model Ford, or a big new Lincoln. What impressed me so was character. Here was a young person who had character enough to transform the things around her; and that young woman can travel the world over in safety. Her character compels respect. A lot of people are crazy enough to think that clothes, or money, or limousines make the man. It is the other way around—character gives new values to things.

This girl has a brother, a comparatively young man, who has a wife and three fine children. He is as fine a man as I have ever known. He chose farming as his life work, because he loved it. By his own labor he has brought to his farm home the conveniences of the city. It is a pleasure to watch him on the farm, because he works intelligently, and with joy in the task. He is splendidly masculine, yet high-minded, clean, hospitable. One walks beside him at the plow as conscious of the gentleman as if one sat in a clubroom. Honest and industrious, he is the type of man that has made America great. Every time I visit him, I think of Burns' poem—"A man's a man for a' that."

What we need today is not more money, more buildings, more laws, but more men and women of character.

Broadway

Alec Garland, of Tesenta, spent a part of this week at the home of John Brown.

Furman and Sexton Vinson, of Dillard, Ga., made a business trip to Broadway Tuesday.

Mrs. B. Wilson and Miss Nellie Wilson were business visitors in Highlands Thursday.

A number of young folks attended church on Tesenta Sunday.

Gracie Smith was at Andy Wilson's Sunday.

John Brown made a business trip to Tesenta Monday.

Carl Vinson is in this section hoeing cabbage and preparing ground to set cabbage.

Crops are looking fine since the nice showers of rain.

Mrs. Dehlia and Miss Jennie Talley were visiting at Andy Wilson's Sunday.

Shookville

Richard Miller, of Cullowhee, has recently been visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Eugene Henderson and children, of Erastus, spent the week-end with Mrs. Henderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Shook.

Miss Lattie Talley, of Highlands, is the guest of Miss Leonia Rogers.

Miss Lorena Huston, and brother, Frank, of Shortoff, have recently been visiting at the home of Mrs. Amanda Bolick.

A. C. Barnes has returned home after spending several days with his son, Jim Barnes, of Flats.

Mrs. Carl Bolick and children have recently been visiting home folks on Walnut Creek.

Earl McCoy and Lee Phillip, of Westminster, S. C., spent last week-end visiting here.

AUCTION SALE

OF LAND

HIGHLANDS, N. C.

Sale Conducted by
Penny Brothers

The World's Twin Auctioneers

THURSDAY, JULY 20th
10:30 A. M.

Consisting of twenty-four tracts of land, well shaded, a short distance from the heart of the city. Also the Charlie Brooks Dwelling on Main Street and the E. W. Rogers Home on North Fourth Street. This property should meet the approval of the most exacting. Valuable prizes to be given away.

Music by a Live Wire Band

J. Q. PIERSON, Owner

(If you have land to sell, address J. C. Penny, Charlotte, N. C.)