

West's Mill

The Revs. W. E. Conner and Joe Bishop have just closed a successful revival meeting at Liberty Baptist church having 26 new additions to the church.

Misses Ruth and Hilda Morris, of Bryson City, spent the week-end with their uncle, D. L. Clark.

Mrs. W. H. Morrison has been very ill for the past two weeks, but is now improved.

Joel and Crawford Dalton, of Gastonia, spent the week-end with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cagle, of Los Angeles, Calif., are spending three weeks visiting friends and relatives of Macon and Jackson county.

Miss Helen Dalton is visiting relatives at Asheville, Canton and Gastonia.

Weldon Fouts and Henry Wilkie spent Saturday night at the home of W. A. McGaha.

The members of the Snow Hill Methodist church are installing lights in the church this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Carver are visiting Mr. Carver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Carver.

Franklin Mason, of California, is here on an extended visit to relatives. This is Mr. Mason's first visit in 45 years.

Mrs. John Cagle, of Savannah, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Matlock Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry West, of Asheville, are visiting their parents, Mrs. J. L. West, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Holbrooks, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Tom Bryson and daughters, Ruth and Mildred, and Mrs. J. L. Bryson attended the baptismal services at Liberty and afterwards spent the afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Kickman Sunday.

T. M. Rickman, J. F. McGaha and J. R. Holbrooks went to Alto, Ga., Tuesday.

Called To Rest

MRS. MARGARET BRADLEY
Mrs. Margaret Bradley, 84, known to her many relatives and friends in Macon county as "Aunt Marge," died at her home at Otto Wednesday afternoon, July 19, at 5:30 o'clock. Death was attributed to high blood pressure.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the Asbury Methodist church at Otto, with the Rev. J. B. Tabor, pastor, in charge.

Mrs. Bradley is survived by two sisters, Mrs. William Ledford and Mrs. Carl Smith, both of the Otto section.

MOLLISONS SPAN ATLANTIC

Amy and Jim Mollison, British fliers of renown, crashed their small plane into marshlands near Bridgeport, Conn., Sunday night, falling by only a few miles in their attempted flight from Wales to New York.

FREE! TEN PRIZES $1.50 Value Each

The cooperation of the merchants whose advertisements are set around this page make it possible to offer to subscribers a very attractive proposition.

We have in our office a card with fifty lines thereon. These lines are numbered from one to fifty.

In the upper left corner of this board the ten merchants who are aiding us in this campaign will be listed and the editor of this paper will assign to each merchant a number, from one to fifty. Then these numbers and the merchants' names will be covered so that no one can see them or the number; no one except your editor will know these numbers.

To the first fifty people who come into the office and renew their subscriptions or take out new subscriptions will be given the opportunity to win one of the prizes offered by these merchants. The names will be listed on the card in the office as they come in, each one assigned a number. When this board has been filled up the cover will be removed from the numbers and names of the merchants and the subscriber whose name appears on the line corresponding with the number assigned the merchant will be given an order by the editor to the merchant, who will deliver to you the prize he is offering.

Each prize has the value of One Dollar and Fifty cents. Read the advertisements and find just what each merchant is offering.

FIRST COME WILL BE FIRST SERVED— TEN OF THE FIFTY WILL RECEIVE PRIZES
