Officers' Lodge Finished; Camp Grounds Beautified Macon County.

BY GRANVILLE LILES (Representative of The Press in C. C. Camp No. 9)

Tuesday saw the first occupancy of Kauffman Lodge, which will be used as quarters by the officers staff of C. C. Camp No. 9.

The lodge, built under the direction of Lieutenant Pickell, construction officer, was named in honor of Captain Frank E. Kauffman, camp commander. It occupies a picturesque spot on the side of the hill rising back of the camp. From here a magnificent view of the entire camp and the distant mountains is had. The lodge is a large log building and, as Captain Kauffman remarked, "It's a very pretty cabin."

the camp each day as improvements are added. A rustic entrance is being built of poplar logs and a rustic bridge has already been completed across the stream near being improved. The roads in the vicinity are being covered with crushed stone from a nearby quar-

Quite a bit of clearing is being done around the camp grounds, enhancing greatly the neat appearance of the site.

On the hill back of the camp there has been raised a large pole from which Old Glory can be seen waving in the breeze.

Other improvement include the placing of electric lights in the sleeping tents, as well as in the camp buildings, and completion of the camp showers.

C. C. Pay Increased

Much to the delight of some of the Civilian Conservation Camp boys, a raise has been made in their wages. Under the new pay scale, a limited number of the recruits will receive $45 a month, instead of $30. Most of the boys. however, will remain on the $30 basis.

Only a partial list has been completed of those who will be raised to $45 a month. This list is expected to be increased from time to time; and it also is understood that at any time those receiving the higher wage fail to warrant it, they may be put back on the $30 list. Among those who already have been placed on the $45 list are: E. F. Snider, camp sergeant: Granville Liles, assistant supply sergeant; J. E. Truett, section foreman; James Jerome, assistant mess sergeant; W. T. Withers, first cook; and T. H. Martin, first cook.

Camp Cooks Munn, Hathcock and Moore received raise to $36 a month.
